PROSPECTUS

OF THE MONTREAL WITNESS FOR 1861.

Great as was the importance of the newspaper Press when the Witness commenced 15 years ago, every succeeding year has increased its influence, and even yet this power is perhaps only in its infancy. The varied contents of a newspaper, and the facility with which it is got up, and distributed over any extent of country bringing the latest and most desirable information to every home, give it material advantages over books or periodicals, and accordingly newspapers may emphatically be called the literature of Canada. How important then that this literature should be good! The effect of circulating newspapers of a wholesome and elevated kind, will, however, be futile, unless adaptation be kept in view. It will be of no use to appeal to men's principles to support a religious paper, unless it be as well and as cheaply got up as the most secular sheet with which it comes into competition. The fact is, religious and philanthropic men should do whatever they undertake not only as well as others, but better and cheaper; and if they do, they will have no occasion to complain of want of support.

As a commercial paper, the Witness stands we believe, second to none in Canada, while, as a newspaper, it stands also in the first ranks. As an advocate of every moral enterprise, it takes a leading part; and as a literary paper, it will bear comparison with any. When we add to these claims on public support, that in proportion to the amount of reading matter it contains, it is not probably the cheapest paper in Canada, it is not surprising that its subscription list, all paid in advance, should be large.

There will be no change in the general character and plan of the Witness, which will continue to be as heretofore, more entertaining, more instructive, and more connected with party politics; but it will be free to express decided opinions upon any measures that affect the welfare of the country, and will do so fearlessly, whenever they may please or displease.

TERMS: The Montreal Witness is published twice a week, viz. on Wednesday and Saturday, and sent by the early mails of those days, at the uniform price of $2 per annum in advance. The Daily Witness is published every afternoon, and will be despatched by the evening mails at the uniform price of $3 per annum in advance. This edition is peculiarly suitable for business men throughout the country who require to know the daily fluctuations of prices.

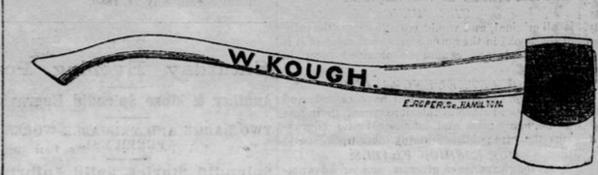

The Weekly Witness, published every Thursday morning, containing 12 pages, will henceforth be at the uniform rate of $1.50 per annum in advance, as the Club system has not worked well.

Subscribers will please specify the edition they wish. All the editions will stop when the time subscribed for expires, unless previously renewed, as this is the only way in which a paper so widely extended can be published at a low rate. Subscribers are, however, notified a fortnight before their subscription expires.

The friends of the Witness are earnestly requested to do what they can to extend its circulation at this time, when a good word, and perhaps a little effort in its behalf, might secure a great accession to its subscription list. All who think such a paper beneficial to the country, will greatly oblige us by endeavoring to get their neighbors to subscribe with them.

All letters, orders and remittances, to be addressed, post-paid, to JOHN DOUGALL, Proprietor "MONTREAL WITNESS," Montreal.

STAR OF THE PRESS.

'GREAT IN MOUTH OF WISEST CENSURE.'

THE NEW YORK MERCURY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

The Largest Literary Weekly in the World

Although the patriarch of the weekly press (being now in its twenty-third year), THE NEW YORK MERCURY teems with the fire and vigor of youth, as well as with the wisdom and dignity of mature years. Presenting as it does, the 'creme de la creme' of literature enriched with the entrancing masterpieces of the greatest thinkers in the world—glittering with the brilliant wit and humor of the sharpest pens of the time—abundantly garnished with the rarest gems of native poetry—overflowing with 'thoughts that breathe and words that burn' from the great writers of its contributory staff, and honored all over the country for its perfect freedom from anything calculated to wound or repulse the most sensitive moralist or class of people—it has been for years the LUXURY, THE TREASURE, THE MONITOR, and the WELCOME GUEST OF HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN HOMES.

The publishers and proprietors of THE NEW YORK MERCURY, have made the motto of its columns: 'Here shall young Genius wing his eagle flight, Rich dew-drops shaking from his plumes of light' and during the present year (1861) its grand, invincible army of writers—whose united salaries exceed the total of those paid to the President and Vice-President of the United States—and its brilliant constellation of literary specialties will be materially extended. Thus, one of the proprietors' new engagements is that of the witty, waggish, quizzical, whimsical, world renowned, and pungent Q. K. PHILANDER DOESTICKS, P. E., who contributes to THE MERCURY a side-splitting series of Burlesque Biographies, Lectures, Sermons, Fashion Articles, Criticisms of Paintings, Plays, Satires, &c., under the original and significant title of 'DIVERSIONS OF DOESTICKS; OR, HARLEQUIN HITS AT THE TIMES.'

In the Editorial Department appear the magnificent illustrations of that prince of American artists F. O. C. DARLEY. Throughout the present year, this magnificent and famous Journal of American Literature will contain glorious Romances, Sketches, Stories, Poems, Gems of Humor, Moral and Domestic Essays, Criticisms, &c., by the most noted American and English writers, who have been engaged at vast expense to write for THE MERCURY. We may name the following regular contributory forces: Q. K. PHILANDER DOESTICKS, P. E., ARTHUR M. GRANGER, JOSEPH BARBER, FELIX O. C. DARLEY, GEORGE ARNOLD, REV. R. M. D. VENS, NED BUNTLINE, WM. ROSS WALLACE, COUSIN MAY CARLETON, DR. J. H. ROBINSON, S. R. URBAN, MRS. M. E. ROBINSON, J. H. PATTEN, REV. R. E. WELCH, W. O. EATON, GEORGE MARTIAL, LITTLE TYNG, R. H. NEWELL.

Other celebrated writers will also contribute—making the Mercury a great focus of all that is entertaining, instructive, witty & wise. Our special New Year's Gift to our readers is a brilliant new novelette, entitled CATHOLINA; OR, THE NICHE IN THE WALL. A TALE OF LOUISIANA. BY DR. J. H. ROBINSON.

The opening Chapters of which appear in THE MERCURY for January 5th, 1861.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY is sold by all Newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning, for $2 a year; three copies for $5; six copies for $9; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy free to the getter-up of the club. Six Months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post-Office, County, and State. We take the notes of all specie-paying banks at par. Payment must invariably be made in advance.

Specimen copies sent free to all applicants. Address all letters and remittances, post-paid to CAULDWELL, SOUTHWORTH & WHITNEY, Proprietors of the New York Mercury, 46 & 48 Ann St., New York City.

CAUTION. I hereby caution tavern-keepers generally, to beware of Robert McBride, who, through his pretended friendship for me, obtained two sets of liquor at my bar on Sunday the 4th of last November, and then informed that I had done so, causing me to be fined Five Pence;—he, of course, pocketing one-half, and which, I believe, was the only incentive to commit the nefarious action. He is now thoroughly ashamed of his deeds, and wishes to palliate his conduct by saying that he refunded me his hire as an informer; which is a total falsehood.
