*Love Is ...
... pacing the floor through the hours after midnight,
soothing your crying with love-words and lullabies, when all of my being is begging for rest. Love is reading the same story over and over and not taking any of it out. Love is caring enough to say "no", even if "everybody else is doing it." Love is letting you go with a lump in my throat, a prayer in my heart, and a smile out of the door to take on the world.*

God Bless and have a great week.

St. Paul's Anglican

Come on out for an enjoyable evening of cards and bring along some friends who like to play for a 7:30 p.m. start.

Sympathy from friends and neighbours is expressed to Thomas Allison on the loss of his dear wife Dorothy, and to all the Allison and Salter families on the loss this past week.

Sympathy is extended to the Chambers family that lived here a few years ago and sold and moved into Essex. Don and Barb and girls, Julie, Sue and Lisa, were great neighbours and kept a close watch on Grandpa and Grandma Baker as they got older and needed help and we were very grateful for their caring.

Don was a retired truck driver in Detroit and Barb worked at the Woodslee Credit Union for many years. They enjoyed camping and one year took Donna with them to Florida and broke down in Georgia. The girls can all recall that trip.

Many great memories of this man will live on in the hearts of family and friends.

Erie Shores Quilter's Guild

President Joan Gevaert called the meeting with 75 members and two guests, Candace Anderson and Renata Mix.

As our program for the night Barb Kenshol shared with us the classes that she took at the Canadian Quilter's Conference in Ottawa last May. She showed us what she did in her sashico class and another class on layering your material from the bottom up to the top to form a flower.

The hostesses were Brenda Bauder and Gail Hull.

The feel good bundle was won by Brenda Bauder. Door prizes were won by the following Did Rumble, Jodie Matte, Bet Taylor, Jackie Cooper, Tara Barrette, Marlene Vollans, Annetta Dunnion, Marjorie Hillman, Maribeth Livesey and Pat Haynes.

The guest vendor was Tara Barrette from Gotta Have It Fabrics in Windsor.

Our next meeting will be on Sept. 19. Be prepared to show your finished UFOs (Unfinished Objects). Also mark your calendars for Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 for our big quilt show at U.M.E.I.

Advisory issued for pouched milk

The Windsor - Essex County Health Unit's medical officer of health has issued a dairy product advisory for pouched milk produced by Lakeside Jersey Dairy Ltd. in Leamington.

In a release dated Aug. 24, Dr. G. Allen Heimann said pouched milk produced by the company since Aug. 14 should be discarded. He added that milk being sold in cartons is not affected.

One sample from the line of bagged milk tested positive for the bacteria Listeria. Heimann warns that there is a possibility of other milk being contaminated. No illnesses have been reported.

Disney's Jungle Book Kids!

Little Tomato Children's Theatre invites you to the Roma Club on Friday, Sept. 1 for an evening of food, fun and the premiere performance of Disney's Jungle Book Kids! This event is a benefit for the new Performing Arts and Cultural Centre in Leamington.

The festivities begin at 6 p.m. with a buffet dinner followed by a special performance by Windsor Symphony Orchestra violin virtuoso, Dawn Hrycak-Popovic. Then Little Tomato Children's Theatre's young actors will bring one of Disney's most beloved stories to life on the stage.

The Jungle Book is a winning combination of captivating characters, humour, drama and music, including "I Wanna Be Like You" and "The Bare Necessities". The finale of the evening is an ice cream sundae bar and a silent auction!

This event is for children of all ages. Tickets are available at the Art Centre, Bateman's Stationary or by calling 519-326-5649 to reserve by phone.

Audition call
