

IN MEMORIAM

ARCHER

In loving memory of my Dear Husband, Borden, who passed away August 13, 1985.

I hold you close within my heart

And there you will remain.,

To walk with me throughout my life

Until we meet again.

As time goes by without you

And days turn into years, There will be a lot of memories

And just as many tears.

Death broke the link that joined us

And broke my heart in two,

But I never had a greater gift

Than the years I shared with you.

- Sadly missed and always remembered by wife Ruby

Emily Noble to become CTF president

Emily Noble, president of the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario, has been elected president-designate of the Canadian Teachers' Federation.

In 2007 Noble will begin a two-year term as president of the national organization, which represents 215,000 public school teachers across the country.

"Teachers expect their national organization to take a leading role in promoting social justice within Canada and around the world," Noble said. "We have an obligation to bring hope and opportunity to teachers around the world, many of whom are working in very difficult conditions to educate their students."

She noted that CTF has been a leader in providing support to teachers internationally. CTF coordinated donations for the tsunami relief efforts last year. As well it coordinates Project Overseas, which sends Canadian teachers around the world to work with colleagues in developing countries. ETFO has supported 44 participants in Project Overseas during the last five years.

"Enhancing public confidence in public education must be our focus here at home," Noble said. "As a national body CTF can and does respond to regional and national issues that challenge our profession and the welfare of our students."

Noble has been president of ETFO for four years. She has been a member of the CTF's executive committee since 1998. During this past year she served as CTF vice-president. She is the first ETFO member to become its president.
