Messrs. J. & W. Platt are apparently trying to buy up all the pine in this vicinity of the votes of the neighborhood as they have purchased another lot of valuable pine timber from another elect having made the Mr. Isaac Smith, for which I believe declaration of office before they paid a handsome price.

It is with the deepest regret that I have to report the serious illness of Mr. G. A. Watson, who is down with inflammation of the lungs. Although

Messrs. Nicholson and Mrs. William

Ervin furnished excellent instrumental music during the evening. Several carols were sung by S. S. scholars, and I think, sang fully better than in other years. Two songs were also given by Mr. W. and the Misses Gastic, which were well rendered. Recitations were given by Masters Willie Culleden, Willie

Simpson and Chapman Ervin, there are also three dialogues, which were well acted. There was a splendid collection of presents, and I think that that all were well filled.
