BURLINGTON LITERARY INSTITUTE.—The first meeting of the above institute was held in Burlington on Friday evening, March 18th. The officers elected for the current year were: President, Jas. H. Fell; Vice-President, Rev. Dr. Burnett; Secretary, J. S. Campbell; Associate Secretary, L. W. Dean; Treasurer, Gilbert Hodgins; Executive Committee—W. Fisher, R. G. Baxter, O. T. Springer, W. G. Nelles and W. Hopkins. The programme will consist of readings, essays and discussions on literary and other subjects. It promises to be a successful and highly instructive institution.

CAPTAIN WILLIAMS DEAD.—The many friends of Captain Daniel Williams will regret to learn of his death. He was an Oakville man and had spent the greater part of his life on the lakes, chiefly on sailing vessels. Lately he kept hotel on McNab street, in this city, and at the corner of James and Murray streets. He came to Hamilton, but his vigor, both of body and mind, failed him and he was cared for at the Asylum, where he passed away to-day. The funeral will take place at Oakville with Masonic honors. Deceased was a brother of Capt. Robt. Williams, a well-known steamboat master.—Hamilton Times, March 19th.

SENTENCED.—Mat Brush, who was arrested last week charged with an indecent assault on the little daughter of Mr. Abraham Wooding, and who was committed for trial for common assault, pleaded guilty to the latter charge before Judge Miller on Saturday, and was sentenced to three months in jail with hard labor. It is to be hoped that Brush's punishment will have a salutary effect on him and certain other youths of this neighborhood, and that common assaults such as that committed by him will be less common here in future than they are said to have been in the past.

LARGEST stock of underwear in the trade, cheap, at Treble's, corner King and James streets, Hamilton.

ALLEGED CRIMINAL LIBEL.—This morning Chief Constable Bradley served William D. Brothers and Richard White, proprietors of the Milton Reformer, with summonses requiring them to appear on Saturday next before a Magistrate's Court, to answer a charge of criminal libel, laid against them by Reeve J. H. McCollom. The alleged libel was contained in an article published last week, accusing Mr. McCollom of crookedness in manipulating tenders for county printing opened by him recently on behalf of the printing committee of the county council, of which he is a member. If Mr. McCollom's affirs sufficient evidence the county lawyer Reeve instructed that his partner will be committed for trial at the coming assizes. At the assizes held last fall Mr. D. W. Campbell, of the CHAMPION, obtained a verdict in a civil act on for libel, against Brothers & White and an Oakville man, for $50 and costs, the whole amounting to about $500.

FIRE.—On Saturday last Stephen Lowrey, of Nassagaweya, was arrested by Chief Constable Bradley for furious driving on Main Street, but released on promising to "go slow" for the future. Shortly afterwards he was again arrested on the information of his wife, who charged him with illtreating her. His case was tried before Mayor Hannant and Magistrate Smith. Mrs. Lowrey testified that one night recently, when she proposed to go to Campbellville, her husband flew into a rage, caught her by the back of her neck and threw her into bed, that he beat her and pulled the bed clothes off her, &c. Her brother, — DeForest, corroborated parts of her evidence. Lowrey said on his own behalf that his wife's stories of ill-treatment were untrue, that the reason why he put her to bed in the energetic manner described by herself was because she wanted to go to a dance at Campbellville, and that while he had no objection to her going to church, and taking part in innocent amusements, he detested the line at dances. The magistrates fined him $2 and costs.

INCENDIARIES AT WORK.—On Friday night, as Mr. W. H. Lindsay and Miss Lindsay were returning home at about 11.30 after having spent the evening at the house of a friend, they saw a light in rear of the shop of Mr. Wm. Bews, merchant tailor. On investigation, it was found that incendiaries had put burning rubbish against the back door of the shop and that the flames had taken hold of the building. Mr. Lindsay gave the alarm, and with the aid of Mr. John Bews and several other young men who happened to be within call, soon put the fire out. After seeing that everything was safe, all started for home; Mr. Wm. Bews, who had followed his son to the fire, going by way of the back street in the rear of the shop. He had not gone far before he saw a second blaze proceeding from a box of saw dust at the back of the drug store of Mr. J. H. McCollom, a few doors east of his own shop. He sent his son to sound the fire alarm, a number of people were quickly on the spot, and the flames were put out in short order. Mr. H. H. Watson distinguished himself by carrying off the blazing box and depositing it at a safe distance from the buildings. Had the flames gained a little headway at either buildings before being discovered, nothing could have saved the block, which includes about half the business establishments of Milton, and as a strong north wind was blowing it would have been fortunate if the fire could have been prevented from extending still further. So far there is no clue to the incendiaries, but the general belief is that they were the residents of the town, and that the object of their fiendish attempt was to revenge themselves on some one in the block against whom they had a grudge, for if they had wanted plunder they could have got it more easily and certainly by burglary. Who was the object of their vengeance, is a delicate question, for more reasons than one. Those who discuss it at all do so only with the greatest caution and we shall not offer any opinion upon it.

Beautiful Things

FROM ACROSS THE SEA

Everything is on the move about our store at present. Goods are coming, others going, and all is moving. We are opening cases every day. Cases of New Goods from Europe. We have ten cases of New Prints from Glasgow this week. We said Prints; we should say Damelines and Sateens. Things with a finish and harmony of colors, lovely as the finest Indian Silk. Cotton Printing never touched such a point of beauty and perfection before. We are selling Cotton Printed Goods at 15c. a yard that are positively beautiful.

Dress Goods in Wool are not behind. They are out in richer tones than ever, and strange to say, are cheaper, in spite of the advance in wool. Improved machinery over the ocean has done the business. Labor is cheap in France, and the people are natural artists. We have Dress Goods to no end in Spring designs. We go to Paris, France, to buy from makers direct. We sell fashionable goods as low as most small retailers buy them.

We want to mention especially some JOB LINES—rare bargains at prices not one-third their value. Remember these are New Spring Goods just imported, bought for bargains, to be sold only as such.
