> Dreadful Indian Massacre. HELENA, Montana, Jan. 28 .- On the 18th inst. an expedition against certain tribes of Indians who have been stealing stock and murdering whites for the past several months left Fort Shaw under the command of Col. Baker. The expedition consisted of four companies of the 2nd cavalry and one company of the 13th infantry. An Indian who arrived at Fort Benton to-day reports that early on the morning of the 23rd inst. Col Barker surprised Bear Chief's camp of over 30 lodges and killed men, women and children-no quarter was given .-The sarprise was complete. Only six or eight men escaped. Bear Chief was among the slain. Col. Baker's loss was trifling. Other tribes of the Blackfeet. upon hearing of the affair, at once made all haste to reach the British possessions. but it was understood the expedition had rovernment permission to cross the ed by next meeting of council, to define boundary line in pursuit. Bear Chief is known to have murdered several whites. This news is confirmed by other arrivals at Fort Benton
