

THE CANADIAN CHAMPION.

MILTON, JUNE 8 1898.

HOME RULE ELECTIONS.

London, July 6.—Midnight—Up to this time 252 Unionists, 99 Gladstonians and 43 Parnellites have been elected. The standing of the parties now is: Total number of seats... 675

The Tories continue to gain. Their victories to-day include Chester East Bradford, Clapham, Mile End, East Islington, South Islington, and Bow and Bromley. The Gladstonians have gained Wolverhampton. The net Conservative gain at midnight is 21.

The Liberals are alarmed lest the Conservatives obtain an independent working majority. The Pall Mall Gazette (Liberal), commenting on the results of the elections, says: "We are indeed."

A Warning to Parents and Teachers. Edward Clayton, M. D., editor of Mrs. A. Cunningham's Home Magazine, (contributors to which are some of the most eminent scientists of our country, and such divines as Rev. Dr. Scadding, Toronto, and Rev. Principal Nellis, Victoria College, Cobourg) says:

"False teaching, intentional or unintentional, is a serious matter for any to indulge in. It is universally admitted that bread is a food and to teach this in the schools is quite proper. But probably not a tenth part of the civilized human race conceals that alcohol in moderate quantity is a food and is injurious to the human organization, and the latest scientific investigations go to show that, on the contrary, it is a food; yet there are those who are teaching that the poison theory is taught in the public schools."

As the Week (Oct. 22) gives it: "No false teaching can be done in a school. The child is made to repeat an exaggerated and untenable doctrine which it believes only so long as it is a child. Going out into the world it finds that the beverage which in the textbook is called a deadly poison, and described as the drink of the vicious class, is in fact not a poison at all, and is used by all civilized nations and by many of the most virtuous of mankind. It then tramples on the false precept, and perhaps tramples on it with a vengeance."

SCOTT ACT CONVICTIONS.

Mr. Justice Galt delivered judgment on Wednesday last of week quashing the convictions in Queen v. Halpin and Queen v. Daley, two of the "Scott Act" cases, under the Scott Act. The ground of the decision is that in a prosecution under the Canada Temperance Act a defendant is not bound to prove any question which may tend to incriminate him. This holding is in pursuance of the old rule in civil cases, which the statute does not in terms sufficiently override, and in contrast of which the learned judge says would be subversive of all the principles of justice. It had been contended also that the Act was not in force in the County of Peterborough, but that contention is overruled.

MAYOR'S COURT.

On Sunday afternoon John Cochrane, of Milton, well digger and crane associate of the "right loyal Inspector," had a warrant issued for the arrest of Samuel Landsborough for threatening to shoot him with a rifle. Landsborough was arrested by Constable Dent and lodged in jail. On Monday morning he was brought before Mayor Hannant and committed for trial.

JULY DOTS.

William Jordan arrested for being drunk and disorderly. Fined $5. Samuel Landsborough arrested for being drunk and threatening to shoot. Committed for trial. John Kelly arrested for being drunk and disorderly. Fined $1. Andrew Kelly arrested for being drunk and disorderly. Discharged. Mrs. Pete Deforest tried for assault. Fined $1. S. Landsborough tried by County Judge and fined $20. Tom Sauderson tried for assault before County Judge and adjourned. Hudson James committed for trial for assault.

ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB.

The summer meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club was held on the Woodbine track, Toronto, on Dominion Day and the following Saturday, and from the World we give the following: The curtain was rung up on the final Purse at 2:30. Mr. Shields' b. g. Little Fred, aged, by Reform, 125 lbs. (H. Jones), Mr. Forbes' br. f. Shamrock, 100 lbs. (Pete), three-quarters of a mile, by the start, was the favorite. The betting was 10 to 6 on Little Fred, and 5 to 1 against Shamrock. Little Fred and Shamrock were the only horses that were not shot for. To the surprise of the knowing ones, the race was a close one. Little Fred was the favorite, and Shamrock was the second. The race was a close one, and Little Fred was the winner. The race was a close one, and Little Fred was the winner.

OTTAWA, July 5.—It seems that Messrs. Manning, McDonald, & Company have withdrawn their offer to build the North-West Central Railway, as the Government will make no extra provision for the payment of debts already incurred. The price program from New York, which was to be secured by the Government, is believed to have been abandoned. Mr. Peck who is in New York, with the view of preventing parties from tendering for the work. Mr. Peck has been seen by the press, and he has announced a proposition to build the road, and has deposited required securities with the Cleary Company and Mr. David Blain's Company. The latter include Messrs. G. B. Eardley of Montreal, and others.

JUDGES CRIMINAL COURT.

On Monday last Thomas Sanderson, of the Temperance House, was up on trial for assaulting and interfering with W. D. Brothers, County Constable and License Inspector, while in discharge of his duty, on the 25th of June, for neglecting to pay a fine of $50 and costs for a violation of the Scott Act. The indictment was read and the charge was by the Crown, and D. McGibbon, Esq., for the prisoner.

W. D. Brothers, sworn.—Am License Inspector for the County of Halton; had a warrant in my hands on the 25th of June for the arrest of Mrs. Sanderson; I went to execute warrant at her house in Milton where Mrs. Sanderson lives a week ago this morning; I found her in a room; suppose they call it the kitchen; Tom was standing in the hall when I went in, and he afterwards took off his coat; I arrested Mrs. Sanderson, and when in the dining-room, Tom cursed, jumped, swore, and said: "I would choke you two or three times." Cross-examined by the Crown's counsel. Added some words in the body of the warrant after Mrs. Sanderson's arrest; the first thing that I did when I went to the house was to put my hand on her shoulder and say she was my prisoner; I then put the nippers on her and pulled her along by them into the dining-room; Mrs. Sanderson was convicted, and am the officer entrusted with warrant; had all to do with it; I did nothing from the time of the conviction until I got the warrant to arrest; had no communication with Mrs. Sanderson until I arrested her; I wrote to the Police Magistrate once or twice in reference to the matter, but received no reply; I did not enclose anything; saw him on different occasions and spoke to him about Mrs. Sanderson; I think about the first or second week in June at some Scott Act trial in Oakville. I handed the Police Magistrate the distress warrant against Mrs. Sanderson; cannot say what he did with it; the warrant was received by me through the mail; I did not change the distress warrant or endorse any writing on it; returned the distress warrant as I got it, except that I endorsed it; never asked Mrs. Sanderson for the fine; I dragged her on her back close from the kitchen door to the front door; the nippers on her arm; did not go to Mrs. Sanderson with the distress warrant; Cochrane did not assist me to take Mrs. Sanderson in a respectable way; I was in the circumstances and was acting as a constable should act in taking her to jail; did not serve any papers on her; at the time of the conviction until I arrested her with a warrant.

JOHN COCHRANE, sworn.—Assisted Brothers a week ago to-day to arrest Mrs. Sanderson in the dining-room; the first thing he (Tom) did was to catch Brothers by the throat and tell him that he was not going to take his mother to jail; he did not want his mother to go if he had better pay her fine; he jumped on Brothers, and argued with him; he pulled the nippers on her; she did not move; I think until she threw herself on the floor; did not see Brothers produce a warrant.

RICHARD JONES, sworn.—Saw Brothers with Mrs. Sanderson at the front door; saw very little of the affair; only saw Cochrane having hold of Tom Sanderson.

W. D. BROTHERS, re-called by Mr. McGibbon.—Went down stairs and saw W. H. Young in the Sheriff's office; had a conversation with him. The Judge reprimanded Brothers, said that it was a very improper proceeding for him to do, and when a person in his position did such things, what could be expected from others. W. H. Young, P. M., sworn.—Was served with a subpoena to produce a certain number of copies of cost and distress warrant against goods which was issued on the date of conviction; Brothers signed endorsement on warrant at Georgetown on 17th June; I did not serve Mrs. Sanderson with any paper, except memorandum of conviction by registered letter; issued on date of commitment on 14th June; took it with me to Georgetown on 17th June; when I received return of distress warrant, and handed same to Brothers; account of his absence, further hearing was adjourned till to-morrow.

SAMUEL LANDSBOURGH was then arraigned for threatening to shoot John Cochrane on Sunday last. He called to be tried before the Judge, without a jury, and pleaded guilty. He was fined $20 and costs.

ANDREW KELLY was tried for assault on Mrs. Pete Deforest. He was fined $1. S. LANDSBOURGH was tried by County Judge and fined $20. TOM SAUNDERSON tried for assault before County Judge and adjourned. HUDSON JAMES committed for trial for assault.
