Double-Dutch Dips

As the holiday season approaches, we are all looking for new, appetizing and tempting party ideas. Instead of the usual cheese and crackers, offer your guests these delicious dips made from imported Holland Edam cheese — and, presented in their red wax shells, they add an extra splash of color. The extra preparation will be well worth the praise you are sure to receive for your special cheese tray.

Additionally, an Edam cheese ball makes an ideal gift to take along to Christmas or New Year's parties at which you are the guest. Simply wrap the "ball" in plastic wrap, and festive paper if you wish.

1 (1 lb. 14 oz.) imported Holland Edam cheese
 Cut imported Holland Edam in half. Scoop cheese from each half leaving 1/4 inch to 1/2 inch shell (Edam is easy to work with when it is at room temperature). Shred the Edam cheese removed from each half of the shell with a fine vegetable shredder.

For Toasted Almond Dip:
 Blend or cream shredded Edam from one half of shell with:
 1/2 cup sauteurine
 2 tablespoons soft unsalted butter
 1/2 cup slivered almonds (toasted)

Spoon filling back into the "bowl" made from one half of the imported Edam ball.

For Buttered Pecan Dip:
 Blend or cream shredded Edam from the second half of the imported Edam ball with:
 1/2 cup claret
 2 tablespoons soft unsalted butter
 1/2 cup chopped pecans
 pinch of nutmeg

Spoon the dip into bowl made from second half of Edam ball. To serve, place party "bowls" on serving trays with assorted crackers or crisp vegetables. If you prefer softer dips add small amounts of milk or cream. Makes enough for about 40 servings.

Dips may be wrapped and stored in refrigerator for as long as two weeks but are best served at room temperature. Remove from refrigerator 1/2 hour before serving.

Either filling makes a tasty accompaniment to a slice of mince-meat pie or a warm mince-meat tart.

Dr. Music Teaches...the world to sing

Doug Riley (left), leader of the Canadian pop-rock group, Dr. Music, and Laurie Bower (right), of the Laurie Bower Singers, were on hand recently to launch the new Canadian disc, "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing (in Perfect Harmony)". Both Canadian groups were invited to give their own interpretation of the song and the result is a newly cut 45 rpm disc released with the co-operation of the bottlers of Coca-Cola. The two separate versions of the tune feature a gospel-rock arrangement by Dr. Music and, on the flip side, a gentle folk version by the Laurie Bower Singers. The hit tune was originally a 60 second jingle. However, public response was so favorable that the jingle has been recorded into a 3 minute top 40 hit.
