

IN MEMORIAM

PLANTE, Vernon

Feb. 7, 1939-Feb. 9, 2006
 As we lie in bed at night and we try to sleep
 We think of our Dad and we start to weep
 Why God, did you take our Dad
 When you knew he was the only father we had?
 This is not real, it must be a dream
 When we opened our eyes, we just wanted to scream
 We were hoping against hope, that there was some mistake
 That it wasn't our Dad you had to take
 He was still so young and oh so strong
 Are you sure God that you haven't got it all wrong
 How do we stop our tears from falling
 When the phone rings and we know it's not him calling
 And how do we fill this empty space
 That held so many memories of his loving face
 Our Dad was a wonderful man who was always willing to give a helping hand
 He stood tall and was full of life
 He was loved dearly by his kids especially by his wife
 His loving memory will be forever etched in our minds Cause our Dad was one of a kind.
 Lovingly remembered by your wife Rose and your children Violet, Diane, Stewart, Sheila, Sherrylynn and Vance and all our families

Dear Dad
 It's been a year since God came like a thief in the night and took you while you were sleeping without a fight.
 You told me you were scared
 Dad and didn't want to die
 I'm so sorry I could do nothing but hold you and cry.
 I knew you were suffering
 I could hear in your voice God heard it too so he had no choice
 He gently lifted you away to a better place while I was left here with only the memories of your loving face.

My tears still flow like pouring rain
 I wake up at night still calling your name
 My life goes on without you but some days Dad it's really hard like today when it's your birthday and I can't send you a card.
 So I'm writing you a message, to send up above to let you know I miss you and give you my love.
 I know you're an angel Dad watching down from a cloud
 I hope you can hear me as I sing Happy Birthday real loud on this special day the day of your birth I'd have God bring you back to earth for one big hug and one last kiss cause these are the things I really miss.
 - Love always and forever, Sheila
