

Sun Parlor Junior School celebrates

Christmas spirit was everywhere at Sun Parlor last week. Our students were excited to perform in two beautiful Christmas concerts that were organized by music teacher extraordinaire Mrs. Peleshok. The gym was packed with appreciative family members both days. The week was filled with Christmas crafts, poems and stories, as well as baking, the can drive, and a visit from Santa and his little elf. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all from the staff and students of Sun Parlor!

Medieval times at Gosfield North

JUNIOR KNIGHT – Gosfield North Central School Grade 4 student Chad Hazael tries on a knight's helmet after a presentation by "The Medieval Man" Jay McKee Dec. 21. McKee, an educational speaker and history buff, showed the class an assortment of shields, swords, armour, and clothing from the pre-Renaissance era.

Holiday Happenings at Holy Name

CUT FOR CANCER – Holy Name School Grade 6 student Morgan McCarthy cracks a smile despite having her long locks cut off by friend Sandy Drake. Morgan's father Paul and her brothers Callaghan, Doran and Casey joined her in the haircut-for-cancer session Dec. 22. Members of the family had been growing their hair for years and the donations will be made into wigs for local cancer patients.
