We're Becoming a Family Tradition

During the past 17 years the fine families of Oakville have made P & L their headquarters for a complete line of Hallmark Cards, stationery, candles and gift wrap as well as office, school and art supplies, leather wallets, and brief cases.

P. & L. has become a family affair with our daughter and son-in-law coming into the business within the last year, and we take this opportunity to salute Oakville on this Special Occasion.

For over 13 Years A leader in Junior Fashions

Young House of Fashion has been serving the community for 13 years, specializing in fine children's clothing. Although proud to offer a great many Canadian made lines, we endeavour to give our customers a larger selection by stocking the newest fashions from Europe, Britain & the U.S.A.

We stock everything a boy & girl needs — underwear, sportswear, suits, dresses, pants, coats, snowsuits, sox, Crib and form sheets & blankets, along with lots of accessories for the newborn, including soft toys. We also stock Girl Guide & Brownie supplies & uniforms. There has been a children's wear store at this location for over 25 years, & we have many customers who have been coming throughout these years. We have recently expanded our display area to keep up with our growing business. Mrs. Johnson & her staff extend a warm welcome to all their customers & are happy to be a part of Progress '77.

YOU'VE GOT TO BELIEVE IN HOME

Since 1864

On March 18th, 1864, in the Town of London, Ontario 25 pioneer businessmen gathered in the room above MacFie's store and founded what is now Canada Trust.

Now, with over a century of experience behind us, we're one of Canada's larger financial institutions with more than 125 branches, and 50 real estate offices, coast-to-coast.

FROM AN OLD FARM HOUSE TO THE FINEST IN FASHIONS

On Sat. April 5, 1958 the "Sign of the Stork" opened in what was an old farmhouse, located on the South side of Lakeshore Rd. The business was the brainchild of Claire Fleming, Barbara Stone and Betsy Hagy (Dale).

Originally a Maternity Store but soon added Lingerie. In 1966 the store moved to its present location under the name of Barbette. Five years ago the maternity lines were dropped. Today, Barbette's feature the finest in lingerie, loungewear and sports clothes.

Present staff Dorothy Snowball, Manageress, Mary Lusby and Fboine Aymong.
