

THE CANADIAN CHAMPION.

MILTON, NOV. 26, 1886. "KEEPING THE ARMOR BRIGHT." The Toronto Tory and alleged prohibition organ...

THE MAIL'S SCOTT ACT REPORTS. In September last, shortly after the Mail's alleged conversion to the doctrine of prohibition...

Special correspondents have been sent into a number of counties where the Scott Act is in force and its operations have been duly written up...

Finally, on Saturday last a two-column report of the operations of the Scott Act in Hamilton appeared in the Mail...

The whole report is an ingenious and factitious fabrication. The fact that convictions and committals for drunkenness have been more numerous during the last two years than they were during an equal period immediately antecedent to 1885...

The case of Mrs. Sanderson is quoted and in connection with it the defendant's insinuation is made that the defendant was advised by county officials to refuse to pay her fine...

The fact, too, is suppressed that not long ago in the same county there existed no less than twenty whiskey dives in Milton, and that though he has made matters as hot as possible for the owners of the taverns...

Forty Georgetown Drunks. (Monthly Tattle in Dundas Standard.) The Georgetown council passed a resolution recently...

Very truly yours, F. L. Thompson, Postmaster of Ashgrove.

SCOTT ACT TRIALS.

On Tuesday last Police Magistrate Young opened a session of his court for the trial of Scott Act cases...

W. H. DAVIE.—Was in Hamilton in the month of October; got a drink of whiskey; was painting dining room door; but key was for liquor or instead to pay for it...

LOWVILLE. Disposition of Scott Act Fines. As Marcus has been ill I thought I would write you a few items.

Mr. George Robertson has returned from his trip to Kilmarnock, and is looking as healthy as ever.

On Friday evening a concert was given in the hall. Although some of the speakers were good judges of their own talents...

Whose Tenant is He? To the Editor of the Champion: It is true that the premises now occupied by Mr. David Hamburg...

THE ELECTIONS. Owing to the fact that the school meetings take place on December 20th...

Princess Beatrice has given birth to a son. One thousand horses have been burned on Luzon, one of the Philippine Islands.

Very truly yours, F. L. Thompson, Postmaster of Ashgrove.
