

Homes & Gardens

If you have a kitchen large enough for a Christmas tree why not decorate it naturally? Wendy Reimer did this tree with bright red peppers, raffia, some silver utensils, garlic and more. Traditional mantel comes alive with candles and this family room (lower right) uses pine to bring the scent of the outdoors inside.

CORRECTION NOTICE

On page 8 of the Shoppers Drug Mart flyer in effect from Sunday, December 5th until Saturday, December 11, 1999 the Polaroid 600 or Spectra Film (10 Exp.) should read "Save up to $12.00 with a Polaroid mail-in rebate. See store for details."

Workshop Show in March

The Canadian Home Workshop Show, North America's premier home wood-working and do-it-yourself event, returns to the International Centre in Mississauga, Fri. March 3rd through Sun. March 5th.

Women of all ages are becoming more involved in do-it-yourself projects in and around the home. In recognition, the Canadian Home Workshop Show will introduce an interactive Women's Workshop. Ryobi Canada sponsors the workshop, where participants will have the opportunity to learn about tools from a team of experts and take part in easy, take-home projects.

Every year at the show, wood-working and DIY enthusiasts gather to see the latest tools and home improvement products, and watch experts demonstrate the newest techniques. More than 20,000 show visitors will meet in excess of 120 exhibiting companies at the Canadian Home Workshop Show.
