FIRE PROTECTION.

It is to be hoped that last Monday's fire may have the effect of arousing the people of Milton to the necessity of providing the town with some kind of fire protection. It is known that the water used, landed on Monday by the brave volunteer firemen did excellent service, and that better results could hardly have been obtained from any kind of an engine, but in an emergency it must be said the second best. The taxpayers of Milton should remember that efficient fire protection means a reduction in insurance rates, sufficient to go a long way towards paying for it, and should not hesitate to purchase the use of a powerful steam fire engine, or the construction of a pump house, force pump in the stone grit mill, after due consideration as to which of the two is likely to be the most effective and the cheapest.

A Whiskey Selling Prohibitionist.

(Collingwood Enterprise.)

An illustration of the peculiarities of the Scott Act is given in the case of an Orangeville druggist, who has sold right and wrong liquor by mistake in the past. This particular druggist is a pronounced prohibitionist and yet with the assistance of prohibitionist License Commissioners he is legally qualified to sell whiskey etc., etc., and is reported to be a coined monogram of the contentions of the Scott Act. Some of the truly good prohibitionists appear to be that they can't bear to see the money of the whiskey consumer going into the pocket of the unrighteous hotel-keeper; but consider things all lovely and proper when the sales drift in their own plain packages through pretty much the same channel.

The Scott Act at Paris.

Braintree Expositor.—It is to be taken as a certainty that the Scott act is popular. The prohibitionists are prohibitionists still. The drowsy managers get a drink as before. The tavern keepers have in some cases lower rents—no license to open for to keep open all night (Saturday included) and yet to do so. The concessionaries temperance find legal restrictions which are mortifying to some. They will import their "vingar" rather than sign for whiskey. The boys say it is easier to get whiskey than beer. The Scott Act people often repeat the motto of the people of Boston, "What's that?" while some think the appointment of Mr. B. Onland would have been preferable. Some find the "hen" of the platform speeches before the passing of the act irreconcilable with the "now" as it is found in actual operation. This by way of introduction to the topic of moderate means inferior to monstrosities, bad roads or increased taxes.

A. O. U. W.

At a meeting of the above order on Monday evening last, a resolution was passed directing a committee to send the widow of the late Peter MacLean, Esq., the following:

Mrs. Peter MacLean:

DEAR MADAM.—We, the undersigned officers of Victoria Lodge, No. 64, A. O. U. W., have been instructed by the members of the lodge to express their deep sympathy with you and your family, and to lose our husband and our respected brother.

We also take this opportunity of informing you that we have placed in the hands of our late brother's executors a more tangible proof of the benefit of our mode of life, than in the shape of a claim for the sum of $2000, and trust that it may be of a good service to you and your family in the coming years.

We are, dear Madam,

Yours, very faithfully,
