Par Plis prices, causidering the

A perfect lit and nis. Wilson.

..... Sen. dants pestage, and by of large value, hat will at once bring 21. - HALLETT & Co., Port-of New-paper advertisour prices. The exact any paper, or list of cheerfully furnished, m application. nd for New Catalogue. C. HOUGH, CCI. Detroit, Mich.

HOME Farm, Vayne Co., Mich. RNUM, PROPRIETORS.

ravellers' Guide.

DLUME 25.

MILTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1885,

Northern & North-West'n Railways

Through tickets to all points East and West and Manitoba. For tickets, rates etc., apply to Milton

Threshing Machine

IIIBRICATINC OF ALL KINDS.

> Best Value in Above at W. H. MACNAB'S HARDWARE, Milton.

Fall and Autumn Dry Goods Arriving at The RIGHT HOUSE. they were very anxious over the law at the nearing presence of death stunned. Delaney House burned to the and willing to atono for her father's stunned the deformed maniac dead;

e shipment of New Autumn Dry Goods, purchased in England by Mr. Thomas C. Watkins, has been received and placed in stock at the Right House. New name cleared from obloquy, and my Lawns at 10, 15, 17, 18, 25c. Splendid value. Swiss Check Muslin, New Indian Linen, New Colored Sateens. A magnificent stock of New Prints and friends all ready to crave my pardon for willing for this strange marriage. They shown in wide and narrow Stripes, Spots, Checks. Also Navy Blue Polka Dots and Cardinal Polka Dots. A large stock of New Dress Linings. New Black their unkindness. It took my breath argued that it did not matter, even with white back. A handsome stock of New Lace Curtains, latest patterns in Ecru and White. These Curtains will be sold at wholesale prices. Over 100 away." Velveteers shown in all the newest colorings, and in the Celebrated Fast Pile surface.

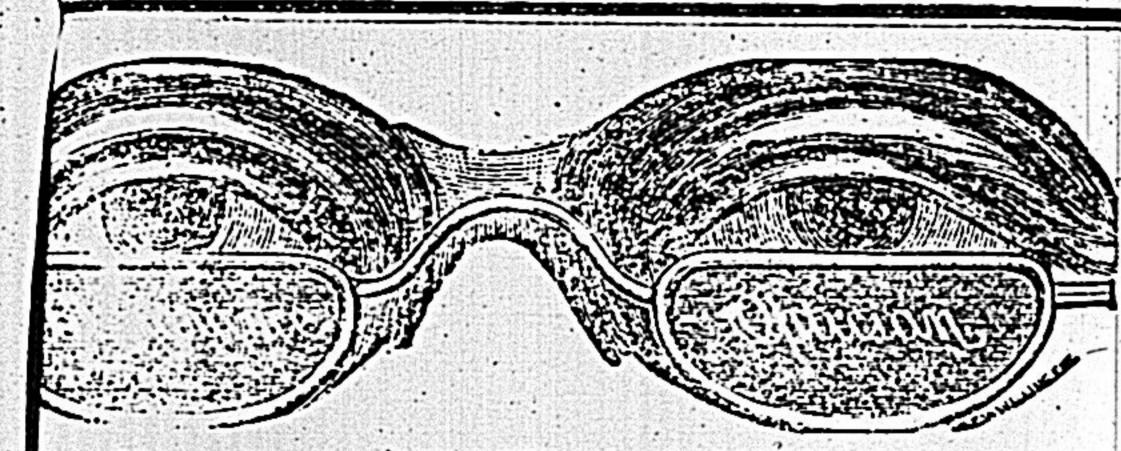

The manufacturers claim for these Velveteens the finish and best the smiled in spite of his pain as he was for such a very little while.

These Nam Cooks will be followed by ather large shipments of Segren.

He smiled in spite of his pain as he was for such a very little while. In of Silk V, Ivet ever introduced to the public. New Pillow Cotton in Shruank finish. These New Goods will be followed by other large shipments of Scarce saw the sudden joy-light flash over her So the very next morning there was buch in demand, which will be opened up in a few days. Important that ladies should know of the Clearing Sale at Greatly Reduced Prices which will be face. What mattered all that had hap-strange and quiet marriage in the sic' the Right House during August. In order to sell the balance of Summer Goods prices have been marked down extremely low. Special lots of Black Goods penned to him so that she was saved, affered this week. A lot of All-wool Black Cashmeres at 40c., worth 50c. All-wool Cashmeres at 50c., formerly 65c., and another lot of All-wool Cashmeres at this fair, sweet girl, who had suffered so f Mortment of Chenille Shoulder Capes and Fancy Wraps at less than half price. A visit to the Carpet Department during this month will pay you. Many
"You must be very angry with paps, settled upon her, stood by the sick-bed with her hand in Oran Delancy's, and pestry and Brussels Carpets have been reduced to low prices. A full assortment of Housefurnishings will be found in this department, consisting of Window Poles, Walnut and Ebony Poles. Special Bargains in Linen Towellings. Nice Linen Towellings with her hand in Oran Delaney's, and He reached out and took her hand in Dio Lewis's Naggets.

We will be very angry with papa, settled upon her, stood by the sick-bed upon her, stood u Blinds, Carpet Sweepers, Stair Rods, Brass Window Poles, Walnut and Ebony Poles. Special Bargains in Lace Curtains. Over 100 pair of Lace Curtains offered at about one half their real value. A lot of White Counterpanes reduced to low "Angry? No! I have never blamed vice that made her his own until Death vice that made her his own until Death Table Lines reduced to low prices. Customers will find serviceable goods all over the house at prices the very lowest they have ever offered at. Remember him. In his place I should have acted should part them—Death, that stood t House is on King street east, near Hughson street. The name is

THOMAS, C. WATKINS.

B. LAURANCE'S pectacles and Eye-Glasses,

ONLY GENUINE 20-ENGLISH ARTICLES IN THE CANADIAN Real Pebles are kept in stock! Tests are given to prove genuineness! aded by and testimonials have been received from the President ident and Ex-President of the Medical Association of Canada; the Prehe College of Physicians and Surgeons of Quebec; the Dean of the by of Laval University; the President and Ex-Presidents of the Canadi of Nova Scotia, &c. These recommendations ought to be sufficient t: eir qualities, but if further proof is needed call on

J. W. FRASER, MILTON, The only place in Milton where they can be obtained. .

TATES TO IT NNING Mill FACTORY.

MITCHELL BROS. PROPS. ersigned, having purchased the O!l Novelty Works, have fitted it up the manufacture of the CELEBRATED MITCHELL FANNING-MILL. hich is unsurpassed as a machine for the purpose in this country.

We are also prepared to do.

NERAL CARPENTER WORK intentionent. inber Planed and Matched to Order on short notice.

FACTORY NEAR HAMILTON AND NORTH-WESTERN STATION.

on June 9: 1885.

RAMSHAW & McNAIR. To intimate that they are prepared to fill all orders for

Buggies,

mithing and Repairing on wood work aspecialty. 41-yr Snors-Commercial St., Milton teral Notice to Farmers and others having Wool to Mainifacture. . v take the pleasure to inform you that improved my facilities for Roll Card-1 Spinning, and have put everything st-class order for making up your wool MAIN STREET, MILTON. Tarn. Flanuels or Blankets, and you epend on having your own wool made pether small or large bundles) into any. you may desire, or I will exchange your r substantial Yarns, Flannels, Tweeds, mers having very coarse wool (which) ter by having it made up into yarn for the & Horse Blankets, which I am premake up on very reasonable terms. do not manufacture for the wholesale t, but keep strictly a Farmers' Custom your cotted wool into Ba Yours respectfully,

1884.

D. VICKERMAN

Send six cents for postag L'AL of goods which will help you ddr. ss. Thur & Co., Agusta, Maine.

R. JONES,

HARNESS AND SADDLE MANUFACTURER, (Next door to the Thompson House,)

I wish to thank my customers for their liberal patronage in the past, and remind them that I have removed my, shop across the street to the premises adjoining the Thompson House, where I shall keep on hand a good stock of HARNESS, SADDLES, TRUNKS, VALISES, WHIPS, COMBS, BRUSHES and all Kinds of Horse Clothing of the very Best Entilsh Canadian and American Manufacture.

Repairing done with neatness and all work Real Estate, issue of "CANADIAN LAND ADVE. d from the first hour. The broad road to expens before the workers, absolutely sur besides best list of Farms and other Properties ever unblished; mailed on receipt of 25 cents. W. J. FENTON & CO., Real Estate Agents, Adelaide street east. Toronto.

THE CANADIAN CHAMPION IS PUBLISHED EVERY Thursday Morning MILTON, CO. OF HALTON, ONT.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

The number of lines to be reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid Nonparell.

Advertisements without special instructions inserted till forbid, and charged accordingly. Any Special Notice, the object of which is to Mospecial notice of any kind admitted and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion ney, Notary Public, etc., Town Hall, Mainstree D. Solicitor in Chancery, ste. Office—Booth's CAN, 361 Browlway, New York.

Legal.

CHISHOLM & ELLIOTT. Barristers, &c. Office.-First door east of Bauk of Hamilton, Milton, Ont. VICTOR CHISHOLM. J.W.ELLISTT. B.A.

- PARKES & MACADAMS, NOTARIES & CONVEYANCERS. 2 Offices: Hamilton Provident and Loan Society Chambers, Hamilton. "830.000 to Loan at lowest rates of interest." 1-yr A. H. MACADAMS.

BAIN, LAIDLAW & Co. Barristers & Solicitors.

Alley, Toronto. WILLIAM LAIDLAW. JOHN BAIN, Q. C. GEORGE KAPPELE. C. A. MASTEN: OSLER, TEETZEL & HARRISON (Successors of Laidlaw & Harrison, and Osler, Gwyn & Teetzel.) BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS. &c. OFFICE-Canada Life Buildings, Ham

"Special attention given to investments and J. V. TEETZEL. B. B. Osten, Q. C. JOHN 1 /11111 K. WC LIVINGSTO

Royal College of Dental Surgeons, Ontario will be in Milton on the last Tuesday of every month. Office in the Thompson

Hotel Cards, THOMPSON HOUSE

-- MILTON ONT .-The subscriber having leased the above hot which has been THOROUGHLY RENOVATED. Is prepared to give all guests the best of acodation. First class board at reason able rates. The stables are in charge of an attentive hostler. FRANK SANDERSON.

MAIN ST., MILTON,

Wallace House, Milton. , STYLISH, AND

None but first-class horses ken papers of its class combanied. Price, $3.20 a year. you would not refuse to accept a fortune, detect some signs of life yet. It is only hiding her face against his hands.

MUNN & CO., Publish rea No. 361 Broadway, N.

persons who wish to dispose of their patents. Helptor the working people. Send 10 cents wife?".

She is a royal, valuable sample box of goods that will put you in the way of making more money in a few days than you ever though possible at any business. Capital not required. Yo Co., Portland, Maine.

Hunter & Ezard, Proprietors.

We are prepared to fill all orders for all kinds of HOUSE FURNISHINGS SUCH AS

SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, MOULDINGS BASE, &c. BALUTERS and NEWELLS, Also all kinks of all kinds of buildings, either in part or whole.

DEALER IN

Factory-Mill Street, Milton.

PRICES MODERATE.

Terms-$1, at time of service. Boyne, April 24, 1985 45-4t

AUTHOR OF "Laurel Vane," "Lady Gay's Pride

unhappiness had you done so," he said. done. He was haunted by remorse. "I came home to Maywood with them at last," she said. "By that time they undo the deed he had done in his bitter had argued me into a more reasonable mood. I was willing to return home; but that morning they came over to sent them before me as avant courters, he might call Aline his bride before h your whole story revealed; my own a few short hours.

the same, no doubt," he replied, calmly. silent and unseen in the room even now, "But I am very sorry, and so is papa. fearful of being robbed of his proy. ould give anything in the world to Aline's was low and firm. As in ndo what he has done!" exclaimed | dream, she felt the wedding-ringslippe "Anything?" he repeated. "Anything!" she reiterated, carnestly

CHAPTER LXVI.

"And you, Aline ?" he questioned.

the girl in her frank, innocent way.

toom quietly with her tray of empty Miss Rodney-she was Mrs. Delaney, lishes a moment before. They were and in a short while she would be a Go on. I will try to bear it," she said, looked so wan and ill, what if he should it all seemed ."Are you going so soon ?!' he asked whispered in her ear:.

It flashed over her that it was cowardly darling afraid to see him die. When he held head so that he might kiss her cheek. out his hand to her she went up bravely He pressed his mustached lips softly "I will try not to be afraid," she said | "Thank you, and God bless you, my

"Oh, and there is something I must or pulsation could be detected. say to you-I had nearly forgotten!" Rodney was in despair. "Well?" he asked, looking up into the "I had hoped that he would rally, that COMFORTABLE RIGS. wide blue eyes regarding him atten. God would spare his life, and "They told mo that you had made a knowing myself a murderer. And you, will—that you had left me a great for- too, my poor child, are a widow in tune. Oh, Mr. Delaney, that must not hour of your bridal!". I cannot take it!" she cried, "You must, Aline. It is but a small

"But I do not wish to do so. I refuse patient, looked around at these words, "You are a rash and foolish child, or "No, no, you are mistaken. I can "No matter. I will not have it," she except the nurse and myself, and You do not know what pleasures

I shall not care for them," she re "You must leave your fortune "To whom?" he asked. "I do not know. Any one you wish All in a moment he caught her hand that she had come home, and that she your life might be spared to me.

with a strength she had not deemed him had been in Floride all the time with Heaven has granted my prayer. possessed of, and drew her toward him. Dr. and Mrs. Anthony. He grew red will live for me, my husband!" "Aline, darling," he whispered, with and pale by turns when he heard that his lips very near to her cheek, "will Aline was married to Mr. Delaney. She you not let me leave the fortune to my was the only woman he had ever loved. color flowing out of her cheeks. "Your wife?" she faltered.

the time. All of both sexes, of all ages, grandly do not turn away from me so coldly. I him ever to aspire to her hand.

cloquence, her face growing deadly her future for her. .. No one would ever "Do you hear me, Aline?" he asked. the proud name of Delaney. "I am asking you to be my wife. I love He would have liked to see her and for they delight in puffs.

you devotedly. I have loved you ever congratulate her, but they told him that since I first met you. Will you no: she was: locked into her room, re- how little importance he is, let him go grant my request?" "I do not want to be married, Mr. De away leaving his hest wishes for laney, and-and-you are asking me her and her husband if he ever because-of-that-night," sho said rallied sufficiently to receive them. slowly, with downcast eyes.

before that dreadful night, and because who had lured him into such a sweet orders, as thickening of the meninges (it would make me happy in dying to atone for your father's sin, Wline, said earnestly. "Will you Would it be very irksome to be my a few days or hours, as the case might be? It would only be a little while, ro-

She raised her large, earnest eyes "It would be only a little while—that is true," she said, reflectively. "I wonder what my father would wish me "Will you let me ask him?" said Orar Delaney, eagerly.

CHAPTER LXVII. said Aline, trustingly, and an eager light of joy gleamed in Oran Delaney's eyes. He fancied that Mr. Rodney would be kind lawyer was disposed to be very kind to Delanoy all day, then they left him daughter was safe at home again, he The wintry day was fading into darkness. Mrs. Griffin had slipped out for

And now when Oran Delaney told him in a few frank words that his descent ground; the deformed maniac dead; consented at once to give her hand to von wounded by my father's hand, and the man who at best could claim it but to him—that he would give him the boon

He steady in the beautiful responses on her finger, she heard the clergyman's There was a little stir about

"I feel worse than papa over it," said and Dr. Anthony were pressing her hand. She shook herself free from them all presently, and tried to realize what had happened to her. She, Aline Rodney, who, such a little, little while ago had been a wilful, thoughtless from his lips. She looked at him anxi- to lose her trade entirely. Mrs. Griffin had slipped out of the child, was married! She was no longer ously.

Aline shivered a little. He widow. How strange, how dream-like with a falter in his voice. "Your husband would like to kiss you, him alone because she was | She went to his side and bent her

"You are going before I have said all And then the dark head fell and the -almost incredulously: eyes closed. For a minute they all A sudden light flashed over her face. thought that he was dead, for no breath, I have been trying to tell you that the

might be saved the wretchedness

CHAPTER LXVIII. But Dr. Anthony who had been making a careful examination of and said, hurriedly :

a deep swoon. Let all leave the room think I must have loved you long, but They all retired, and Aline went to her own room to strip off the wedding gathering her in both arms tightly, as it finery. Then she locked herself in for he never meant to let her go again. the remainder of the day. Mr. Lane came that day fresh from his cheek an unsuccessful quest after Aline, and A swift pain tore his heart as he re-She staggered back from him, the alized that she was lost to him forever.

for although her husband was dying she would be too far above him socially as Potatoes are often peeled and left soak "Yes, my wife," he said. "Oh, Aline. the wealthy widow of Oran Delaney for ing in water before using. This is a love you, my darling, and I could die He remained silent a few minutes of vegetables, should be washed quickly we make this unparalleled offer: To all who are not well satisfied we will send $1 to pay for the trouble care before that great final hour. Oh ment, and at length reason came to his and, without being allowed to remain directions, etc.. Aline, will you give yourself to me for sid and told him it was better so. He in the cold water at all, should be at "When I was living with my brother in start at once. Don't delay. Address STINSON & the little while I have to live? I do was quite old enough to be Aline's once transferred to the kettle of boiling Buffalo Mark Twain a cottage not deserve such happiness I know, but father, and besides she was socially his water in which they are to be cooked. across the street. We didn't see yery. it will be such a boon to me that you superior. He put away his broken Lettuce is greatly injured by lying in much of him, but one morning as we cannot refuse. It is only for a little dream from him with a suppressed sight water. Put it on ice when gathered, enjoying our cigars on the veranda after while, you know, only to soothe a dying and declared that he was glad that al' and wash just before sending to table. breakfast we saw Mark come to his door had turned out so well. All would be She gazed at him, bewildered by his well with Aline now. Fate had settled fusing admittance to any, so he went with his wife to the dressmaker's. That night, he went back to New smiled and murmured to himself:

"Fate is above us all !" the story of his attachment to herself the bashelor's romance, but when she heard curable, but easily prevented. his love, she felt more kindly toward

"I am sorry for him, dear," she said. But I never could have loved any one was better, they said, but he must have of the fishing line.

the tea and toast again, and Mr. Delaney lay among his snowy pillows, gazing thoughtfully into the bright fire. His lips moved, and he murmured, "She will hate me, pethaps." The door opened softly. His bride mind what your mother has told you.

"You are better?" she said, coming about it .- Good Cheer up to him. "Ah, I thought you were She sat down in a low chair by the side of the bed, very close to him. His heart beat with sudden rapture. moment when I kissed your cheek? use artificial, these natural ones become t was the last of earth, that I had weight on the head a half hour morning that I was surely dying!' "We all thought so," she replied, able as carrying a weight on the head. A

"Aline, will you look at me?" he She lifted the shyly drooping lashes came over this morning, and it was Oran Delancy's voice rang clear and from her violet eyes and gazed into his > wholly to mo?" he asked her. Yes." she answered; quietly. "Is there any sorrow, any regret, any repulsion in the thought?" he inquired. and she answered in a low voico: said, "but, oh, Aline, I am afraid."

"You need not be afraid to tell me. it all seemed.

"But, Aline, my own, my darling, you Texas university, did not return home must not hate me for this," he said, until about 5 o'clock last Monday after-She half rose from her seat, trembling her bridegroom. He was regarding her libelieved I was surely doomed! And, "Johnny, how did you come to be kept dark eyes. At the same moment Effic now, if only you could forgive me for in?" asked his father. "I gave you a the bappiest man in the world." She bent her blue eyes on his of reproach and pain.

> leaving me!" she said, in a low, strange. And for a moment they gazed wonderingly at each other. Then he spoke ily.—Texas Siftings. "Aline, have you misunderstood r.e? Mr. doubt is over! I have rallied from my illness! Love and joy have wrought a a summerin' with you this season?" said miraclo! I shall live!"

"You-will-live?" sho gasped, and you regret that you gave yourself to than this!" cried out Oran Delaney; a passion of despair. But she caught the hand he threw out in his frenzy of despuir and pressed "And you are not sorry-do you not even know enough to drink out of a jug "No, no, I love you," she answered. Ledger. dving. Oh, I thank Heaven that it has so kindly granted my prayer!"

"Your prayer, darling?" he said,

She whispered, with her lips against "I have been locked into my room all was amazed and delighted when he heard day, Oran, praying, on my knees, that Nover leave any vegetables soaking he say? in water. It destroys the real flavor. very bad practice. They, like all kinds

-If a man really wants to know of Overfeeding Pigs.

"Nice morning. "On my honor, no, Aline. I am ask -York, and in his busy life tried to for | Pigs suffer more from overfeeding than ing you because you won my heart long get the sweet, luring face of the girl any other animals and contract various disknow that I left you my fortune and my proud old name. It is a most honorable name. Aline, even you, so beautiful and sweet, need not disdain it," he said She did not answer a word. She seemed like one dazed by the sudden ness of all this.

She did not answer a word. She ness of all this.

"You said you would do anything to wood of his loss."

"You said you would do anything to know that I left you my fortune and my proud old name. It is a most hones you have here." the heart, which becomes chronic and contitue the heart, which becomes thus become the following the heart, which becomes chronic and contitue the heart, which becomes thus become the heart which becomes thus become the heart who he heart which becomes the heart which becomes the heart which become the heart who heart will have your family."

"You said you would do anything to the heart who heart who heart who heart will have the heart who he heart who heart She excess of food, because the food is not as. are a little surprised to see me over here was far to brilliant and beautiful ever to similated healthfully and the blood is over- so early. Fact is, I haven't been so have linked her lot with his. He loaded with injurious matter that has not neighborly, perhaps, as I ought to be. yet been properly fitted for healthful con- We must mend that state of things, But version into flesh or fat. This impure this morning I come over because I Aline was very sweet and kind to blood overtaxes the kidneys, and liver, and | thought you might be interested in knowhim when they met. She had heard the heart and injures the brain, and hence ing that your roof is on fire. It struck me diseases, thumps, staggers, that it would be a good idea if-

The Southern Cultivator says whenever him. In her youth and beauty and parties, who happen to disagree about busiperfect happiness she could well spare ness matters, can settle their difference by thereby and ill-will avoided. The jury will-She laid her round white arms fondly otherwise agree on a compromise and do it about the neck of him who had made for you. A large number of yerdicts are Matrimonial Chances

As to the chance involved in marriage, the more we reduce it to a minimum by by care and judgment and good sense the better. There is no surer preparation for Aline's momentous bridal day waned | misery, one would think, than to accustom a young girl to think of every offer of marriage as a "chance" to be eagerly seized as a fish swallows the bait, without He knowing who or what is at the other end

The Matrimonial Equivalent.

Mother.—Always say "please," Boby, when you ask for anything. Never forget to any "please," even to the servants. Father (getting ready to go down town.)—Yes, Robert, my son, bear in and always say "please." It's a little word, my boy, but full of meaning, and the use of it marks the gentleman. Now, wife, my overcoat and hat, and be quick Advice to Girls who Stoop.

I don't believe in shoulder braces. Nature furnishes the needed braces to keep the shoulders in position; and when you weak for want of exercise. The best way to cure stooping shoulders is to carry a and evening. Make the weight large.

Why Ho was Discharged.

New York Sun "That boy of yours is not adapted for "Aline, do you realizo that you are the undertaking business," explained an really my wife? - that you bolong undertaker to the boy's father, who inquired why his son had been discharged. "What's the trouble with him ?" "He basn't a realizing sense of what is Mrs. B. buried her fourth husband. sent the boy up to learn at what hour she "I have something to tell you," he wished the ceremony to take place, and he asked her what her regular time of

Johnny Fizzletop, who is attending the

"I know you did, pa, but I did not present it to the teacher," replied Johnny. "Why did you not do so?" "Happy - at dying?" Happy - at "I regret to hart your feelings, pa, but he truth is your style of composition is, not au fait, and I felt a delicacy in expos-

> One of Those Book-Writing Chaps. "What sort of a chap is that feller that's one farmer to another. "Well, he's a middlin' peart hand at the "Amount to much? Why, blame it, no! He's one o' these book-writin' chaps and don't seem to know a consarned thing out-Seeking a Fortune in the West. "My dear," said a father to his daughter, "how long ago was it that George Jackson went west to seek his fortune ? "Just a year," the girl replied with a face on the old man's shoulder. " You promised George when he went away that I would wait for him for years if "I have a letter from him."

Kansas City Times. few minutes and said:

"Shouldn't wonder if we had min by. This is a nice house you have here.

But at the mention of fire the whole family dusted upstairs, trailing language all the way up. When we had put the fire out and returned to the veranda Mark wasn't there.

Has it Come to This.

ing the ignorance of the head of the lamtable, but I'd never send him through a Do | tield to pick out seed corn for me."

"Ah, Heaven, how glad I am!" she yisterday mornin that he never curried a the cried; and he answered, wonderingly: hoss or weaned a calf in his life. He don't without spilin' his shirt buzzem."-Chicago "Was there anything between you and George? I sometimes thought that he "He was, papa," and the girl hid her

"Oh, papa!" she exclaimed. "Does he-er-has he-oh, tell me, what does

The Rev. J. Hyatt Smith relates this; in his dressing gown and slippers and -Actors are good natured. They look over at us. He stood in his cloor and dare to asperse her now when she bore are always ready to take anybody's smoked a minute, as if making up his part. They are mostly smokers, too, mind about something, and at last opened his gate, and came lounging across the street. There was an unoccupied rocking chair on the veranda, and when my brother offered it to him he dropped into it with a sigh of relief. He smoked for a

> "'Yes, very pleasant." "Well, we could stand a little.

"He wants twenty dellars to get home Mark Twain was Neighborly.

see callers or telegrams.

OFFICE: On Main Street, opposite the "Thom; TERMS: -31 a year in advance, or within on month from the date of subscribing, if not so paid

Notices of births, deaths, and marriages, 25 · Cash must accompany order in every case

D. DEWAR, Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Office -Town Hall, Milton. Also agent for Sun,

Barristers and Solicitors in the Supreme Court

Office-over Imperial Bank, 34 Wellington Street, East. Entrance, Exchange

Franklin Hotel, Stree'sville; every Thursday at his office above Monat's Shoe Shop, Milton. Oakeville Office over W. Hewson's.

DR. FREEMAN.

just what he tells me. I owe him