

LETTER wheels, wh tests, so tha may be requ

OHBONICLE CORRESPONDENCE,

Wesley Sornberger, aged 35 years.

PORT PERRY Allen Williams, of Toronto, was in the town on Thursday of last week.

little wate types of A

sizes-23 10 as iti

inches diameter to will absolutely fill the their water wheels. Paxtor.

for many 'vears turned out saw mills, shingle machines, lath mills, feed grinders, bark mills, etc. and have had their goods in demand in every province in the Dominion. To this long-established business M Williams, as sole owner, brings practical experience, (having spent many years in the employment of P. T & Co) fresh have the good will of all the customers of into the manufacturing world." I may say that every citizen of this town is pleased to this old established concern. Every one and that he may be well repaid for the large foundry. May his shadow never grow less the worst wish that our townspeople have for Madison Williams is, that he may be compelled to enlarge the buildings before

Mahogany,

and Oak

Curly Birch,

Rocking Chairs,

Roman Chairs,

Corner Chairs.

Parlor Suits.

Oak, Walnut

and Curly Birch

and best stock of Town, and lowest

Furniture in

in price

We have the largest

Mohagany,

Tables, etc.

3, 4 and 5 piece

Divans and

W. J. NOTT.

Ino Anderson, of Stouffville, lately of thi town, was here last Saturday. Rev G McCall, of Oshawa, will occupy the methodist pulpit next Sunday. Mrs W L Barnes, of Whitby, is visiting in Died near Seagrave on the 14th inst.

IAS JUST RECEIVED town this week, the guest of Mr and Mrs L Sebert of the St Charles. The Consolidated Plate Glass Co., of To- in his determination to please customers ronto, have this week replaced the damaged and make his products a synonym for explate glass with new glass in the different cellence and moneys worth. The shops Xmas Perfumes.

fronts in town

Philip Cassidy, who has been a resident of Minnesota for several years, has returned on a visit to his parents, and looks as Uncle Sam had been good to him.

The perfumes are the The postponed sale of 16 acres of hardwood on the John Graham estate will come off next very best made and the Tuesday. Dec. 21st. This will afford a good chance for everybody to secure a wood lot. Messrs M and T Emerson, well known to for the permanent success of his venture will be missed from our midst, and we wish residents in this vicinity, and who have for many months been in British Columbia, returned home last Saturday. They purpose in the spring going to the Klondike.

`hemist & Druggist. The firemen will have their annual supper this Friday evening at the Oriental hotel The committee promise an interesting time, as Mine Host Brooks is noted for the excellent bill-of-tare he provides, a pleasant evening is anticipated. Supper will be served at 8 30 p.m.; tickets 35 cts.

> The Rev W Tucker, B A, B D, of Manilla, occupied Pastor McCamus pulpit last Sunday. The reverend gentleman by his discourses left a good impression on the large audiences he addressed; he has a forcible and pleasant delivery and is augumentative and at the same time places his views very plainly, so that they are easily understood His evening discourse was well worth hear ing The text was "In all labor there is a profit," from Proverbs 14th chap, and 23rd verse. Mr Tucker was at home in handing his subject.

On Wednesday of last week while James Cowan, Esq., President; Reuben S. Nott, mason, was carrying brick from the mlin; Esq., Vice-Pres.; W F Cowan, ground to the roof of W E Yarnolds house. F. Allen, Esq., J. A. Gib- he met with a rather serious accident. He Robt McIntosh, M.D., Thos had all the brick on the roof but one small lot, and was on the ladder with that lot, and Cashier | while in the act of stepping from the ladder to the edge of the roof the ladder, he and Banking Business transacted. bricks all fell to the ground, a distance of 16 asued, payable in all parts of Can- or 18 feet. He lay for some minutes in a nited States, and on London, Eng. dazed state and when found he was badly payable in all parts of Europe. 3% bruised, but happily no bones were broken ent, allowed on Savings Bank Deposits still he was injured enough that it will be some days before the injured man will be able to resume work. The wonder is, that Mr Nott was not injured more seriously than he was, and he is very thankful it is no worse The accident was caused by the ladder not being fastened to the roof. Manager of Waitby Branch.

Druggist Allison is now opening out a brand new stock of drugs and sundries in the Currie block .- Dr and Dentist Sangster are bicely located in the Willard block upstairs -- Contractor Stovin and men are pushing f rward the woodwork in the burnt Lot 24, 6th con of West Whitby, in the building. Mason Wm Spence is looking Port Perry, after the mason work on the same building --- Charlie Jones has changed from a drug to a dry goods salesman for a time, and is good garden and one acre of good orchard. | now in Jones & Cos dry g od store. --- Our merchants are making extra preparations for the Xmas trade, and any one needing beautiful and nice presents for loved ones for Santa Claus cannot do better than pay our town a visit, and visitors will find everything that heart could desire, from the cheapest to the most costly presents.----Everywhere one goes you will hear the little folks talking about what they want at Xmas; some want one thing, some another, and, if the time honored old Sauta Claus buys everything that is wished he will be heavily loaded on Christmas eve. It is to be hoped that the little folks, and many who of Claremont, and is now filling the position are bigger, may not be disappointed, and that the hearts of all may be cheered and made happy by the approaching Christmas town of Thursday of last week, with the the 19th. The seachers and officers have deresult that several informations were laid | cided not to have a tea this year, but a freewill and costs, amounting to $3.85 in each case. is expected to preach both morning and evening. Also two men were fined for drinking liquor he only had a cigar (?) Some people like to society held their annual meeting in the church. see the inspector with his bland smile, and After the secretary had read a report of the some dont want to see him come near the work done the past year, and the officers electall the chances in favor of nip; tuck is in gave a very interesting and instructive diswill soon be righted and that peace and ing throughout the world. quietness will be in order for the future. I There have been several sheep killed by dogs do not think for a moment that any one in in this vicinity of late. If the owners of such Port Perry desires to see our hotelmen pro- dogs would give them a dose of lead some secuted or persecuted; surely it is an easy morning for breakfast it would be the best thing Sweeper. matter for any hotelkeeper to close his bar they could do. No one wants his sheep deand lock it, and keep locaed all doors lead- stroved by those curs, nor yet does he want his ing from his bar if he so desires. In this taxes raised, as they certainly must be, if the connection I desire to mention a matter that | council has to pay for the sheep killed. if again done may result in some persons being prosecuted for perjury in false swear. specimens of the human race that has ever been ing in liquor cases. Two instances have re- seen in Greenwood spent a few days of last cently come to light where men swore post- week in our midst. It was with feelings of tively that they had had no liquor in the great joy our citizens beheld them take their cases being tried. It now transpires that departure elsewhere. Were the people less those parties are crowing over the fact that generous hearted to all such people when they cast of our burg. They are a tough looking set they got clear by perjuring themselves, at such low where if they had sworn to the truth they eat or wear, and instead of giving them what take their departure. been mulcted in heavy fines. Some day boot, they is all likelihood would soon decide been mulcted in heavy fines. Some day boot, they in all likelihood would soon decide contest which is being held at Ashburn. The some of those who violate their own con- to return to the land from whence they came, members of the Royal Templars have chosen sciences and swear false will be brought be- or else lead a more respectable life, Fine Lounge for $ 4 00 fore the grim majesty of the law, and then arlor Sett 16 00 they will find out that no teniency will be omicie.

EECEMBER 17, 1897.

NO. 55

TOWN LINE.

... janes and family are leaving the Town Mrs Sylvester Mackey is still in poor health. e hope she may be fully restored before long Mrs Coaliwell, Miss Allie and Archie attend ed the funeral of the late Charles Coakwell sr., Brooklin. Mr and Mrs Oldfield and Miss Gertie Oldfield, of Columbus, visited Mr and Padget on te & Co have | Monday of this week. model circular

Mrs Davey has been on the sick list for some time. We are much pleased to report that at Master Richard Coakwell is home at present preparatory to his going west, to live with his uncle, Mr Remmer, of Winchelsea, Huron Co. let feels much improved in health since returacapital, a good name and great earnestness ing home from the Toronto general hospital. being made for it. where he had been for medical treatment. have been thoroughly overhauled and are already manned with a full staff of competent mechanics in every department, and we ing, Dec., 21st. Come to our meetings. Come | meeting. are advised that from enquiries and orders to help and to receive help in divine things. received recently, Mr Williams will not only Mr Roger Carpenter and family are leaving the David Brown farm and moving to Whitby Paxton. Tate & Co. but a full share of the town for the present. Mr Carpenter moved new business springing up throughout the from the Brock Road community, to the Brown country, which the merits of his machines farm one year ago. Mr Carpenter and family what all would now prefer having. deserve. Mr Williams has our best wishes

The Almonds Sabbath school entertainment see such activity about the foundry again and to know of the numerous orders that will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec 29th have been received which speaks volumes Judging from the foreign and local talent that for the good name of the work turned out by have been secured this entertainment should not be missed. Parents and others are requested to wishes the new proprietor abundant success have presents ready to hand to the committee on the afternoon of Dec 20th to be put on the outlay of capital that he has invested in the arch. Kindly keep the presents for this entertainment instead of giving them on Xmas eve Particulars later.

them prosperity wherever their lot may be

Myrtle Station.

Mr Risebrow s about moving on the farm owned by Mrs Still about one mile from Raglan Ashton Bros. from this place attended the uneral of their brother-in-law, Mr Wickett, at Oshawa on Saturday last,

Quite a number of persons from this section attended the oyster supper a Ragian last week and of course had a good time. Mrs Luke Francis returned home from Toronto on Monday of this week, after spending a few days with her daughter Lucy and other friends. Miss Francis Gedingham from Toronto was at home last week with her father, her sister Maggie taking her place and doing her work in the Another cars partly filled with live hogs was shipped to the Toronto market last week by M McIntyre from this point. And if we are not greatly mistaken, at no time since the C.P.R commenced operations has there been so many live hogs sent to Toronto as their has been dur course for the same length of time.

Next Sunday, Rev Dr Lambly from Brooklin will preach here at 10.30 a.m. and Rev I B Mc Laren of Columbus at 7 p. m., and in the afternoon at 2 20, at the mass-meeting of scholars, teachers and friends, Dr. Lambly will deliver an address, also recitations by the scholars. Voluntary offerings in aid of the Sunday school fund able time. will be taken at each service. The executive committee of the school adopted the free-will offering plan some few years ago to raise money to pay expenses of the school, and thus far it has proved a decided success.

At Armour's,

MYRTLE STATION

To make room for new goods to arrive at the new year, I will sell for the balance of Dec. all goods

SPECIAL.

and Boys READY-MADE CLOTHING

AT COST.

G. Armour/

BALSAM

Mr J E Disney has a fine stock of Christmas

Remember the closing exercises at the school

Mr Ino Anson is doing a lot of chopping these

There was no market here on Saturday there

Mr Ward, of Greenwood officiated at Mt Zion being no buyers on hand on account of the rain.

Sunday night, Mr Wards efforts are always ap-

The following has beet selected as a commi

tee to organize a choir at Mt Zion :--] H Madil

A number of foreigners are encamped to the Quite an interest is being taken in the literary sides and each side is doing its best so win.

The oyster supper at Ashburn last Thursd.

J B Disney, Mrs Dingman and Miss Birkett.

days since the Evansville mill closed down.

Mr Fred Wilson, of Masitoba is renewit acquaintance in this part after his recent lameness.

on Tuesday the gest inst.

The patrons of Geneva cheese factory met evening given by the beef ring was a deci

ceds were over $100

Myrae Station.

AT 10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT

W. J. NOTT, MANAGER. Ont.

GREENWOOD

One of our sports shot a large white owl last Miss Kate Madden is home on a visit to her

The heavy rains have made the roads almost Several who are behind with their ploughing were seen turning the soil over a few days ago, Miss Fanny Sadler is under the doctors care.

May she have a speedy recovery is the wish of W H Wilson has engaged with W Graham, as assistant blacksmith. Messrs W. Gee and M. White each took a load of produce to the city last week and realized fair prices for same.

The anniversary services in connection with

Inspector Fergueon paid another visit to the sabbath school will be held next sabbath, against minors with the result : $2 and offering will be taken at each service. A stranger On Wednesday evening of last week the on a Sunday, and one got clear by swearing | Kinsale and Greenwood branch of the bible town. It is a question of nip and tuck, with | ed for the year coming, Dr Parker, Toronto, the soup. It is to be hoped that matters course on the work the bible societies are do-

Some of the most degraded, doverty-stricken and the landlords in question would have they asked for would give them the toe of his shown to those persons who will perjure themselves in whiskey trials. The first man caught in perjury will remember it as long as he lives. Beware of snage.

Good Words for our Poundry.

here on Dec 3rd to finish the busines of the seather than the president, called upon the son. Mr. Hart, the president, called upon the seather to read his report and the Auditors respectively. Madill and Kerr gave songs. Misses port, both of which were quite satisfactory and on motion of Mr J Lee, a hearty sote of thanks readings. Mr J I Baladon and filled the chair.

BROOKLIN

Wetheys mince meat, 10c package, which makes two large pies. Get it at Holliday

Mr Bromell and Miss Blight, from near Columbus, were married here by Dr Lambly on Wednesday afternoon. A number of Oddfellows attended the funeral of the late Geo Wickett at Oshawa the blacksmithing here with Mr D J McLean. on Mond y. He was a brother of Mr Thos Wickett who lives here.

Rev J B McLaren preached at Wick on Sunday and Mr McBean, a Knox college here last week with her parents, Mr and Mrs H student, conducted the services here and at Lock. Columbus. His sermons were highly appreciated Our readers are again requested to keep in rememberance the entertainment to be given We are glad to report that Mr Charlie Gimb- by the methodist Sunday school on Christmas evening. Very special preparation is Mr Hemphill, the Foresters organizer,

Owing to the unpropitious state of the weather | who has been here for a few weeks, organwe had no meeting of our endeavor society on ized a court of the I O.F. on Friday evening Tuesday evening last. We hope to have Mr. last. Fourteen joined on this occasion and McAvoy, of Kinsale, with us on Tuesday even- others were expected to come in at next

Pansies in full bloom have been picked here this week. If the mild weather continues there may be tulips for Christmas. The flowers are of course much appreciated but colder weather and an end to the mud is

Mr Robert Henderson who has been work- farther. We hope they may strike gold this ing on Mr Drydens farm for nearly a year. | time. leaves this (Friday) morning for his home at Rockton. During the last five months he has been president of the presbyterian C. E. society and will be very much missed by his

On Wednesday evening on invitation of Reeve McTaggart, the members of the council and the township officers partook of a fore wood is havled away. Fairbanks & Baird, sumptuous supper at the Sebert house. All Auctioneers, were good eaters and full justice was done to the excellent fare provided. Councillor Willis was the only absentee.

Mr Harry Meen sat at the receipt of custom in the council room last Monday. During the alternoon he received very nearly | 6d as Arabs, we will call them that for short, $1500. On Wednesday he reported to council that of the $10.610.62 he had to collect, all had been paid in but $380. The counci instructed Mr Meen to gather in the balance immediately.

Toronto, Benj. McQuay at one time a hotel to our citizens and quite a number of five cent keeper here, was found guilty of theft. The pieces were, plainly speaking, thrown away. At evidence showed that McQuay agreed to the same time the woman did up the town by buy some furniture from a man named Pick | calling at each and every house, begging for ard and immediately sold it to another party something to eat or wear, and even an armful of without paying for it. He then took it from straw to feed their horse. When the man had

Mr A C Elliott met with a very serious accident in Whitby last Friday. In coming out of the shed at the Queens hotel his horse ing the last three months from here, that is of cramped the wagon so short that it was upset, Mr Elliott was thrown out and a barrel of salt fell on him breaking both bones of one leg above the ankle. After Dr Warren | when the members of the council left the had reduced the fracture he was brought in town hall, and wended their way to the a hack. He has since had considerable pain botel to celebrate the winding up of the in the injured limb as would naturally be business by an oyster supper. The display expected and will be laid up for a consider- set forth was in the best of form, and in all

> Rev N H Russell gave his lecture on India to a very small audience in the presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. The slim attendance was due altogether to the very dark night and bad roads. Those who were present were well repaid for the effort it cost them in getting there. The latern was not in first class condition and the views used to illustrate the address were not as clear as they should have been but they helped very largely in giving a good idea of the condition of the natives of India and for foreign missions.

The standing of the pupils of the senior depertment of Brooklin public school for the fall ferm in as below: (Written test for fourth classes—Third and man classes, class over so intelligent a municipality as this ie Whiteford and Pearl Reeson (equal), Lil-lian Chinn, Ethel Blenkhorn, Oswald Wilson, Frank Redman, Nellie Colwill, Gordon Beckel 45, Carrie Biggs 39, Mand Wickett step up. Mr Lamb said it was a pleasure to 39, Lily Skinner 23. Class V-(60 per cent him to meet so many of his friends, and so or over)-Nellie Hislop, Hattle Grass and Mr Richard Ward is able to be around again Mary Fowlie.

Business Directory.

BEALL, S. - Issuer of Marriage License Besidence opposite Town Hall, Brooklin. W A McNestr, D V S .- Graduate of the On tario Veterinary College, Toronto; Honorary member of the Ontario Medical Society. Treats all diseases of the domesticated animals by the most approved method. Also particular attention to surgical operations and dentistry. Day or night calls prompti-attended to. Office and residence brooklin

A big collection to choose Pancy Dry Goods, Table and Pocket Cul-lery, Plated Goods, Jewelry, Books, China, Lamps, Glassware, Toya in big. GROCERY DEPT.

Note these Special Cash Prices Lemon and Grange Peel, 15c lb. Almondo 12 %c, Pennuta 12, Walnuta 15c.
All kinds mixed, 12c lb.
Table Ratsins (black baskets) 14c lb.
Cleaned Valencia Raisins, 4 lbs for 25c. Gum Drope toc lb.
Mized Candy, 4 lbs for esc.
Oranges, Lemons, Dates, Figs, etc., at Manchester.

Miss Maud Spence is visiting in Whitby. Miss Lydia Heard of Epsom, is visiting here with her sister, Mrs R W Ewers,

After an illness of some weeks Mrs Thomas Smith sr., is able to be out again, Mr Frank Cooper, of Claremont, is learning

Mr Wm Martin left this week for Peterboro where he has secured to situation for the winter Mrs Stonehouse, of Scarboro, was visiting

The postponed sale of 10 acres of hardwood on the John Graham estate will come off next Tuesday, Dec. 21st. This will afford a good chance tor everybody to secure a wood lot,

The last meeting of the council was held on Wednesday. As the different members wil make known their standing this week we will in all probability be able to give a full report in

.From present appearances the outlook is not very good for our Christmas fair which is to be held next Wednesday. Every effort will be put forth to make it a success, and if the weather should prove fine no doubt it will be a rouser, A couple of our boys are bound to get to the Klondike and the gold regions. A few weeks ago Messrs Silas Fitchett and Albert Christie struck out via Zephyr but returned again. This week they went to Goodwood and probably

Auction Sale of Timber-10 Acres. The undersigned has received instructions to seil by auction on Tuesday Dec 21st, 1897. lot 14, and concession of Reach, belonging to the estate of the late fuo Graham, about 10 acres or hardwood timber, nearly all maple and beech. Terms-half each at time of sale, and balance be-

About as hard a looking class of people as ever struck this town appeared on our streets about noon on Thursday of last week. We do not know their nationality or from whence they came, but having heard of just such people class-The lot consisted of a man and his wife, two sons and two daughters, ranging from fifteen to twenty years, and about one dozen little ones ranging between that and the babe strapped to the mothers back. To attract the attention of the citizens there were two bears and two mon-On Tuesday in the general sessions at keys. The bear dance, etc., was something new Pickards room without his consent. Sen- collected all the cash possible, he tied the bears tence had not been passed at the time of up, produced a whiskey jug and hied himself to the hotel to get it filled. Having procured the treasure the procession wended its way to the woods north of the village, and set up camp for the night. Next day they moved on towards Uxbridge where we hope they will get a severe It was a late hour on Wednesday wight

there were eighteen who took seats at the tables. After the passions of the inner man had been satisfied, the venerable clerk, Mr. W Spence, was voted to the chair for the rest of the evening As a mere introductory, he briefly outlined the workings of the council for the past year. He said the year of 1897 had been probably one of the most successful of any in his knowing. The rate of tax had been lower, the expenditures had been likewise and so far he had not heard of one threat of a law suit. People had remarked that he ran the council, but he pointed out that that statment was not true. of the work the missionaries are engaged in The members of the council were the men, and the methods they use for carrying out and he did all in his power to assist them. In their plans; shearty vote of thanks was given | conclusion he complimented the retiring the lecturer after a collection was taken up gentlemen upon their years work, and hoped that the people would uphold them. Mr. Reil, reeve, was the first member to speak. He waxed forth in an eloquent lit-

work. Jr III; (names in order of merit) over so intelligent a municipality as this, lessie Smith and Grant Eddy, (equal), Lothad been with the resolve to step down and out and so let some one else appear. How-ever, upon being asked to take the same stand once more, he resolved to do so. He Cowle. Sr III—John Vipond, Louis Biggs. had only been in the chair one year, and if 50 OVERCOATS and a variety of MENS Lena Colwill, and Edith Bryant, (equal), was customary to hold the chair two years. John Colton, Louis Sebert and Effie D ig, If a contest should result he hoped the rate-(equal), Laura Francis, Violet Armstrong. payers would stand by the old council. Mr John Hislop, Sydney Bond. Jr IV—Roy Camplin, 1st deputy, said he was not much of a speaker, being only an eight months Edith Longford 43, Henry Hastings 38, Jas. bird, and had not yet the experience. He Kerr 25, Jessie Craig 20, Sr IV—Osborne set out boldly, however, and got these just Pherrill 80 per cent, Cliff Eddy 79 per cent, the same The seat occupied by him was Bert Goldsbro 78, Gertie Marshall 68, David not just what he wanted now, and rather Nest 64, Lillian Knight 65, Caroline Biggs than make a break in the "Happy Family" 52, Edith Francis 52, Winnie Pherrill 48, was willing to start at the foot of the ladder Martin Routley 48. Eva Coiton 45, James and so allow Messrs Stephens and Lamb to > chat over the prospects of the coming year He had made an honest endeavor to help economise, and predicted that the people would be pleased with the results. For four years he had been in service and now asked to be elected first deputy. Mr Stephens set forth his speech in a very plain manner. He felt that he had served now long enough as councilor, and hoped the people would see fit to elect him second deputy. Mr Mc-Donald told of this, his first years experience, and what a good start he thought had been made. Being a member of the "happy family" he would be pleased to remain so if the electors saw fit. Mr. Peter Christie county representative for Sengog district came next in turn. He says that the fel-lows have got the thing settled up pretty good, and predicts that the people will stand by them. The rich repast had some-what unmanued him for a speech, for after what unmanned him for a speech, for after a blowout like that, he was almost too full to take part in the proceedings. He was pleased to see the grand taste in which an Irishman arranged the bill of fare. The Englishman before him had been so cloquent, he could hardly say anything. For he county council, and the township There is no necessity of a fight this time Next year there will be two, and then have a good slap at it. Mr Jos Baird : The coun-

a good slap at it. Me Jos Baird: The council say they have done well and we will take their word for it. He was pleased to hear from the people in general that the work done is very satisfactory, and hopes the old council may be elected again. Mr. Hagerman voiced the sentiments of the speakers before him. He thinks, however, that the council made one mistake, that is of not mixing his salary. After votes of thanks had been tendered to mine host Tooley and his good wife for the rich spread and to the chairman for his services the programme was concluded by all joining in "God Save the Queen."

When taking subscription for the CHRON-tous clubbed with other papers do not for-get that the prices are not the name as last year. In another column may be found the rates for their. In every case, without any exception, the full amount must be changed.

IN BANK OF CANADA.

H. AILIN

worth d

prices right.

Petrothal

 \exists , the sachets.

window display

goods Friday.

Dum

Whitby, Ont.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

attention attention to collection o E. D. WARREN.

FIRST CLASS

ullage of Brooklin, comprising 100 acres nown as the Bickle Homestead. On the premises is a good house and outbuildings, Possession for plowing given at once, and possession of whole farm by Nov 1, 1807. For further particulars apply to

W. J. BICKLE. 55 Front St East, Toronto, or to JOHN VIPOND, Brookiin, Ont. Brooklin, Sept 15. 97 -tf.

ed

FANCY Cobler Rockers 2 00 shown to those persons who will perjure Sideboards, plate mirror. 8 50 themselves in whiskey trials. The first man Dining Tables 4 50 as he lives. Beware of snags. Childrens Rockers all prices Good Words for our Foundry.