

IN MEMORIAM

WILSON, Susan Lynn
To A Phenomenal Woman Mom, I miss you; Ten years have come and gone, Yet it seems just yesterday that you were here. Thoughts of your smile, your laughter, your beauty, and your love Are memories that get me through each day. I wish you here to wake me up each morning, Singing whatever song was on your mind. I need you to continue to be my angel mom, And to always be by my side. Even though I cannot see you, I like to think you are near. I want to tell you about my life mom, And I hope you would be proud. I would give anything to have just one more day with you; To tell you a secret, or make you smile. I know you are not here, But, you did not die; You are in the world around me, Everywhere I go. Please never leave me mom For I need you close to my heart. I know you will continue to watch over me And give me strength for each coming day. I love you.

IN MEMORIAM

NEWMAN, Douglas
Sept. 2, 1932-Jan. 29, 2000
In loving memory of a wonderful husband. My love, it's been two years since you went away, Honey, I miss you more and more each day. It seems like a dream that never ends, You were loved so much by your many friends. I know in my heart, you're in a better place, But it's hard not to see your face. I knew in my heart that the die was cast, The Lord was calling you home at last. But I still had hopes, a miracle would be, And you would get well, so I could see, You once again, the way you were before, That tumor took you far from shore. I guess I'm being selfish for wanting you here, God needed you more, away up there, So goodbye, my Love, thanks for the ride, Some day we'll meet on the other side. Until that time, when we shall meet, I love you Doug, save me a seat. P.S. "I know you and Katelyn are happy together."
- Greatly loved and missed, wife Jean and family
