GROCERIES. We have no Auction Sales to record since our last; but prices of stocks in private hands have gradually stiffened in every aclicle of general trade. Sugars are stiff, at à cent per lb. advance, and in some cases more; and Teas and Tobaccos have panicipated in the general feeling. Salt is held firmly at 50c, and for small lote, 55c is ask-

In Fish there is no movement, season being yet early. We may easy that in groceries generally there is a firmer feeling, and every indication displayed of higher prices.
