ENTERTAINED COUNCIL.—The Village Inn entertained the members of the council and commission to dinner on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison were exceptionally kind and the menu and service was of the highest order and could hardly be excelled in Toronto. The Oakville five-piece orchestra provided choice music during the dinner.

FIRST BAND CONCERT.—The Oakville band has been engaged to give a series of band concerts during the summer, the first of which is to be given on the lake bank on Saturday evening. Our band is in good shape and they have been practising some new music. It is hoped that a large number of our residents and visitors will be in attendance on our beautiful lakeside park on Saturday evening. Tell your neighbor of this.

HOME FROM CHINA.—On Saturday last Rev. and Mrs. Wilfrid B. Albertson arrived home on a year's furlough from the China mission field. Most of the time will be spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Albertson, of Oakville. Mr. Albertson is a graduate of the Oakville schools and received his inspiration to become a missionary from his attendance at the Methodist church here. After graduating he labored for a couple of years in the northwest and about five years ago left for China where he was stationed in the interior. He was working successfully when the rising among the natives occurred last summer and he, with many other missionaries, was compelled to flee to Tokio where he had British protection. His time for furlough had not arrived but the missionary authorities decided that it would be better for them to take furlough now than to return to the interior and come back on furlough in a year or two. This accounts for his returning sooner than expected. Mr. Albertson looks fairly well and is filled with zeal for the work in China.

Held Huge Picnic

It often happens that more events than the Oakville fair are held amid showers of rain. It is seldom they have equal torrents as our fair enjoyed in 1911, but on Thursday last there was sufficient to cause the postponement of Col. Cox's big picnic at Ennisclare farm.

The announcement was given that it would come off next day but Friday had showers as well which kept hundreds from partaking of the hospitality and good time provided by Col. and

MIDSUMMER PROMOTIONS Oakville High, Public and Separate Schools

HIGH SCHOOL

With the exception of those after whose names a subject is bracketed, the following pupils are entitled to promotion. The bracketing of a subject after the name indicates that the pupil will be required to pass a supplemental examination in that subject at the opening of the fall term. The figures show the average percentage taken. Marks of unsuccessful pupils will be forwarded within a few days.

Classified advertisements on the front page of a newspaper may seem strange to us today until you realize The Globe and Mail still has them flanking the masthead every day and The Times of London's front page until 1966 was entirely classified. By this 1913 issue of The Star, the emphasis had returned again to local news items and gossip. Graduating high school was a top news item for the Oakville papers well into the late 1940s.
