Taming the Puma.

Mr. William Lant Carpenter gives in "Yature" an account of a tame puma which was exhibited in Montana. Mr. Witch the owner of the puma, had devoted eighteen musts to the turner given one evening at the store of the owner.

The heat not having been fed for twenty-four hours, its master traited places of raw man over it notes and mat must the will be store the turner given one evening at the store of the owner.

The heat not having been fed for twenty-four hours, its master traited places of raw man over it notes and mat must the word was given, as to a dog. Occasional attempts were made, but a twist of the ear by Mr. Within was enough to control her.
