Scorched Linen.—Peel and slice two laces scowled up over the washing tub, instance where I was tempted to use a We know these little incidents never found a better one in my own language. Be simple, unaffected; be honest in your speaking and writing. Never use instrument of manual industry; let a home be a home, not a residence; a place a place, not a locality; and so with the rest. Where a short word will do, you lose by using a long one. You lose in clearness; you lose in honest expression of meaning, and in the estimation of all men who are competent to judge, you lose in reputation for ability. The only true way to shine, even in this false world, is to be modest and unassuming. Falsehood may be a very thick crust, but in the course of time, will find a place to break through. Elegance of language may not be in the power of all of us, but simplicity and straight-forwardness are.

A correspondent of the Milwaukes Sentinel writes as follows :- San Francisco is essentially a Celtic city; but we did not know the extent of our Irish population until Sunday, when about thirty thousand people turned out to give a Fenian welcome to John Savage, chief of the Bombast Brotherhood. By a misapplication of terms we call an excursion of several thousands a pic-nic, and so one-fourth of our residents "picniced" at San Mateo Park, fifteen miles away, and listened with greedy cars to the inflammatory appeals of needy demagogues; urging the servant girl to contribute one dollar per week to aid in overthrowing the British Empire. Our Board of Supervisors, cunning gentlemen, with political aspirations, attended the gathering in state, but they took care to have all the police that could be spared from town duty within hailing distance.
