Your Mission.

If you gannot on the ocean Sail among the swiftest fleet, Rocking on the highest billows, Laughing at the storm you meet, You can stand among the sailors. Anchored yet within the bay; You can lend a hand to help them

As they launch their boat away, If you are too weak to journey Up the mountain, steep and high, You can stand within the valley, While the multitudes go by; You can chant in happy measure, As they slowly pass along; Though they may forget the singer, They will not forget the song.

Ever ready to command; If you cannot t'ward the needy Reach an ever open hand; You can visit the afflicted, O'er the erring you can weep You can be a true diciple Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

If you have not gold and silver

If you cannot in the harvest Garner up the richest sheaves, Many a grain both ripe and golden Will the careless reapers leave; Go and glean among the briers, Growing rank against the wall, For it may be that their shadow Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

If you cannot in the conflict Prove vourself a soldier true-If, where fire and smoke is thickest, There's no work for you to do; When the battle-field is silent, You can go with careful tread, You can bear away the wounded, You can cover up the dead.

Do not then, stand idly waiting, For some greater work to do; Fortune is a lazy goddess-She will never come to you. Go and toil in any vineyard, Do not fear to do or dare; If you want a field of labor,

You can find it any where.

Bays the Witness, the Bishop of Montreal, in his recent postoral letter sounds the war-trumpet as vigorously as of the Pope's wrongs, describes in pathetic terms his danger, and calls upon the faithful to come forth for his defence. as the warlike Muccabees of old defended their holy things. The Bishop says the want of money appears to be the great difficulty, and suggests that, to overcome that difficulty, each of the 400,000 Catholics in his diocese should give a quarter dollar, thus making up $100,000; and, for as many as are too poor to give this amount, there will be plenty of rich people to give more. In this way each parish could, he says furnish a soldier for he Pope, and the cities could do more.
