IN MEMORIAM

McDERMOTT, Gladys
April 2, 2006
(One Year Anniversary)

It's true what they say that the first year is the hardest. It's the year of firsts, Mother's Day, birthdays, anniversaries and Christmas celebrations. As a role model of wife, mother, grandmother and friend you set the bar so high in your quiet gentle ways and we continue to live life by your example.

Life is temporary, but our memories live forever. We hold them near to our hearts and keep you close wherever we are. We thank God for your presence in our lives. We miss you terribly but can find comfort knowing you are in the loving arms of God.

- Love always Tout, Pam, Lisa, Bruce, Ron, Tammy, Tim, Laurie-Jo, Terry, Cori and all the grandchildren and great grandchild

CARD OF THANKS

BOYLAN

I would like to thank my family, relatives and friends for their cards, gifts and their kind words on the occasion of my 90th birthday on Saturday, March 31.

I would also like to thank the Woodslee United Church Women for preparing the food for the open house in the afternoon. Also to Connie Reeb who we had to rely on for information in preparing for the open house.

Also to my family who decorated the hall and my grandson Scott who cooked for the family dinner later that day.

- Sincerely Violet Boylan

Two years have slipped by without hearing your voice,

God called you away, we had no choice.

You were a great daughter, a mother and wife,

You brought so much happiness into our life.
