The Great Rush of Customers Still Coming to THE RIGHT HOUSE

It is a sight well worth seeing, to come to this widely celebrated house any time on maket days, or any afternoon, to see the immense number of ladics who throng the whole length of these enormous stores, so that it is very difficult to find counter room for all. This shows beyond dispute that the qualities of the goods must be good, the styles must be attractive and fashionable, and the prices cheap. Watkins has never had such an Enormous Sale for Dress Goods as he has this season. when ladies get them made up by Miss Amiss, his colebrated dress makes, who fits them to their entire satisfaction, good locking ladies appear almost angelic, while ordinary ladies look charming, the dresses gt so beautifully, and sit so gracefully on them. The mantle and millinery forewomen are also kept hard at work, and suit the ladies exactly, so that they are all driven in filling the numerous orders which are constantly being given them. The rush of customers for Millinery and Parasols is astonishing, occasioned by the beauty and cheapness of these goods. Parasols from 25c. to $7. Millinery in the very latest fashions at all prices. There has been a great rush for Nottingham Lace Curtains, Madras Curtains, Calcutta Cloth Curtains, Rhama Curtains.
