IS PUBLISHED EVERY

FRIDAY MORNING.

AT THE OFFICE, DURBAM, COUNTY GREY, C. W.

Law Respecting Newspapers. 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to con-2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may send them until all arrears are paid : and subscribers are responsible for all numbers sent.

3. If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have tiled their Bill, and ordered their periodical to be discontinued. Sending numbers back, or leave ing them in the Office, is not such notice as the Law

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and their periodicals ere sent to the former directions, they are held

Rates of Advertising.

Sir lines and under, first insertion .... Each subsequent insertion ..... in to ten lines, first insertion ...... 75 Each subsequent insertion ..... 25 Above ten lines, first insertion (per line) 8 Each subsequent insertion (per line) 2 Cards in the Business Directory, ten lines and under, per annum..... $4.0

Do. for six months ..... $3.00 All advertisements must be accompanied by written instructions, and none will be discontinued without a written order. No advertisement discontinued until paid for at the time of withdrawal, unless by consent of the publisher. All letters and communications addressed to the editor must be Post paid. Money letters, properly mailed and registered ply of

15 No uspaid letters taken from Post Office. S. L. M. LUKE, Proprietor

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

JAPANNED WORK MADE TO ORDER CORONER, LICENSED TO PRACTICE

PHYSIC, SURGERY AND MIDWIFERY, DURHAM. Durbam, Dec. 2, 1858.

J. F. BROWN,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST. Durham.

TEEPS constantly on hand a large assortment | Good Stabling and attentive and civil Hos-A of Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Dye tlers. Stages call daily at the above Hotel. Stuffs, Stationary, &c., &c. Bucham, Dec. 2, 1858.

S. B. CHAFFEY, Travellers' Home Inn, Conveyancer, Commissioner in Court of Queen's Bench THEODORE ZASS,

Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Chaffev's Mills. Glenelg, Jan. 12, 1859. 5

JOHN KENNEDY LAW, CHANCERY

Conveyancing Office; BISHOP'S BUILDINGS, MAIN SRREET, MOUNT FOREST.

Treed ad J. GEDDES.

ount Forest, Nov. 29, 1861.

Attorney at Law, Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyornotagnos evoda ed) cer, &c.520 MOUNT FORES COUNTIES OF WELLINGTON AND GREY.

BONDHUD'S HOTEL.

GARAFRAXA ROAD,

Four miles North of Durham.

Mount Forest, July 21, 1859

THIS HOUSE BEING ENTIRELY NEW offers superior accommodation to the travelling public. Good stabling and attentive hostiers. Bar and Larder well supplied. The subscriber being free of rents in those war times, and the raiser of his own produce, can accommodate MORRISON&SAMPSON the public on reasonable terms.

D. DONOHUE. October 1st, 1862. 198:tf.

BUTCHERS' ARMS INN Office, -- Western Assurance Buildings.

(LATE FAIR FOREST INN.) First have a seed the nomination.

THOMAS WORROD.

Toronto and Sydenham Road; 26 miles from Owen Sound; 16 do. from John Town, arafraxa Road; 6 do. from Flesher's Corners. Bar and arder weil suppled. Good stabling and atten-

ORCHARDVILLE HOTEL,

East Glenelg, May 9, 1861.

nilise Jeens only le BY THOMAS BARLOW.

TTALF WAY BETWEEN DURHAM AND Mount Forest. Bar and Larder well suplied. Good stabling, and attentive hostlers. Orchardville, 22nd May 1861. 128,-17

FASHIONABLE TAILORING TABLISHMENT PRICEVILLE:

THE SUBSCRIBER BEGS TO ANNOUNCE and Lodge Seals made to order at twelve hours to the inhabitants of Priceville and surabove business in Priceville, and hopes by strict fectionery Shop, Poulett St., Owen Sound.

S. L. M. LIKE, Publisher.

Kingston; of the University of New York.

VOL. 4.- NO. 43.]

vincial Licentiate, Durham

to all calls appertaining to the Profession

ORCHARD'S

New'l'in-ware Establishment.

The inhabitants of Durham and vicinity are hereby informed that the above establishment is pened in the premises three doors north of the British Hotel, where he will keep a constant sup-

Tin, Copper, Iron, and

JAPANNED WARES,

COTTON RAGS, OLD COPPER, & SKINS

taken in exchange for goods.

ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL

MAIN STREET, MOUNT FOREST,

L'ARMERS, CITIZENS, AND TRAVELLERS,

forts of a home during their visits; and those requiring cutertainment will have the best the Township of Arthur.

26 miles from Durham, 10 from Mount Forest, and 17 miles from Fergus.

Byerv attention paid to the comfort of the Good Stabling and an attentive hostler.

The subscriper is Agent for the

Corn Exchage fire and Inland

JOHN MILLER

PRICEVILLE.

B. McMillan.

BARRISTERS,

THE Bar is supplied with the best Wines and

ATTORNEYS, SOLICITORS, &c

CHURCH STREET,

E. A GOODEVE,

General Dealer in

IDER W GOODEDS

Mardware, Groceries, &c.

Executed in the most approved form.

HANOVER, 25th March, 1862. di mort bas

IMPORTANT.

DR. WISTAR'S PULMONIC SYRUP, is highly recom-

PRACTICAL WATCH AND CLOCK MAKER Goldsmith, Silversmith, and Engraver. Clu

First door North of J. T. Butchart's Con-

road hetweet the concessions is and Sc

TO THE COMPTED .

Durham, 30th August, 1859.

Priceville, January 20, 1860.

Navigation Insurance Co.

Arthur, Dec. 16 1858.

THOMAS WILSON.

will find at the above Hotel, all the com-

RY THOMAS WILSON.

140-ly

which will be sold cheap for cash.

Durham, 15th August, 1861.

Mount Forest Jan. 18th, 1861.

country affords.

of Mr. D. Fletcher.

of July and January

Druham, May 23, 1861

DURHAM, C. W., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1862,

PRICE, $1 50, IN ADVANCE.

POETRY.

"MY WIFE AND CHILD."

Aylett's Medical and Surgical Institute, New York; New York Ophthalmic Hospital; and Pro-[A correspondent, "Southron," send (Leader) the following, with a request for publication in our columns. It is from the Coroner for the County of Grey. pen of the famous "Stonewall" Jackson, SURGERY AND RESIDENCE, - Adjoining the store written while he was with the United States army in Mexito, of which army he was then N. B. . C. begs to return thanks for the as he is now of the Confederate, a brave and confidence and patronage received during his efficient officer. Our correspondent thinks residence in Durham, and will continue to attend Gen. Jackson must be accorded the merit of a true poet. The pathos of poetry and true Accounts rendered semi-annually, in the mouths affection were never more justly delineated ]

The tattoo beats-the lights are gone; The camp around in slumber lies; The night with solemn pace moves on, The shadows thicken o'er the skies; But sleep my weary eyes hath flown

And sad, uneasy thoughts arise. I think of thee, oh, dearest one, Whose love my early life hath blest-Of thee and him-our baby son-Who slumbers on thy gentle breast; God of the tender, frail and lone, Oh, guard the gentle sleeper's rest.

And hover, gently hover near To her, whose watchful eye is wet-To mother, wife-the doubly dear, In whose young heart have freshly met Two streams of love so deep and clear-

And cheer her dropping spirits yet. Now, while she kneels before Thy throne, Oh, teach her, Ruler of the skies, That while by Thy behest alone Earth's mightiest powers fall or rise,

No tear is wept to Thee unknown, No hair is lost, no sparrow dies ! That thou can'st stop the ruthless hands

Of dark disease, and soothe its pain ; That only by Thy stern commands The battle's lost, the soldier's slain-That from the distant sea or land Thou bring'st the wanderer home again.

Her tear-wet cheek is sadly pressed, May happier visions beam upon The brightening current of her breast-No frowning look nor angry tone, Disturb the Sabbath of her rest.

And when upon her pillow lone

Whatever fate those forms may show, Loved with a passion almost wild-By day- by night- in jov or woe-By fears oppressed, or hopes beguiled, From every danger, every foe,

Oh, God! protect my wife and child! THOMAS JEFFERRON JACKSON.

Miscellaneous Reading

THE PERSON NAMED IN COLUMN TWO IS NOT THE OWNER.

F rmer Marriages of Princes of Wales.

ried the lady Anne, the prince's widow. Henry VII., who was married November 14, liston quotes a case of a young lady who slept 1501, at the age of fifteen, to Catharine of for weeks and recovered. The venerable St. Arragon. Arthur died in April, 1502, and Augustine of Hippo, prudently divided his Shakespeare. Nearly two centuries and a half elapsed moon, more especially when the deteriorating ray of its polarized light are permitted to In 1736, Frederick, son of George II., was fall into their apartment, hence the name of weded to the Princess Augusta of Saxe lunatics. There certainly is greater prone-the fourth king of that name, with Caroline of miasma. Intense cold produces sleep, and Washington. Brunswick, in 1650, was the last of the series. those who perish in the snow, sleep on till the The result of this unhappy union is well sleep of death.

It is noticeable that of these five princes only one came to the throne, three died childless, and the posterity of the Black Prince became extinct in the first generation.

san Advertiser of the 13th Sept. announces gunboats Cuyler and Santiago de Cuba, and tion of this monster tree is covered with sand, disabled the latter so badly that she had to be and has, therefore, never been measured in Hon. Jos. Cauchon, Ex-Commissioner of Pub-

A line to fill out the volumnit were at

Extraordinary Case of Suspended A Ram for the Confederate Gov-Animation.

THE DURHAM STANDARD, MAND COUNTY

trade it is-What with loss o' time and what this transaction. wi' yae thing and what wi' anither. A muckle

Curiosities of Sleep.

In Turkey, if a man falls asleep in the AN EXTRAORDINARY THEORY .- A foreign blows towards him, he becomes narcotized, of death, publishes the following curious denot brigh him to the next well or stream and appearance, it give rise to great controversy SURPLUS, OVER $28,000. the course of her bistory has England wit- simple and efficacions treatment. Dr. Graves, means, and that the rupture of the vertrebra, benefit of his dying, for he subsequently mar- er is recorded to have slept once four days .-Dr. Machish mentions a woman who spent The third marriage was that of Arthur, son threefourths of her life in sleep, and Dr. Elparticularly in the eastern hemisphere, to be- jokes : come furiously vigilant during the full of the One of our devils-a precocious little vil-The marriage of Prince George, afterwards go on through without stopping escape the

A GIGANTIC PETRIFIED TREE. - Gne of the Canada. most astonishing trees of which the annals of the world furnish any account, is found lying Cotton, Esq., Gentleman, account of balance A NAVAL FIGHT NOT REOPETED.—The Nas. the Sierra Nevada Mountains, in California. B. Foote, Esquire, A. M. It is a petrified cedar tree, having a diameter the receipt of information by the schooner of forty feet at the butt, or a circumference of the Present Day, by Geo. Sheppard.

WHOLE NUMBER, 199

ernment.

A remarkable case of this nature occurred A correspondent of the Liverpool Post says:

investigation, one of the constables told him prudential reasons; but the fact is without with second-rate men placed in positions of that he thought there was warmth in the body. question, and the ram, from the high charactresponsibility, and he would treat the letter The coroner immediately placed his ear on ter of her builder, will be a most formidable written by Mr Lincoln with all due Christian the region of the heart, and observed symp- opponent when equipped for sea; and should charity [laughter]; but when he had spread toms of a very feeble action. He at once call- the blockade of the Southern coast not ter- over it all the Christian charity of which he ed for brandy, warm water and towels, and minate before her arrival before Charlestown, was master, he must say that, when he saw the usual means adopted to restore animation: she will attempt to pass the Union cruisers the cynical way in which Mr Lincoln pro-In an hour or so Dr. Kirwan shook, the old with every chance of impunity. In addition posed to preserve slavery, the greatest curse old woman, and called her in a loud tone of to this ram, and other contracts held by our of the human race, or emancipate the slaves, voice to sit up, when she opened her eyes shipbuilders-which, by the way, are highly which meant massacreing the whites-when and looked around, to the great alarm of many flattering to their reputation, and which have he saw a third-rate lawyer from the backwho were present, and could with difficulty hitherto been financially discharged in each ground of Illinois hoisted up to the chief be prevented running away. The woman is instance (when completed) with scrupulous magistracy of a powerful nation, making punctuality-a vessel, now in the Brunswick such a proclamation, he must say, in the name Dock, the name of which we do not wish to of everything that was great and free, and in give for obvious reasons, has a cargo consist- the name of Heaven and the Christian faith Scotch Economy; or the Profits ing principally of iron plates on board, ready itself, was it right, was it to be desired that to fasten on the sides of Southern vessels such a nation and such a man should proswaiting their arrival out at Charleston. The per?" [Loud cheers.] A merry bookseller gives a rather cold ac- owners of this vessel are imbued with Southcount of the retail trade in his line :- "Indeed ern sentiments; but whether or not, we are Countesy.-Politeness is the road to fortune it's out a poor trade the selling o' stationery; too neutral in the gigantic conflict raging No matter what position you are in-master I'll just give you a sample o' what sort o' across the Atlantic to allude too pointedly to or apprentice, mechanic or shopkeeper, ser-stupid grumph comes into the shap and says, ous conduct of the Southern Confederacy, that thing that poverty can sometimes restrain-Gie's a bawbee's worth o' paper. 'Is it poet the South, at no distant period, will possess and it adds an attraction to affluence which paper ye want?' 'Oh, yes.' Biess me, man, an iron-clad fleet capable of coping as suc- wealth can never buy. What a marked difdo ye want it short or long?' 'Ah, no.' Well cessfully with that of the North as its armies ference there is in shopkeepers in these simyou would think that one was done with the have triumphantly met those of the Federal ple points. There are some tradespeople who fellow after. all that trouble, and more than Government, if but the same dashing spirits are eminently civil and obliging, who are five minutes lost; but na-he's at ye yet .- that lead the armies of the South can be found courteous to every one who enters the shop, 'Men that pen,' he says, handin' out an ould to command it. Of one thing, however, we and who thus become universal favorites.stump to ye that the deevil himsel' could think we can speak with certainty, and that There are others who are distinguished by hardly men'; and when ye've dune that, he is, that in the vessels built in the Mersey the their ill-manners, they and their shop people follows it wi', put a wee drap ink i' that bot- South will have an advantage over the are invariably rude; they give themselves no tle.' Ye put ink into the blockh ad's bottle, Unionists in strength of build, equipment and trouble to be obliging, they serve out their a' for naething, an' sind he pokes out his invulnerability. For the rest, their own goods as though conferring a favor, they regreat big horney han,' and says, ' ll thank ye courage will do, and we may yet hear of the sent any depreciation of the articles as a perfor a wafer.' Now only think o' that fasherie, gallant performance of more than one No. 290 soual offence, and seem to regard the custoand sic a loss o' time, forbye the wafer and before the announcement of peace gladdens mer as an intruder. They mistake native the ink for naething, at about selling a baw- the heart of all Europe. At all events, a few rudeness for mercantile dignity, repel a polite such rams as the one now building on the request with snobbish incivility. Universal Mersey would make the raising of the South- politeness is a primary in all eminent merorn blockade an easy task.

eighborhood of a poppy field, and the wind journal, in an article against the punishment opened, the face flushed an indescribable ex- smallest piece of food therein. pression of anger and ferocity, and a shudder was visible on the neck being touched."

Catharine became the wife of his brother time into three parts-eight to be devoted to tle sheet, formerly published in Toronto, has lain,-thinks we wrote ironically when our last issue, we advertised "A prime lot of pure English," for sale by the Mercury.—

The little fellow says—and we give him Gotha. Like those before mentioned, he ness to disease during sleep than in the wak- credit for the conceit—that the Ministerial died in the life-time of his father, but, uning state, for those who pass the night in the Organ is not supposed to understand English; his hand, "it was just dis: I jined de church of "Webster," and some of them have for- stated gospel de fust year, and the church

NEW BOOKS BY OLD AUTHORS. Canada in Transition, by Hon. T. J. J. Loranger, M. P. P., for the county of Laprairie,

On the Philosophy of Fishing, by James Simple Sums in the Rule of Three, by S. Is Black, White: A Political Romance of Ventresa, from Key West, that the Confeder- one hundred and thirty feet to the point, where | How to Sleep Well, by Hon. F. Lemieux. ate steamer Oreto had attacked the Federal its diameter is four feet. The remaining por- Q. C., M. L. C. massign of belosio need and

Mr. Beresford Hope on America

A vacancy has occured in the representation in the Imperial Parliament of Stokeupon-Trent, by the sudden death of Mr. Louis Ricardo, nephew of the famous political economist. Mr. Beresford Hope is now canvassing the Staffordshire borough on Conservative principles, and from a recent speech delivered to the electors we take the following: "He (Mr Hope) had spoken in favor of the Southern Confederacy, and would do so again. (Applause.) He was not blind to that slavery which existed in the Confederate States. He had, privately, to Southerners and in his published speeches, denounced in the strongest terms that horrible system; but he maintained that for that system England in the first place, and in the second place the Northern States-New York above all-New York that morigaged the South-New York that sent its slavers to Cuba-were responsible. (Cheers.) He had said that owing to the necessities of the constitution, which gave votes according to numbers-five slaves counting for three white men-which returned men to the House of Represetatives, the treacherous action of New York was begun, some days ago in Dublin, the sufferer being It would seem, judging from the contract Then that system was doomed. It was not a woman of about seventy years of age. A now in the hands of the shipbuilders and iron doomed by sudden emancipation, by the vioreport was brought to the Green street police plate manufacturers of this country, that the station that a woman, who had been caretaker Confederate Government is exhibiting as Thurlow Weed, Greeley, or Philips, urging of a house in Nelson street, was found dead much energy and resolution in the creation of the black man to take vengeance upon his Dt. Kirwan, the city coroner, requesting him series of battles which have thrown the Army wal emancipation, leading from slavery to to hold an inquiry arto the circumstances of of the Potomac, defeated and broken, behind serfdom, and from serfdom to liberty. (Hear, her death. She had not been seen by any person since Wednesday evening last. The Beside the commissions to other shipbuilders man like Lincoln making a preposterous pro-Coroner arrived at the house about three by the Southern Confederacy and which are being pushed forward with all possible distance of the man to take advantage of the man being pushed forward with all possible distance of the misfortunes of the Southern States, and woman's age, that she had died from natural patch, a large iron-plated ram is now being leave home to settle on the Isthmus of Panacauses. He was accompanied by Sergeant constructed on the Mersey, without much atand when on the point of proceeding with the We withhold the name of the builder for from crossing the frontier. He sympathized passed a law prohibiting every black man vant or employer, rich or poor-be civil, be It seems very clear, from the present vigor- courteous; it gives grace to poverty-the only cantile houses; the industrial classes, and wherever it is seen is a letter of recommen-

FUTURE HOUSEKEEPES .-- We sometimes catch ourselves wondering how many of the and would die, if country people, who are tails :- "When at the end of the last century voung ladies whom we meet with are to perwell acquainted with the circumstances, did the terrible machine Dr. Guillotin made its form the part of housekeepers, when the young In connection with the marriage of Prince empty pitcher after pitcher of water on his among the faculty throughout Europe. The persuaded them to become their wives. We Albert Edward it has been noticed by the cu- face and body. Dr. Appenheim, during his inventer pretended and believed that death by listen to those young ladies of whom we rious in such matters, that only five times in residence in Turkey, owed his life to this this instrument was easier than by any other speak, and hear them not only acknowledge, They are prepared to take risks on reasonable nessed the marriage of a Prince of Wales.— from whom this anecdote, also reports the the nerves, and all the organs of the head, hold duties, as if nothing would so lower them The first instance is that of Edward the black case of a gentleman thirty years of age, who, killed the whole body at once and instantane- in the estimation of their friends, as the con-Prince, son of Edward III., who in 1361 mar- from long continued sleepiness, was reduced ously. Several experiments were made at fession of any ability to bake bread and pies, ried Joan of Kent, grand-daughter of Edward to a complete living skeleton, unable to stand Vienna. Some prisoners were executed, and or cook a piece of meat, or disposition to en-I. This lady had already two busbands, from on his legs, It was probably owing to a dis- several medical men who had already dis- gage in any useful employment. Speaking the first of whom she was divorced, and the ease, but chiefly to the abuse of opium, until puted the correctness of the statement of Dr. from our own youthful recollections, we are second she survived. Prince Edward died in at last unable to pursue his business he sank Guillotin, obtained permission to remain on free to say that taper fingers and lilly hands, the life-time of his father, in 1476. leaving into abject poverty and woe. Dr. Reid men- the scaffold during the execution, and when are pretty to look at with a young man's ever, one son, who afterwards became king, as tions a friend of his who, whenever anything a head was cut off it was delivered to them. — and sometimes we have known the artless inoccurred to distress him, soon became drowsy The first was that of a young man. The eyes nocence of practical knowledge displayed by The next Prince of Wales who was mar- and fell asleep. A student at Edinburgh, were closed and the tongue protruded. Eight a young Miss to appear rather interesting than ried was Edward the son of Henry VI. The upon hearing suddenly of the unexpected minutes were allowed to expire, when the otherwise. But we have lived long enough ceremony took place at Amboise, in France, death of a near relative, threw himself on his tongue was pricked with a pin, when it was to learn that life is full of rugged experience. in 1470, and the bride was the Lady Anne bed and almost instantaneously amid the glare drawn in, and the face made a grimace, indi-Neville daughter of the Earl of Warwick, of noon-day, sunk into a profound slum- cative of pain. The second was that of a wo- cate people, must live on cooked or otherwise the Kingmaker, Bulwer's Last of the Barons. ber. Another person, reading to one of man. The eyes were open, and their suppli-This unfortunate prince was killed at the bat- his dearest friends stretched on his deathbed, cating looks were accompanied by many tidy by industrious hands. And all for the tle of Tewkesbury, a few months later, ac- tell fast asleep, and with the book still in his tears. Fourteen minutes after the execution practical purposes of married life, it is gencording to the popular account, by the Duke hand, went on reading, utterly unconscious of the eyes turned towards the side from whence erally found that for a husband to sit and er the duke had or had not a hand in the A woman at Hamadt slept seventeen or was that of the most guilty of the criminals. or for a wife to sit and be looked at, and ad-Prince's death, he had to some extent the eighteen hours a day for fifteen years. Anoth- A slap was given to the face, when the eyes mired, does not make the pot boil, or put the

WHY HE LEFT .- Mr. Dickson, a colored barber in a large New England town, was shaving one of his customers, a respectable THE "PORER," AGAIN. - This humorous lit- citizen, one morning, when a conversation Henry, in 1509, after the latter had ascended sleep, eight to meditation, and eight to con- been revived in Quebec. It comes to us son's former connection with the colored the throne. The Queen's subsequent career verse with the world. Maniacs are reported brimful of fun. We give some of its liveliest church in that place. "I believe you are connected with the church in Elm Street, are you not, Mr. Jackson?" said the customer -"No, sah, not at all." "What, are you not a member of the African church ?" "Not dis year, sah." "Why did you leave your communion, Mr. Dickson, if I may be permitted gotten their Lindley Murray by looking to people called me Brudder Dickson-de second year my business was not so good, and I guv only five dollars. Dat year de people call me M. Dickson. Dis razor hunt you, sah ?" "No, the razor goes tolerably well." Well, sah, de third year I was very poorhad sickness in my family—and didn't gov nothin' for preaching. Well, sah, arter dat. dey called me dut old nigger Dickson-and I

A movement has been inaugurated in England that is certain to attract attention-the formation of a society to enable women of good character to emigrate to the British colonies. In some of these colonies the disproattention to business to merit a share of public patronage.

All the latest American and Foreign styles made as desired.

Priceville, 2nd Dec. 1861.

135-1v.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate Owennound, lan. 28, 1851.

| All the latest American and Foreign styles wise, puctually attended to. Charges moderate of things, several philanthropic persons have resolved, by purse and personal exertions, to afford young women willing to emigrate the means of doing so. grate the means of doing so