

Great Protestant Meeting in Toronto.

From the Toronto Leader we learn that there was a large attendance of Protestants on Friday evening, 5th inst., in St. Lawrence Hall, called by the Mayor, in obedience to a numerous signed requisition to that effect, for the purpose of expressing an opinion upon the proscription course pursued by the Duke of Newcastle towards the Orange Society, during the recent visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. The room was crowded to its utmost capacity about twelve hundred finding accommodation within its walls, while hundreds went away unable to gain admission. Among those present, on and about the platform, were the Hon. John Hillyard Cameron, Grand Master of the Orange Institution, Ozle R. Gowan, Esq., M.P., and G. L. Allen, Esq., Past Grand Masters; Andrew Fleming, Esq., Grand Secretary; Alderman Carr, District Master; Alderman F. H. Medcalf, and D'Arcy Boulton, Esq., County Masters; Hon. H. J. Boulton, D. R. Read, Esq., Dr. Bovell, Alderman Moodie, J. E. Smith, Carthy, and Vance, Councilman Bell, &c. The proceedings throughout, although a good deal of excitement was at times manifested, were conducted in the most orderly manner, and evidently to the satisfaction of those calling the meeting. The speeches were of a high order and well received, and we regret that our space prevents us from giving them. The following are the resolutions, which were passed unanimously:—

Resolved—That in the opinion of this meeting, the course pursued by the Duke of Newcastle, Her Majesty's Provincial Secretary of State for the Colonies, towards the Orange Association, a body of men, united together on principles of unserving loyalty to the Throne, and devoted attachment to the Protestant Institutions of the country, by representing their patriotic demonstrations of welcome to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and interfering with the action of various municipal bodies under whose auspices or with whose sanction they were invited to join in the general rejoicings with their fellow-subjects of all classes and creeds, produced irritation and heart-burning, and left a feeling of dissatisfaction and discontent among the Protestant population of Canada, which never would have existed had the Duke remembered that His Royal Highness was the guest of the Province, and that through the Government alone should all his communications have been addressed to the Canadian people.

Resolved—That the marked contrast in the course pursued by those in authority during the progress of the Prince of Wales through Canada, to different Religious and Nationalities, the favor shown to Roman Catholic functionaries and establishments, and the blindness to the floating of the tri-colored flag on the one hand, the coolness exhibited towards the representatives of various Protestant denominations, and the readiness to see and take offence at Orange banners and emblems on the other, deserve and receive from this meeting the severest censure and condemnation.

Resolved—That this country acknowledges the obligation that the country owes to the Loyal Orangemen of this city for the moderation manifested by them under the peculiar circumstances in which their Body was recently placed by His Grace the Duke of Newcastle—a moderation and forbearance which this meeting believes to be entirely due to their devout attachment and allegiance to their beloved Queen, and which were not less creditable to them than satisfactory and advantageous to the people at large.

Resolved—That a committee, composed of the movers and seconders of the foregoing resolutions, and Messrs. Godson and McLean, be appointed to prepare an address to the Queen, and to the Imperial Parliament, and also the different branches of the Canadian Legislature, embodying the foregoing resolutions, with a narrative of the difficulties out of which they have arisen, with power to take such steps as they may consider advisable to mitigate the whole people of Upper Canada in the adoption of similar proceedings.

Resolved—That this meeting while sympathizing with the Orangemen as the parties who have been most immediately affected by the conduct of the Duke of Newcastle, cannot refrain from expressing their indignation that while the people of Canada possess representative institutions, and have their own Parliament and the management of their own local affairs, any member of the Imperial Government who owes no responsibility to them should dictate the course to be pursued by the inhabitants of the country and make direct communication to their municipal authorities in matters of purely local arrangements which not only do not contravene any law of the Province, but not any law of the Empire.

Important from Mexico.

(From the New Orleans Picayune, October 7.) A new difficulty has sprung up between the Miramon government and the British representative at the capital. The Vera Cruz Progress of September 18th thus states it, apparently on official information:— "A letter from the capital, from a perfectly trustworthy source, says that the English representative (Mr. Mathews) has passed a communication to Miramon, to the effect that his government cannot continue to recognise the reaction, on account of its illegal exactions and the excesses its officials have committed against English citizens, giving him at the same time to understand, that the English government will consider the employment of the monster Marquez as an insult."

From this it would appear that the English government contemplated an entire suspension of diplomatic relations with the Miramon government, if it has not done so already. The General Marquez alluded to, it will be remembered, was the principal author of the butcheries at Taculaya, and the robber of the English conducts at Guadaluajara. A private letter from Vera Cruz, written the day before the above news came to hand, says also, that the British representative, Mr. Mathews, had again proposed the abdication of his government for the restoration of peace, but that his proposition had been rejected. It is possible, therefore, despairing of ever receiving justice or seeing peace restored in this distracted country, the British government has at last decided upon some more decisive and energetic course.

Meanwhile things would seem to be tending to still further complications. The treasury of the constitutional government is entirely exhausted, and to use the words of a letter, "has been suspended." By this we understand that that portion of the revenues of the port of Vera Cruz which was set apart for the fulfilment of this national obligation has been diverted, in the impoverishment of the government to other purposes.

The Vera Cruz Progress, of the 18th, thus formally announces the confiscation of the Spanish bark Maria Concepcion.

"We understand that the Supreme Court, on the last appeal, has confirmed the decisions of the District and Circuit Courts, which declared the Maria Concepcion to be a lawful prize, modifying these decisions only in reference to the disposition of the vessel and cargo, which will be confiscated to the Supreme Government, instead of being divided among the captors, as at first decided. The question is, therefore, entirely disposed of, and already belongs to history."

The decision is said to be in full harmony with the Spanish law, which, indeed, was so clear on the subject that no other judgment could be rendered. Copies of the proceedings were taken by the Spanish representatives at Vera Cruz, and transmitted to Havana by the Veasiza, whence they will be sent to Madrid. In the meantime it is stated that the Spanish Minister has received the most urgent advice from the authorities of Havana to treat the constitutional government with the greatest respect.

Of the progress of the civil war we have but little besides the oft-repeated statement that the Liberal army was marching on the capital. Their combined force was put down at 18,000 men and 50 pieces of artillery; that of Miramon, in the capital, at 7,000 men at the utmost.

Castillo, however, is said to have 5,000 to 6,000 men somewhere between the capital and Guadaluajara, while Woll and Marquez have each their respective commands amounting in all, probably, to about the same number, in or near the latter city. With these forces an engagement was expected before anything would be attempted against the capital. The Liberals were confident of success and one of the passengers by the Potomac expresses the belief that a change of government has already been effected.

SWEARING IN THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.—This ceremony took place at the Government House, Place d'Armes, at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the presence of the Members of the Executive Council in their diplomatic costumes, the Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench, and Superior Court, and a number of other officials. His Excellency Sir W. F. Williams, Administrator, was accompanied from his hotel to the Government House, by his staff and a guard of honor of the 17th Regiment, drawn up in street, paying him the customary compliment as he passed. The oath of office was administered to him by Chief Justice Bowen. As soon as His Excellency was duly installed and the formalities over, a salute fired by the Royal Artillery, from Durham Terrace, proclaimed the fact, and the Administrator returned to his hotel.—Quebec Chronicle, Oct. 13.

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE.—A special meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge of the Loyal Orange Association has been called by the P. G. M., T. H. Buckley, Esq., to be held at Hamilton on the 24th of this month for the purpose of taking into consideration the recent Proscription Course pursued towards the Orangemen of Canada, at which all County and District Masters and Masters of Private Lodges are requested to attend.—Hulton New Era.
