It was a satin brocade of three shades, pink, crown and olive flowers on a light blue ground. The design of the brocade is the coronet, a marquis, surrounded by ideal flowers. The design is called "Couronne Marquis," and is the workmanship of Mr. A. J. Corriveau, of Montreal, who has started the first broad silk factory in Canada. The Corriveau silk mills already employ about 100 hands. Both the labor and several branches of the industry are entirely Canadian.

MARY SHARPE'S LIBEL SUIT.

An Ex-Toronto Woman After the Buffalo Telegraph "Taffy" to the Telegraph.

(From the Buffalo Telegraph of Saturday.) Mary Sharpe, through her attorney, J.E. O'Neil, this morning commenced a suit for libel in the supreme court against the Telegraph publishing company, claiming $5000 damages.

The suit grows out of an article published in the Telegraph the 20th inst., describing Dr. Cary's tenement house, known as the Genesee house, at the intersection of Main and Genesee streets, in one of the rooms of which, occupied by Mary Sharpe, a colored woman, an infant of one Mary Conley, famed out to Sharpe to be nursed, died. The Telegraph described the filth and wretchedness of the tenement house, whose condition has called for the action of the common council as a public nuisance, and further, the overcrowded state of the single room in which the woman Sharpe and her family lived and in which Mary Conley's infant had died.

The woman Sharpe came to Buffalo some months ago from Toronto, Ont. She claims that while there she "took $2000 from the Toronto Mail" for having published matter derogatory to the character of her step-son. She is the mother of seven children, her husband saws wood, and she stated when she called at the Telegraph office a few days ago, that she found it necessary to take in a child to wetnurse to help support her family. Her suit against the Telegraph Co. is based upon the point that "she has been deprived, as she believes, of her ability to gain an honest livelihood," which is to say wet-nursing white or colored infants in the room occupied by her, her husband and her family, for all purposes in Dr. Cary's Genesee house tenement.

Hebe is very sick at Bridgeport, Conn. Her baby, a healthy ten months' infant, weighing 11000 pounds, is doing well, but as it still suckles, considerable anxiety is felt as to its fate in case the mother should die. Hebe, though a gentle and sagacious elephant, has a prejudice against doctors, and objects decidedly to medicine. Mr. J. L. Hutchinson, who has her in charge, says that they have to resort to the most ingenious plans in order to administer it. The other morning they succeeded in administering four pills, about an inch in diameter, by inducing her to open her mouth and then shooting them down her throat with a porgun. To-day she took some crackers soaked in yeast, which she has been eating since three days, and has been a little easier since. Her supply of milk is giving out, and fears are entertained that if she dies Young America, the baby, will follow its mother. The baby is very playful and kittenish. It has never been separated from its mother. Hebe is twenty-seven years old.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best medical authorities in the United States. Sold everywhere at 25 cents a bottle.

REST AND COMFORT TO THE SUFFERING. "Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, Lumbago and any kind of a Pain or Ache. It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heat, as its acting power is wonderful. "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy, for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for cramps in the Stomach, and Pains and Aches of all kinds," and is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

LIFE INSURANCE

A SHORT CHAPTER ON EXPENSES.

EVERY Business Man can understand that Companies which are compelled to expend $15, $20, or $40 in working expenses, out of each $100 received, cannot possibly have as much left to pay Dividends with as those which are so carefully and economically conducted as to expend less than $5 per $100 in expenses.

What goes for expenses is gone for good, and with it, when excessive and continued, history shows that the expensive Company is sure to go to, sooner or later, though it may seem to prosper for a time.

It is most important, therefore, for Agents and Policy-holders to connect themselves only with well-established Companies, whose standing and ability procures business for them without excessive cost.

For public information we quote the following official figures, found opposite each Company named, in the Connecticut (for the Etina) and Canada Government Reports—pages 160 and 19 and 20—just issued:—

Table with columns: Name of Company, Total Income, 1878, Working Expenses per $100 of Income.

The following actual cases will illustrate the difference to individual Policy-holders produced by economy:—

Two Montreal Merchants insured their lives in 1829 for $1,000 each, payable at death or end of ten years. One of them, aged 23, chose one of the best of the above-named Companies, apart from the Etina, paying $104 per annum, the profits to be given in bonuses with the policy at maturity. The other, aged 25, chose the ETNA LIFE, paying $95.65, the profits to be given in cash at the end of each year. In the third column herewith, is given the annual difference, and the Etina's cash dividends, improved at 7 per cent interest, per annum:—

Table comparing two policies: POLICY $1000, TEN-YEAR ENDOWMENT, WITH PROFITS. Resulting as follows: Original sums insured, $1000.00 $1000.00. Bonuses declared: In 1879, for 2 years, 15.93. In 1875, for 5 years, 37.31. Profits since 1875, 9.81. Etina's 10 cash Dividends and interest on difference as above, 280.69. Total proceeds, $1063.05 $1280.69. Net difference, $217.64.

The two gentlemen now hold THREE Policies in the ETNA LIFE, and none in the other Company.

The following solid columns show a gradually broadening basis for the confidence reposed in the ETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY:—
