Blades pick up three of four points over weekend

SPECIAL TO THE BEAVER

The visiting Streetsville Derby's scored a controversial last-minute goal, with their goalie pulled in favour of an extra attacker, to gain a 5-5 tie with the Oakville Blades in provincial junior A hockey action last Friday.

The subsequent overtime period was scoreless, although the Blades did ring two hard slaps off the post.

"We had some tough breaks," said Blades coach John McDonald who was ejected arguing that Streetsville's game-tying goal had gone in off a high stick.

But the questionable calls went both ways. Earlier in the third period, Blades forward Bob Jaggard scored on a penalty shot which was awarded after he was hauled down on a partial break-away.

The game was even at 1-1 after the first period and the Blades were down 3-2 after two periods, prompting a tongue lashing from coach McDonald during the second intermission.

"I told them to be more physical." In the third period, he was happy that his charges "outplayed them."

Blades general manager George McDonald echoed his coach's comments:

"We weren't physical enough, and need to pick it up. We can't count on three or four physical players. We need more."

He added that a trade may be in the offing.

"We need to make another trade, possibly for a defenceman or a tough winger."

The game featured end-to-end action, with the teams both getting great chances.

The Blades had goals from Mike Tarantino (2), Mike Gardner, Perry Ryerson, and Bob Jaggard. They had assists from Jaggard (3), Gardner, Jason Pinizzotto, Stu MacCrimmon, Peter Lang, and Chris Knighton.

The Derby's scoring came from Craig Holmes (2), Chris Brussa-Toi, Eric Burling, and Andy Rozak. Assists came from Rozak, Burling, Marco Sestito, Joe Carrabs, Mark Strzoda, Scott Irwin, David Friel, and Mike Hunter.

SUNDAY
A pair of goals each by Mike Lukajic and Chris Pethick helped fuel the Blades to a 6-2 win over host Buffalo on Sunday.

Single markers were added by Mike Tarantino and Mike Gardner.

Picking up assists were Bob Jaggard (2), Tarantino, Stu MacCrimmon, Jason Sajko, Gardner and Jason Pinizzotto.

The Blades led 4-1 and 4-2 at the end of the first and
