The Saturday Evening Post

THE proprietors of the Saturday Evening Post would call the attention of the public to their long-established sheet, and especially to their brilliant arrangements for the coming year. The Post is peculiarly adapted to the wants of Country Families, as it contains weekly, not only a large amount of the Best Literature, but the Latest News, Agricultural Essays and Information, Domestic Receipts, Accounts of the Markets, &c. &c. &c. In its Literary Department measures have been taken to render the coming year one of Unusual Interest. Determined to obtain for the Post the very best talent that could be procured, we have made arrangements with the distinguished author G. P. R. JAMES, Esq., for the aid of his brilliant and fertile torical Novelet by this gifted author, to be entitled THE CAVALIER: BY G. P. R. JAMES, ESQ.,

Author of "Richelieu," "Mary of Burgundy," "The Old Dominion," &c. To show that we have hesitated at no reasonsble expense to procure the very best talent for our readers, we may be allowed to state that we pay Mr. James for the above Novelet the sum of an amount which, though large, is simply in accordance with the usual rates that Mr. James's high reputation enables him to command. We may further add that Mr. James will write excluively for the Post.
