McAULIFFE

Re - the Memorial Mass for Sister Adelaide McAuliffe C.S.J.

We are most grateful to Father Boutette, Father Quinlan and Father Mousseau who so graciously consented to concelebrate the Mass, to the Sisters of St. Joseph who were present, to all those who were asked to participate in a special way to make the service more personal and meaningful and to our parishioners and the relatives and friends of Sister Adelaide who attended.

Our thanks to our Altar Society who provided the tasty refreshments following Mass and our appreciation to all those who so generously donated toward the Memorial Tree and plaque.

We feel certain that "Addie" was peeking down through the heavenly clouds with her gracious friendly smile upon all those assembled to honour her at her beloved St. Mary's in her home town of Maidstone.

Once again we thank all those who were involved.
- Linda, Sue and Ella-Mae

Mom in your loving memory

I've Seen An Angel

You say you've seen an angel

My friend asked me today

Without a hesitation,

"Yes, I have seen one," I'll say.

He asked, "What does she look like?"

"Is there a halo and some wings?"

"No", I replied quickly

"She doesn't have those things."

"She does have the warmest smile

And is loving like no other

I ought to know," I said

"For this angel is my Mother."

Rest at Peace Mom. We are all fine.

- Loved missed, Ruth, Keith, Paula, Yves, Marcy, Matt, Allie, Bree

And not with your head bowed low,

Remember the love that we once shared
