ed with a re-

TURIN, May 17.

The Emperor summoned to Genoa the French Ambassador at Rome.

The Austrians are threatening the Bridge of Stella. dria, forming stratagetical plans.

Incessant rains prevent the troops from The Austrians have withdrawn from Vog-hera and Casteggio. The London Times' special correspondent, dating from the Austrian head-quarters, Mortara, 10th, affirms that the Piedmontese evinced great friendliness for the Austrians, who were supplying starving peasants with food. to concessions by Austria and Russia.

by and Palmerston.

reached over twenty-three hundred million francs, nearly five times the amount asked. The Tuscan Consul at Ancona hauled down his flag and the French and Sardinian Consuls threatened to demand their passports.

Austria continued fortifying. in with a detachment of Austrian Hussars. corporal and some privates.

ed between Brone and Stradella.

Inkermann, and says that they are about de- any ship or vessel with intent, or in order livering Italy forever from its oppressors. is of opinion that Count Buol's resignation is ed in the service of any foreign prince, state an indication that the policy of Austria is about to undergo a complete change, and that vince or part of any province or people, or of expense of Turkey, will be made. Lord Palmerston is likely to accept the offer part of any province or people, as a transport from Lord Derby of the Leadership of the or storeship, or with intent to cruise or com-Commons, with four seats in the Cabinet.

ernment has given orders for five corpsd'armee any prince, state or potenate, or against the to be placed immediately on a war footing, persons exercising, or as assuming to exerwith the whole of the artillery and cavalry cise, the powers of government in any colony ments of funds as similar to the past week.

Arrivals of Australian and American gold for the past ten days amount to nine hundred and thirty thousand pounds, the greatest part of thirty thousand pounds, the greatest part of settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and thirty thousand pounds, the greatest part of settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and thirty thousand pounds, the greatest part of settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and or any of his Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and or any of his Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and or any of his Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and or any of his Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and the past ten days amount to nine hundred and shipments to India.

gry correspondence is going on between the of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction French and English Governments, relative to thereof, upon any information or indictment, warfare. He is one of the few remaining permission granted by the latter for Austrian be punished by fine and imprisonment, or full blooded sons of the forest. vessels to take shelter under guns at Malta. | either of them, at the discretion of the court of American Postal steamers, and professes to and every such ship or vessel, with the tacktion has fallen into the hands of England.

Arrival of the 'Hammonia.'

NEW YORK, May 30.

this morning, from Southampton on the 18th of the laws of customs or excise, or the laws inst., and brings London papers of that day. ity of the States of the Church.

by the Austrians, who had workmen assem- and excise, or under the laws of trade and bled there and at other points on the Po, and navigation; or that every ship and vessel the waters of the Po had risen, and the women with the tackle, apparel, and furniture, together by the Austrians to labor at the works; and stores, which may belong to, or be on board several Sardinian Mayors, who refused to of such ship or vessel, may be prosecuted

Rain was falling incessantly, which ac- secuted and condemned by any breach of the and standing. counts for the inactivity of the troops; and laws made for the protection of the revenues

The French squadron was before Venice

The following is a copy of the postage rates by the Canadian mail steamers :-

On Letters for the United Kingdom-71d. or 121 cents per half ounce. Letters for the United Kingdom must be pre-paid to pass at this rate; if forwarded unpaid, or not sufficiciently pre-paid, a fine of 6d. sterling each will be charged in England in addition to the ordinary postage rate.

On Newspapers for the United Kingdom-Id. each. This charge must be pre-paid, Kingdom or any of his Majesty's dominions announcement, which was made by Chief British Neutrality.

BY THE QUEEN-A PROCLAMATION.

sferred his head the one part, and his Majesty the King of Sar- Now, in order that none of our subjects may Mr. Dewhurst that they had arrived at the de-Voghera. No Emperor of the French, on the other part, and displeasure.

ating with a possess property and establishments, and en- to exercise. e Ticino and joy various rights and privileges, within each And we do hereby warn all our royal sub- bow and three arrows with flint points and t had asked of the dominions of each of the aforesaid sov- jects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to feathers, and Mr. Weyms was given a beautiseventy-five ereigns protected by the faith of treaties be- our protection, that if any of them shall pre- ful tomahawk to be kept as mementos of the

The French Emperor remains at Alessan- their respective subjects, and others inhabit- and deemed to be contraband of war, accordwar unhappily existing between them.

this our Royal Proclamation.

Count Buol's resignation was construed in- neutrality in and during the aloresaid hostili- premises, will do so at their peril, and of their There are rumors ef coalition between Der- contravening either the laws and statutes of obtain any protection from us against such Subscriptions to the new French loans in relation thereto, as they will answer to the will, on the contrary, incur car intendisplea-

contrary at their peril. ment of His Majesty's subjects to serve in for- reign. God save the Queen. A Sardinian body of cavalry recently fell eign service, and the fitting out or equipping in His Majesty's dominions vessels for war- The Six Nation Indians Celebrate near Voghera, and took prisoners a wounded like purposes, without his Majesty's license," it is amongst other things declared and enact-The Austrians have withdrawn from Vog- ed as follows: That if any person within any part of the United Kingdoms, or in any Austrian workmen have been assembled on part of His Majesty's dominions beyond the the right bank of the Po and at the bridge of seas, shall, without the leave and license of Stella, and other workmen have been collect- his Majesty for that purpose first had and obtained as aforesaid, equip, furnish, fit out, or Prince Napoleon's division is to form the arm, or attempt or endeavor to equip, furnish, fifth corps of the army of Italy. The Prince fit out, or arm, or procure to be equipped, furissued an order of the day announcing his ap- nished, fitted out, or armed, or shall, knowpointments. He tells the soldiers that some ingly, and assist, or be concerned in the of them were his comrades at Alma and at equipping, furnishing, fitting out or arming of that such ship or vessel with intent, or in or-The Correspondent of the Times at Vienna | der that such ship or vessel shall be employor protentate, or of any foreign colony, proconcessions to Russia, more probably at the any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise any powers of government in or The Globe contradicts the statement that over any foreign state, colony, province, or mit hostilities against any prince, state or po-Le Norde announces that the Russian Gov- tentate, or against the subjects or citizens of province, or part of any province or country, The Times' City article reports the move- or against the inhabitants of any foreign colnent, and the remainder will follow. Total belonging or subject to his Majesty, issue or cent to India has been about three millions. deliver any commission for any ship or ves-

The Indian Council will not make any specie | sel, to the intent that such ship or vessel shall be employed as aforesaid, every such The Times devotes an article to the subject in which such ofiender shall be convicted show why this department of Ocean naviga- le, apparel and furniture, together with all the materials, arms, ammunition and stores, which may belong to or be on board of any such toms or Excise, or any officer of his Majesty's navy, who is by law empowered to make The steamship Hammonia arrived here seizures for any forfeiture incurred under any of trade and navigation, to seize such ships The Austrians had withdrawn from Vog- or vessels aforesaid, and in such places and hera, and Austria had recognized the neutral- in such manner, in which the officers of his Majesty's navy, are empowered respectively of the immortal Brant. The bridge of Stella had been threatened to make seizures under the laws of customs and navigation. And it is, in and by the said act, further is head chief among the six nations. enacted, that if any person in any part of the Several other chiefs were present, but the The Austrian Llcyd's had stopped running United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire- above named are the most prominent and dis- will be impossible to negociate the deben- exonerated from his liability. Mr. Justice Hungarian troops in the Austrian army. A land, or in any part of his Majesty's domin- tinguished. ions beyond the seas, without the leave and As the drilling was about to commence a that an extensive Road Company have offered ding to the number of the guns of such vessel the Caughnawaghas from the French during a fair valuation, and for payment will take continual frauds. But he doubted whether or by changing those on board for other guns the war in Canada between that nation and our debentures at par; and no doubt the other or by the addition of any equipment of war, the British. The Caughnawaghas, who in- roads can be made on equally advantageous increase or augment, or procure to be increas- habit a portion of country near Montreal, sent ed or augmented, or shall be knowingly con- this cannon to the Six Nations to be presencerned in increasing or augmenting, the war- ted to them on Her Majesty's Birthday as a like force of any ship or vessel of war, or memento of good feeling existing on their crusier, or other armed vessel, which at the part towards the latter. The utmost enthusitime of her arrival in any part of the United asm prevailed among the Six Nations on this Cabinet-Makers, who have commenced a and by half-penny stamp, or the newspaper was a ship of war, cruiser, or armed vessels, Sakayeagwaradouh, (J. S. Johnson), at the in the service of any foreign prince, state, or conclusion of which three cheers, loud and place, and the absence of which was severely com—Not exceeding 4 ounces in weight, 4d. cising, or assuming to exceeding of government in or over any colors. The drilling having been brought to a close well as many other branches of business, is terior with more certainty, has married the against Sardinia.

country, under the control of any person or long by the people, three for His Excellency VICTORIA R.—Whereas we are happily at so offending shall be deemed guilty of a miswhom then proposed three cheers for the galagainst law and order, occurred in Hanover ally, the intentions of the Government with peace with all soverigns, powers and states; demeandr, and shall, upon being convicted lant Colonel, who duly acknowledged the lately. From what we can gather, it appears reference to the proposed buildings at Quebec. exertions to preserve peace between the sov- be punished by fine and imprisonment, by where the squaws had during the morning ndria, where he dinia, and his Imperial Majesty the Emperor unwarily render themselves liable to the pen- termination of conferring upon them the high And whereas a state of war now exists between his Imperial Majesty the Emperor of whatsoever, do commit any act, matter or this whotsoever contrary to the Indian language—the Six Nations and giving them each an Indian name. The ceremony was accordingly gone this township, to arrest a number of persons by this arrangement, they will save the ren-

And whereas we are on terms of friendship serve towards each and all of the aforesaid Spark," and became a membe of the Lower the sovereigns and with their several subjects and others, inhabiting within their countries, and others, inhabiting within their countries, to respect in all and each of them the exercise to respect to the countries and the English of which is "Great them to severe the countries to respect to the countries to And whereas great numbers of our loyal cise of those belligerent rights which we and News," and was received into the Seneca nasubjects reside and carry on commerce, and our royal predecessors have always claimed tion. Simultaneously with receiving the In-tween us and each of the aforesaid sover- sume, in contempt of this our Royal proclam- occassion. mation, and of our high displeasure, to do any And whereas we, being desirous of preserv- acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of ing to our subjects the blessings of peace, a neutral sovereign, in a contract of the which they now happily enjoy, are firmly sovereigns, or in violation or contravention of purposed and determined to abstain altogeth- the laws of nations, in that behalf, as more er from taking any part, either directly or in- especially by breaking, or endeavoring to directly, in the war now unhappily existing break, any blockade lawfully and actually between the said sovereigns, their subjects established by or on behalf of any or either of and territories, and to remain at peace with, the said sovereigns, by carrying officers, soland to retain a peaceful and friendly inter- diers, despatches, arms, ammunition, military course with all and with each of them, and stores, or any article or articles considered ing within any of their countries, territories ing to the law or modern usages of nations, and dominious, and to maintain a strict and for the use or service of any or either of the impartial neutrality in the said hostilities and said sovereigns, that all persons so offending, together with their ships and goods, will We, therefore, have thought fit, by and rightly incur, and be justly liable to, hostile with the advice of our Privy Council, to issue capture, and to the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf.

And we do hereby strictly charge and com- | And we do hereby give notice, that all our mand all our loving subjects to govern them- subjects and persons entitled to our protecselves accordingly, and to observe strictly a tion who may misconduct themselves in the ties and war, and to abstain from violating or own wrong; and that they will in no wise the realm in this behalf, or the laws of nations capture or such penalties as aforesaid, but sure by such conduct

And whereas in and by a certain statute | Given at our Court at Buckingham Palace, made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of this thirteenth day of May, in the year of our His Majesty's King George the Third, entitled | Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-"An Act to prevent the enlisting or engage- nine, and in the twenty-second year of our

the Queen's Birthday.

teresting account of the manner in which the County Council with regard to the gravel roads Six Nation Indians celebrated the Queen's birthday at Tuscarora. It says there was a Cayugas and Onondagas-numbering in all. on foot, 400 chiefs and warriors good and true, besides about 60 on horse. Those on foot were under the command of the Chief of the Lower Mohawk.

We noticed the following chiefs present-Sadekarihwadegh (James Givens) of the Up-Upper Mohawks, and like the femer served lation of the money to be expended. the battle of Queenston, received a severe ball A committee was appointed to draft a petieye-the scar of which is plainly to be seen. He was also in the battle that was fought at the Six Nations Indians.

Ashigwarisheres, (W. Green.)

John Whitecoat and Seth Newhouse, whose Indian names have escaped us are two very old and venerable warriors who served in the war against the Americans when the lat- those we deemed the false friends of this ter struggled for independence. They both ship or vessel, shall be forfeited; and it shall the bust of George the Third, and on the other the royal coat of arms. These were given to them as testimonials of bravery dur> is quite a young man-very intelligent, possessing a high moral character, and is looked respect. He is, we believe, a distant relation denizens.

Tekarihogea, (G. H. M Johnson,) Colonel of the miltia and grand-son of the late celebrated and gallant chief Tyandanagua, (Capt. and children of the country were compelled with all the materials, arms, ammunition, and Joseph Brant.) Chief Henry Clench assum- protest and request. ed the command of the horse. Captain Johncorated according to their respective tribes Sakayeagwaradouh, (J. S. Johnson.) This some of the Austrian works had been dam- of customs and excise, or the laws of trade is a Chief of the Lower Mohawks, and father County before the next sitting of the Council. certain individuals, could not, on account of of Tekarihogea, (Col. G.H.M. Johnson.) He persons so exercising, or assuming to exercise the Governor, given with a right good will, the powers of government, every such person and three for the Six Nations Chiefs; one of dian name, the latter was handed an ancient

TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION. After dark a beautiful scene was presented to the eye, by the appearance on the Grand River, near Middleport, of some twelve canoes filled with Indians, each holding in his hand late hour, amid the booming of cannon, when the whole company adjourned to the splendid residence of Chief G.H.M. Johnson, situated them to remove. tertained by the worthy host. This terminated the day's proceedings, and all sought their homes quietly and soberly-happy with the manner in which the day had been spent.

DURHAM, JUNE 3rd, 1859.

WE have been informed by a correspondent from Mount Forest, that an indignation meeting was held in that village on the 25th ult, detached. The Brantford Courier gives a long and in- condemnatory of the dilatory conduct of the full representation of the Upper and Lower present views of the Warden respecting the Toronto on the 24th ult. This is a gigantic Sardinia, by which it becomes clear that the Mohawks, the Oneidas, Tuscaroras, Senecas roads, and expressed their disapprobation of undertaking, and not less in importance, to the his "double-dealing," as they termed it, in people of Canada at large. Much of the traffic King Victor, Rome on Prince Napoieon, Nano very measured terms.

per Mohawks, who served in the war of 1812 tures should be negcerated on a nucle disad--a very excellent man of high word character vantageous terms, the loss would be more than tures should be negcciated on a little disad- rence ter and a leader among the Methodists in his doubly gained in the reduced price of labor, neighborhood. Joseph Frazer is also of the likewise the benefit derivable from the circuwound in his forehead immediately over his tion, urging the County Council to proceed with the roads at once.

For our own part we see no impediment in Teyonochisea, (Isaac Hill) Chief of the the way, if there is only a will to perform, Onondaga's, and fire-keeper and speaker of and had the County Council put the matter in the right hands, the money might have been had about him a large display of wampum plausible reasons for delaying the work, aslitical gammon, designed to delay a project which may, at a future day, subserve selfish Bell. The defendent pleaded that he had

We have not yet changed our opinion of false and fraudulent representations, includin accordance with their professions.

Mount Forest have gone to work, shews a determination on their part not to be baffled, by the proof that they had been entrapped. brother of M. Noe, who has the direction of Tekayeadouh, (Isaac Powles.) This Chief and is truly characteristic of their zeal in any On the other side, it was argued that these the reservoirs of Satirana, and wrote to the public enterprise they may undertake, which decisions had not received the assent of the latter that if he wished to save the life of his up to by the Indians generally with much might be copied with advantage by our own tion, will not be allowed to stop, until it shall have traversed the length and breadth of the

The public need not be dismayed by the rumors which have been set affoat, "that it told that any member of the company was readers to the advertisement of A.& J. Mintern, branch of business much required in this enrency; over 4 ounces, and not exceeding 1b., 1s. 3d. currency; over 8 ounces, and not exceeding 1lb., 1s. 3d. currency; and so increasing 7id. for each additional half 1b. Book Packets must be prepaid.

The drilling having been brought to a close daughter of business, is the men were again drawn up in single colleging to the subjects of any such prince, followed by a feu de joic from the muskets. Three times three cheers, proposed by Col.

The drilling having been brought to a close daughter of the negro King of Bihe, in Upper daughter of the negro King colony, province, or part of any province or G.H.M. Johnson, were responded to loud and peddling community. We say Amen.

Constables eating their Warrants.

ther Point at 10 ereign powers and states now at war, hostilities have unhappily commenced between his before which such offender shall be convict
At the conclusion of the speeches it was diately after, were stolen from the custody of adapted to the necessities of the Legislature. signified by the chiefs to Mr. Weyms and the bailiff by a band of deperadoes. Warrants It is estimated that $50,000 will suffice for were issued, and a man named Dilanti ar- this purpose, and the balance will go a great alties imposed by the said statute, we do here- honor of adopting them in to the family of the rested. A few days after, two constables pro- way towards the alterations which will be Austria, on the one part, and his Majesty the King of Sardinia and his Imperial Majesty the of the said statute imposed, and of our high favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home and had instanced in this Imperial Majesty the favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home and had instanced in this Imperial Majesty the favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home and had instanced in this Imperial Majesty the favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home and had instanced in this Imperial Majesty the favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home and had instanced in the favored two being led through the ranks of They were returning home. the warriors, Mr. Weyms by Sakayearwara- They were returning home, and had just pass- The Financial and Public Works Departments between their respective subjects and others and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, and all persons whatsoever entitled to our protection, to ob- which being interpreted signifies "Flying ble between their respective subjects and others and admo- down, (J. S. Johnson), chief of the Lower ed the village of Hanover, when six of the whatsoever entitled to our protection, to ob- which being interpreted signifies "Flying ble between their respective subjects and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, when six of the whatsoever entitled to our protection, to ob- which being interpreted signifies "Flying ble between their respective subjects and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, and all persons when six of the whatsoever entitled to our protection, to ob- which being interpreted signifies "Flying ble between their respective subjects and others and admo- down, (J. S. Johnson), chief of the Lower ed the village of Hanover, when six of the whole and admo- down and the challenge of the village of Hanover, when six of the whole and the challenge of the village of Hanover, when six of the whole and the challenge of the village of the village of Hanover, when six of the whole and the challenge of the village of the vi whatsoever entitled to our protection, to ob- which being interpreted signifies "Flying ble-barrelled guns, overtook them, and de- School, apposite the Esplanade, in St. Louisand amicable intercourse with all and each of sovereigns, their subjects, and territories, and Mohawks. Mr. Dewhurst was intorduced to manded any weapons the Constables might Street, which is the property of the Governty thousand; the sovereigns and with their several subjects towards all belligrents whatsoever, with whom the warriors by Chief Kanoegerihdahooh, have on their persons, and with their guns ment. One or two ordinary houses, in addi-

This is the most audacious action we ever heard of being perpetrated in this Country, and hope the Magistrates of Brant and Bentinck will conjointly take such steps as will bring the offenders to justice, and strike terror to all evil-deers.

Strange Fancy of Birds.

Birds frequently exhibit a strange instinct, a torch light. In this manner they rowed, in | in the places they choose in which to build > themselves severally on the grist, carding, Imperial minimation. and saw-mill of Mr Paterson of this town. The former had built on the outside of the window-sill of the fourth story of the gristmill, although not very strange, is certainly of Austria is now entering has been neither a heavy shaft belonging to the machinery of constantly jarring, likewise a deafening noise what has been salled her old fashrones ed a muly saw, making nearly three hundred

By some means they have ascertained the the Georgian Bay Canal, was performed at and the Emperor of the French to the King of Want of space prevents us copying in full lines of railroad in the State of New York, Austria, which leaves the road open to Russia; the excellent communication of our correspon- will find its natural outlet to the Atlantic dent, shewing that even though the deben- through this canal and the river St. Law-

> THE CANADIAN VISITOR is the title of perance, literature and religion. The paper As a Canadian enterprise, we wish it every snccess. Published by E. Thorne, Orono, C. W., at 50 cents per annum.

Interesting Joint Stock Company Law

From the Montreal Herald.

The first case which has came into court is Journal. that of the Provincial Insurance Company vs. been induced to become a shareholder from ing the payment of dividends and bonuses, caused; but third parties, believing that they them all the forage they required." were dealing with a company composed of frauds between these individuals, with which they, the third parties, had no concern, be ons the other way; and as to the opinion of We take much pleasure in referring our practical point involved being only as to the admission of evidence, adhered to the actual decisions, and determined to admit the evidence of false representation.

authority to facilitate his researches.

Government Buildings at Quebec.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Government appears to be taking measures; and Mr. Disraeli very patriot call informs the Emperors of France and that, while they will probably be in the third year of a war, we sh ble to go on merrily for twenty ye sense, he lets then know that we are not simply a European race, or a European power, or simply the member of an old and wideregular order, up and down the river to a their nests. Once they have chosen an abode, as well as the Old; and whatever Time takes no inconvenience or disturbance will cause from us in the Old World he gives us in the New. Suppose a war such as the last; supon the banks of the river near the village of A few days since we were shewn the nest pose it as long; at the end of twenty years we are the chief of a mighty American and Middleport, where they were hospitably en- of three different species of bird—the black- Australian Confederation. Mr. Disraeli bird, pee-vee and robin-each having located throws out these very suggestive hints for

Feeling in the Palace of Vienna.

The war upon which the young Emperor rare. The second located itself on a cross- suddenly nor rashly advised. It seems that bar between two posts, to which is attached from the very first the Emperor's mother, the Archduchess Sophia, has entertained a decided repulsion toward the Imperial the carding mill, and from its power and ve- family of France, and has even been somelocity, keeps the nest with its young inmates, times persiflee; by her own family for and in close preximity to the workmen and prejudice. The Archduchess is a woman of the most powerful intellect, and still holds her others, which does not appear to discommode rule over her son as firmly as in the days of it in the least. The robin has snugly en- his minority. Her penetration is proverbial, sconced itself on the beam to which is attach- and she consults with Metternich upon all subjects connected with the interests of the Austrian Crown. Ever since the marriage of cuts per minute, and so close to the machinery, the Prince Napoleon the suspicions of the old that portions of the nest have at times been lady have been aroused; and at length, by dint of artifice and money, of faith in themselves and the want of it in others, the experienced pair have succeeded in obtaining the The ceremony of turning the first sod on full copy of the letters of Prince Napoleon: war in Italy is but a secondary object, that the ultimate end is the bestowal of Lombardy on now conveyed by the Erie canal and various ples on Prince Murat, and the overthrow of and then hurrah for the long cherished idea of the attack on England! Every step which has hitherto been taken by Austria has been the result of mature deliberation amongst the Imperial family, by every member of which a the young Emperor is regarded as a precious monthly journal, devoted to the cause of tem- charge confided to their care. The Imperial family of Austria assembles at its Council Board sixteen Archdukes, all in the prime of is neat in appearance, contains 8 pages, and life, of vigour and intelligence; all moved by abounds with valuable and useful information. the same interests, and all as friendly and united as every family should be. No measure of vital importance is ever undertaken without the advice of all and the adhesion of the majority. The assembly appealed to on the present occasion, was unanimous in its decision-the Archduchess Sophia even more urgent than the rest. How proud and glorious she must have felt when her son, rising in the midst of his relations, laid his hand upon his sword, and in answer to the proposition of A suit, involving legal points of the very France, which has been discussed, exclaimhighest importance in respect to joint stock ed, "Let the Emperor Louis Napoleon be told ing the great spirit and the sacrifice of the when there are so many advantages to be companies, has just been commenced at To- that I am as yet too young to abdicate. He white dog. He is a thorough red man. He gained by prosecuting it now. The would-be ronto. The Provincial Insurance Company wants to plume (pick) the Austrian eagle: of that city has brought an action against better to try and cut his throat. One thing several of its shareholders to recover calls, let him remember in the coming struggle, that and carried in his hand a strong bow and ar- signing as a cause, "the inability of the peo- which, it appears, are, or were when they the game is far from equal between us. I The London Advertiser asserts that an anof a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction of a misdemeanor and shall and "wait for another crop, &c.," is mere po- which had been incurred by the company .- issue of the war."-Paris Cor. Liverpool

Austrian Progress in Italy.

A letter from Turin, dated May 6th says: "We have inundated all the country which and that the Company, therefore, could not the Austrians have to cross, and on this ocwork, neither will we, until their actions are claim from him the amount of this casion our populations have displayed the paopinion was, it was said, in accordance with triotism which was to have been expected .-The manner in which the inhabitants of a number of judicial decisions in England, The Austrians endeavored to prevent the where stockholders had been held to be re- breaking of the locks, but without success. leased from their liabilities to the Company, In the province of Vercelli they seized the Lord Chancellor of England, who held that brother he must put an end to the inundationthe shareholders in a Joint Stock Company The sole reply M. Noe sent was to double being partners, one of them could not plead the quantity of water let loose, so that many This movement, we hope, will not be al- the frauds of his co-partners, in order to es- Austrians who had advanced in the hope lowed to rest here, but that every locality cape liability, and thus destroy the fund from that for four hours at least they would not be throughout the County will enter a similar whence innocent third parties, dealing with impeded by inundations found themselves the company might be paid. The opinion of with water up to their waists. It is not be a writer in the London Law Magazine was known what they have done with the brother The initiative has been taken by Mount cited in support of this view. The directors, of M. Noe. The Austrians make heavy leson was arrayed in full Indian costume and a Forest, at the extreme Southern limits of the or even individual shareholders, making false vies of provisions and stores in all the towns comply with the Austrian demand for contri- and condemned in the like manner, and in large number of the men were differently de- County, and we hope the ball thus set in modamages which such misrepresentations had carried off a mayor, who was not able to give

Kossuth-Hungary-Austria.

A report is in our tent that Kossuth is now in Sardinia and in communication with the tures," for we have been credibly informed Richards, who tried the case, appeared to letter in one of the German papers further think that the latter view of the law was the states that much agitation prevails in Hunlicense of his Majesty for that purpose first had and obtained as aforesaid, shall, by ad had and obtained as aforesaid, shall as a small cannon, a trophy of war taken by a large transfer at the same and the same as a small cannon as a sm hinted at in the correspondence of some of the he ought to act in the face of judicial decisi- English papers, and putting these facts together, some journalists start the plausible theory the Lord Chancellor, it did not appear that it that the discovery of disaffection among the had been pronounced as a judicial decision. Hungarian troops, who form a large portion of His Lordship, therefore, on this occasion, the the Austrian army now in Sardinia, is the real cause of hesitation, counter-marching, and almost retreat of the Austrian forces since they entered Piedmont. It is also said that there is dissension between the Austrian and Hungarian generals of that army. It seems pro-AN ARDENT EXPLORER.-Ladislaus Magyar, bable that Austria will have her hands full, On Book Packets for the United King- potentate, or of any person or persons exer- long, were given for the Caughnawaghas. felt of late. The imported trash, in this, as a Hungarian, in the hope of reaching the in- and will yet rue the day she took up arms way, so says a letter carrier.

a f

sep pos ker, 32,0