MOMMETE.

DURHAM, COUNTY OF GREY, ONTARIO, JUNE 23RD, 1870.

WHOLE NO. 177.7

White & Johnson, Publishers & Proprietors.]

James Brown, I SSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Durham, Ont. J. F. Halsted, M. D., DHYSICIAN, SURGEON, &c., HAN-

Medical Advice Gratis. W. PRITCHARD, A. M. M. D., formerly Surgeon C. S. Army .e one door South of Jas. Brown's

All orders left at Findlay & Shaw's Drug Store promptly attended to. P. S .- Pure Vaccine Matter on hand, to bring along your children and have them vaccinated.

R. T. Porter, M. D., Office-In Griffia's Building, Durham, Licens Grey. All calls, day or night, promptly attended to.

William Barrett DARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, D Solicitor in Chancery, &c., &c .-

THOMAS DIXON, DARRISTER, ATTORNY - AT - LAW, OFFICE :- Next door to the Telegraph

Samuel E. Legate, AND AGENT, VALUER, &c., &c.

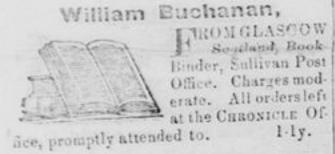

years, on easy terms of interest. Farms Durham, 10th June, 1868. 71-1y.

John Moodie,

Cteneral Agent, Conveyancer, Licensed Auctioneer for the County of Grey. Lands, &c., Valued, Books and Accounts made up and collected. [$50,000 to lend on good Farm and Town Property at S per cent. OFFICE:-11 Garaftaxa St., Durham.

C. McDougall,

HOUSE, SIGN AND ORNAMENTAL Painter, Durham, Out. Painting, Glazing, and Paper Hanging, done in the most approved style of the art.

Durham Waggon & Carriage Shop.

STOREY IS NOW PREPARED to furnish Carriages, Cutters, Waggons and Sleighs, manufactured from the best material, at the cheapest possible rates. All work warranted. Shop, opposite Mr. Carson's store, Lower Town, Durham.

Kerr, Brown & McKenzie, IMPORTERS OF DRY GOODS AND Groceries, and General Wholesale Merchants, Hamilton, Ont.

HUCH ROSE, eneral Blacksmith, opposite Wiley's Boot and Shoe Store, Lower Town, Durham .-Good workmanship, punctuality and moderate charges are the rules at this Smithy.

OPPOSITE ORANGE HALL DURHAM, EN OF THE BIG CHAIR. THERE FURNITURE OF EVERY description can be had as cheap, and as good as at any other establishment in the County. All work warranted. Wareroom, One Door North of the sign of the big chair.

done in good style.

HOTEL CARDS. HALF-WAY HOUSE,

ORCHARDVILLE, JAMES BELL, PROPRIETOR. Having leased the above premises, lately occupied by Mr. J. Hart, I am prepared to offer first-class accommodation to travellers and the public generally. Good Wines, Liquors and Ci-gars always on hand. Superior Stabling and an attentive Hostler. Stages call daily.

CORNISH'S HOTEL, RCHARDVILLE. This House has restore, Lower Town, Durham. The doctor Cently been refitted and furnished in ice. FREE OF CHARGE, first class style, with a view to the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public. Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the choicest bands always on hand. Good Stabling and an attentive hostler. Stages call daily .-Charges moderate.

Argyle Hotel, TUGH MACKAY, PROPRIETOR, UATE of Victoria College, Toronto. Lienged Andre The subscriber in DURHAM HOTEL, Durham, e) The subscriber thankful for past favors wishes to inform his old friends and the Othce-Over Dalglish's store, Upper Town, public generally, that he has again commenced business in the above Hotel and hopes by strict attention to the comfort of his guests to merit a fair share of public F A good Livery in connection.

SIMPLE AND ELEGANT!

DURABLE and ECONOMICAL!

THE LOCKMAN

Sewing Machine MANUFACTURED BY

WILSON, BOWMAN & CO., HAMILTON ONT-

Is the most complete Sewing Machine made.

$32 00.

IT IS UNDENIABLE,

THAT the Lockman Machine is not public.

TT IS UNDENIABLE, THAT the Lockman Machine, altho not much exceeding in price the very cheapest machine manufactured anywhere, is yet INCOMPARABLY superior to any cheap machine yet brought out.

IS UNDENIABLE,

THAT the Lockman Machine has achieved an IMMENSE POPUbeen before the people.

IT IS UNDENIABLE,

occupies a position only accorded to others after years of toilsome strike the fancy.

It surpasses all others yet attempted in the most essential particulars. It is simpler, the centre! and consequently much more easily managed; it is more durable, and consequently will last much longer; it is more elegantly finished, and consequently makes a more agreeable appearance; it runs easier, and consequently does not fatigue the operator; it does more work and of a better quality in an equal space of time, and is consequently more economical; it does better work, and a greater variety of it, and consequently possesses a greater adaptability; it is a greater wife-saver, labor-saver, moneytime-saver, board-saver, and consenot select a machine until they have ex- that he could fight a gnat ! amined the LOCKMAN, if they would save a large amount of future annoyance and

Call and Inspect. Agent for Durham and vicinity, F. H. Edwards. Durham, March 16th, 1870.

DENTISTRY;

JAS. BELL, SURGEON-DENTIST.— man, though his upon good looks. Illiott's Hotel, Upper Village, Durham.

A CHOICE LOT OF FRESH MEA ALWAYS ON HAND,

A Farmer's Life's the Life for Me.

A farmer's life's the life for me; I own I love it dearly ;

I take its labors cheerily. Or in the barn to thresh, sir ! All's one to me, I plainly see,

Much like the hunted otter; And 'tween his own and other's strife, He's always in hot water. For foe or friend, a cause defend,

In reason's spite, maintain its right, And dearly earn his fee, sir. The doctor's styled a gentleman,

To every call he's coming. Now here, now there, must be repair, Or starve, sir, by denying; Like Death, himself, unhappy elf. He lives by others dying.

OUR PASSENCER.

on the Rue-Rivoli, Paris.

front veranda, when a tall, elegantly weather on the part of the man-and do youdressed gentleman asked permission to the two were soon conversing with ani erfect.

est of the fair-was murdered in her tinguished grandfather of the Countess.

Little did he imagine the terrible use that would be made of it. This is bad news. How any man

Ab, Monsieur, if you had ever seen upon us. We were midway in the more. She was beautiful-beautiful as an angel, he added, stroking his whiskers threw her over still further. His manner, now, was decidedly conceited, and I felt disgusted with him .-

My coldness evidently repelled him, for under the counter.

wildly hither and thither. occurrence he had not mentioned was of mark from the ring he wore-the impression of chariot wheel with a star in

This, said my latest informant may lead to the discovery of the murderer. Jean Mosqueau is already visiting the jewelers' shops, to find out from which and by whom a ring with the Parblue, Monsieur, have you not heard of Mosqueau, our famous detecuently appeals more completely to the tive? Although his courage is well known, you would not, to see his fair der of the countess.

miringly upon the pretty lady passen- in the wild waves, her heated and half Herald. gers, while stroking his whiskers with submerged hissing, as the steam came one white hand, upon the middle finger gushing out like the spout from a whale. of which was a superb diamong ring.

advance and hold out my hand to a man the lady requested me to help and haul whom I had involuntarily distiked from the man aboard. chance to look at his ring! Somehow, and devotion thus shown by a woman (sun.) the idea had possessed me that I would toward an acquaintance of an hour. discover a 'chariot device' upon this glittering bauble! The stranger did not at first recognise but not without reason. me. He soon did, however, and frankly extended his left hand, which was across my mind, in spite of my danger. not the one containing the ring!

haviour was conviction of my suspicions The other hand, if you please ! I said in a low, stern voice.

Monsieur will excuse, if he pleases. senger among the rest. My other arm is lame with rheumatism. half hidden ring. I saw him start and head of him whom she had rescued. turn pale, while at the same time look- Out with that red cigar case ! ing much surprised.

He, however, opened his right hand monsieur carries in it. as if perfectly willing for me to shake it, if I chose. Then I had a good look is whatat the ring, and felt ashamed of my sus picions. The device was a common heart, which certainly bore no resemblance to a chariot wheel. After a little commonplace conversation, to recover my self-possession ! she picked up, and holding it up before turned away, resolving in future to have us all, exclaimed a better opinion of my fellow creatures. The stranger's beauty seemed to attract the attention of many of the ladies. thing, attired in black, kept directing derer of the Countess de Marville! furitive glances at the handsome passenger. Finally she glided so close to him frozen to the deck, making no resist-I was stopping at the Hotel Windsor that in turning he brushed against her. ance as the lady in black slipped a pair An apology, smilingly received by of handcuffs over his wrists. One morning I sat smoking on the the little lady-a remark about the mation. Meanwhile the blushing cheek I saw at a glance that he was a French- and bright eyes of the fair one seemed man, although his English was nearly to betoken that she was well pleased ish features. with her companion, whose air was now Have you heard the news? he inquir- more conceited than ever. I am afraid we will have a storm, she remarked, pointing toward a dark cloud, Is it possible ! Why, all Paris is alive upon which the captain of the boat was auxiously gazing. Wa may but do not feel alarmed,

With an air of nonchalance he pulled beyond doubt. bed last night, her bureau broken open, a red cigar-case from his pocket, and asked his companion if she objected to it. Ah! it was terrible ! There were smoke, and being answered negatively, > pulled forth another, of a blue color. How many eigars do you smoke in a day? inquired the lady, evidently amused at the sight of two cases. The other colored, and it struck hie that his voice faltered slightly and his hand trembled, as he made some laugh-

Soon the storm came pouncing down channel, so that we got the full force of to the Colonel of a regiment that was the sea and the gale. Both were terrific. about to charge upon a battery. 'Yes, The sea swept the boat which lay so far sir,' was the reply, as the Colonel led over that her machinery soon was on his men; 'and if you were all as damaged, so that it could not work

The wind, screaming like a demon, Suddenly we observed the sailors endeavoring to loosen a long boat on the davits astern. Meanwhile there was an omnious grinding, smashing noise

The truth could not long be conceal-

The ladies screamed—the handsome passenger lost self-possession, and ran

Meanwhile, the cool behaviour of the little lady in black, contrasted strangely with the agitated demeanor of those around her. There she stood calm and sides, there is a schooner coming to our sure, Patrick, we must, and here it goes: lost both oars, and came near being those addressed. The moment the boat one: 'Here is to the glorious old Sixty- Ira, now's de time.' was lowered into it they all bundled, ninth, aqual to none." ed a great popularity. Purchasers should girlish face and delicate form, believe among them the handsome passenger .-

He moved languidly hither and thither man. The steamer was in fact going new-wed pair as to break in some of the I'se a preacher myself-I is.'

I was advancing to throw an arm round the little lady, fearing to see her

Now, a strange impulse moved me to He caught it, when turning to me, ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

the first, in order that I might have a I compiled, marvelling at the love tographed? Because there is no son be great, I thought. He is conceited question whether a negro can have a 'white swelling.' The man who was hemmed in by a

The schooner, however, was now quite in his side ever since. My brain fairly reeled; the man's be near, and I had every reason to believe we would be picked up. I was right. We were all taken having met a dector of medicine? Met- one day want to pass.

> see a poor but virtuous young man lately from the gallery. she struggling with a weak moustache.

said, sternly. I would like to see what The gentleman so often spoken of in novels who rivetted people with his gaze Why-why, stammered the stranger, has obtained employment in a boiler Britain. manufactory.

Before he could say another word, the red cigar case, and opening it, a woman. 'You just try one and see,' she here.' It was a success. No one stood laying, is sure to be greatly diminished ring dropped to the deck. This ring retorted.

I have found it at last. The jeweller assured me it was the only one of be used to moisten one's clay. this kind of device in all Paris-a ly found a thrush's nest under a rail, The handsome passenger stood as if with the hen peacefully sitting on four eggs, undisturbed by the thunder of passing trains.

By what right, he then stammered, He paused as the other threw off her crafty demon, that gradually involves I am Jean Mosqueau, the detective ! he quietly remarked; and I robbed the

There is little to be added. The main proof having been obtain- selves on notions, which every thing other proofs at the prisoner's trial conspires broaght forth, showing alm gunt, existence.

Long berow his execution, his name was ascertained to to Louis Rosseneau, over his leprous brow a mask of silver, a noted adventurer and gambler, who, such are many men. They may pass in however, by cool effrontery, and a win- the crowd as bright and beautiful, but meal, a bushel of carrots is said to

Did you present your account to the Bad company is like a nail driven Who is wise? He that is teachable defendant,' inquired a lawyer of his into a post, which after the first or Who is mighty? He that conquers client. 'I did sir.' 'And what did he second blow, being drawn out with little himself. Who is rich? He that is 'And what did you do then?' 'Why, head, the pincers can not take hold to honoreth others.

will be discovered.

A dissenting minister in the Presby friends, poor picking they would hae at it after a'.' for half price.' 'Can't, Mr. Jones,' said firm to your convictions. The attitude the man of razors. 'I ought really to is everything.

As a well-known American divine A VENERABLE BRIDE AND BRIDE- was walking to a church in Which he A week later I was aboard the steam- thunder, parted the tackles, tearing the GROOM.—On Monday last, a venerable was to preach, he got into conversation er bound from Calais to Dover. Among boat from the steamer before either the the passengers I beheld one whose face lady in black or I could enter in. The Hamilton, who is of the ripe age of him that he had rejoiced in a Christian recognizing this person as the same I fell over the gunwale, and unable to better or for worse, with a well-matured this church? he asked. It was the only who had first informed me of the mur. I must acknowledge that I was so great rejoicing on the occasion and much neber go to church.' You never go to engrossed with the perilous situation of potent liquor celebrated the 'hame-com-church !' exclaimed the astonished min'.' It is to be regretted that some minister, 'and yet you have been a Chrisman, though his conceited air was a blot only two left aboard the steamer—that of the crowd outside so far forgot the tian these fifty years? 'No sah; I neber I paid little attention to the drowning respect due on so many grounds to the go to hear them young ministers prac-tize.

> The triumphs of the Gospel are un and flourish, or can sicken and die tolike every other, for in them both victor gether. They are the offspring of good

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Why cannot a family of girls be pho-must come to a halt or a halter.

honesty are its security. crowd, has been troubled with a stitch

A sharp young lady says there is no and sing like other people,' is what derstood, we shall see upon most of our

'These apples are not fit for a hog to lowing notice under the awning of his now. Anticipate their wants. The goged hand into his pocket, pulled forth eat,' said a kid gloved dandy to an apple market; 'All loafers will please stand flow of milk-which without this fore-

> The youth of the period has discovered that it is impossible to make bricks as follows: 'After this date everybody corn. And fodder corn must be plantwithout straw, if sherry cobblers are to must lick their own postage stamps, for ed now. It should on no account be come a perfect brute he wants only in-Economy is the parent of integrity, of liberty, and of ease; and the beauteous sister of temperance, of cheerfulness and wrong to hay. her followers in dependence and debts. That which is good to be done can Error, ignorance, and delirium, have not be done too soon; and if it is neg | who contribute by their labor to feed so perplicated the clearest ideas, that it lected to be done early, it will fre- millions of men, who from their abundconspires to identify with their very ing address, backed by his great beauty, when the time comes for them to be seen worth as much as a bushel of oats for higher prices, more money, and a feelhad been enabled to move among the in the light of God their loathsomeness horses or cows. Six hundred bushels can be raised to the acre.

Laborers en an English railway late-

say? 'He told me to go to the devil.' difficulty; but once driven up to the contented. Who is honored? He that graceful when asleep or when at hard tive dishonesty. work or when amused. Children are 'Father,' said a lad, 'I often read of lowing the remedy proposed by our corgraceful when pleased. Give me a thought, and my hands and face will go people being poor but honest; why respondent. Let the farmers try it .all right. We are awkward for want of don't they sometimes say rich, but hon- Mame Farmer.

It is a good rule to avoid exaggeration. A lady loses as soon as she admires too much. The best way is to is suited alike to parents and children. give your opinion about a thing and The promise is unto you and to your Barber,' said a farmer to his tonsor, stick to it, and not run about telling children. The covenant of God's mer-'now corn's cheap, you ought to shave what different journals say, but remain cy embraces all men in its provisions.

Fight hard against a hasty temper .-Anger will come, but resist it strongly An Irishman decapitated a turtle, and A spark will set a house on fire. A fit afterwards was amusing himself by put- of passion may give you cause to mourn ting sticks into its mouth, which it bit all your life. Never revenge an injury. fixed upon the handsome stranger of members of the famous old Sixty-ninth proceedings exclaimed: 'Why, Pat, I Women, so amiable in themselves, dry blanket. The next day after being whom she did not lose sight for a mo- Regiment, of New York, which distin- thought the turtle was dead!' 'So he are never so amiable as when useful;

ing to make them stand to their love An old negro returning one night from like seeing them at work. Stock well summered are half winterassistance, pointing toward a large ves- Here is to the glorious old Sixty-ninth, swamped. Determined to do what he ed. If they go into the stable in good sel, bowling along toward us before the the last to go into battle, and the first to had never done before, he dropped on condition, have warm quarters, wholelave.' 'Ah, no, Jimmy, that is not his knees and exclaimed: 'Oh, Massa some food, they will keep growing, and There was, however, a panic among good; that will never do. I will give Lord, if eber you're gwine to help old come out in the spring, with less con-> nouncement affixed to his bosom :-Blind; Father of four children, the result of a terrible accident.'

Housewives who are annoyed with A noted American writer seriously muddy water on washing days might do proposes to give the suffrage power to well to remember that a piece of alum woman only. As a consequence, he tells Jealousy is always born with love, ent conception. [Cant see the point.

Feed Better and Live Better.

[VOLUME 4, NO. 21.

The greater part of our farmers do not feed their farm stock well enough .-They do not seem to know, or they He who enters upon a career of crime seem to be very indifferent to the fact, that better feeding gives better manure, that the richer the manure the heavier the crops, that the heavier the crops ways should be paid, for honor and the larger the profit, and the fatter the animals, while in turn the better fed is the farmer and his herd. The feeding He who cannot forgive others, breaks of farm stock, especially of cattle, sheep and pigs, is not carried on to any great extent in our country, as it is in England, as a source of profit. When 'Come out from behind your nose the feeding of stock becomes better inthing more touching in this life than to greeted an affected singer in Dublin farms, less grain growing, fewer hoed crops, less hard work, more leisure, more grass, more cattle, more manure,

> The cows should not be forgotten now nor hereafter. And to not forget A Hudson marketman, nailed the fol- them hereafter is not to forget them kept up to its highest quantity by the An Illinois postmaster gives notice aid of a small amount daily of fodder neglected, even by those who keep but one or two cows; and for those who This motto ought to be placed on the have something of a dairy, who sell bill of fare of some restaurants: 'No milk or make butter-nothing but the customer can go farther and fare worse.' sheerest improvidence will allow the planting of a good sized piece of fodder corn to be omitted. A part of it of indisputable stupidity, said- 'To be- can be grown upon land too wet to plant with other crops, as a succession at planting will give a desirable succession of the crop when it is wanted to Revenge is the only debt which it is feed out, It is a lamentable fact that country folk work too hard, and fare too ill .-They who are themselves the producers, is very common to find men who have quently happen that it will not be done ance supply the tables of princes and kings--are themselves poorly fed .-They cannot afford themselves anything Make no more vain resolutions, but palatable to cat or comely to wear. This proceed at once to duty. Know your truly ought not to be. And the remeweakness, trust and pray. God will dy our correspondent suggests is the Like the veiled prophet who were help you through and give you patience. true one. Manure higher, plough deeper, raise more hay, feed more corn and hay upon the farm rather than sell it. With such a course will come ing that what is good enough to sell is not too good to eat. Mr. Goodale once told us that when on a tour of observation through the famous cheese region of New York, visiting the most celebrated dairymen of the Herkimer valley, it was impossible to find a plate of good cheese upon their tables! This is Money is but the representative of the way farmers in New York-and in labor, and all labor demands time; other States too-get rich. But is posture master. An awkward man is others by his tardiness, is guilty of posi- rich? We believe not. The farmer's table should be furnished with the best he raises-and this can be done by fol-

How to Kill Lice on Cattle.

A correspondent in the Country Gentleman dissolved about a pint of strong soft soap in a pail of warm, soft water, and saturated the whole surface of a lousy cow's body with it; after about thirty minutes, repeated the operation, and in thirty minutes longer took a pail of clean warm water, and quickly and thoroughly washed out all the soap and dead lice in large quantities, put her in a warm stable, and covered her with a in love with girls at play, there is noth- doubled her quantity of milk within twenty-four hours, and immediately commenced gaining flesh and general thrifti-

SCOTCH MODE OF WASHING WOOL-LEN SHAWLS .- Scrape one pound of soap, and boil it down in sufficient water to a thin jelly; when cold beat it with the hand, and add three tablespoonsful of spirits of turpentine, and one of spirits of hartshorn. Wash the articles thoroughly in it, then rinse in cold water until all the soap is taken off, then in salt and water. Fold between two sheets, taking care not to allow two folds of the article washed to CATARRH, HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, &c., lie together. Mangle, and iron with a no matter how distressing, instantly reliev- cold iron. Shawls done in this way as large as a walnut will clear, as us, America would be unique. Her stan-Happiness and virtue are twins which bright as crystal, a whole hogshead of dard of sovereignty would be higher than that of any other nation; and her progress in civilization beyond our pres-

> An exchange states that a young fel-Truth requires plain words; she re- low recently lost the sight of one eye by his carelessly opening a bottle of soda!

REG TO ANNOUNCE THAT THEY Dress-making, and would kindly solicit the patronage of Durham and vicinity. Mrs. Perkiss is well acquainted with above branches, and also Straw-work. Fluting Residence next to R. McKenzie's large brick store, Lower Village.

POETRY.

And every season, full of glee,

I'll plough and sow, to reap and mow, 'Twill bring me health and cash, sir. The lawyer leads a harrassed life,

However wrong, must he, sir,

But this I hold but humming, For, like a tavern waiting man,

A farmer's li e then let me live, Obtaining while I lead it, Lucugh for self, and some to give To such poor souls as need it. I'll drain and fence, nor grudge expense, To give my land good dressing;

And hope from Heaven a blessing.

I'll plough and sow, or drill in row, light his eigar by mine.

with it at this moment. What has happened ? ? The Countess de Marville-the fairand ten thousand francs missing from marks of fingers on her throat; the brute opened the case. Then he started and who did the deed effected his entrance quickly returning this to his pocket, The price of the Machine, on beautiful through the window of her chamber, stand, walnut top, mouldings and drawers is near which, unfortunately, was a tall tree, planted years ago by the distin-

only the LATEST but also the could harm a woman thus, in cold blood, is more than I can imagine. the countess you would marvel still > with an unmistakable air of vanity. Indeed. Oh, yes. There are in Paris few popular women unknown to me.

he soon left me. Afterward I heard from other sources, accounts of the late tragedy. Among LARITY in the short time it has the details of the affair was one which ed; we were sinking! peculiarly impressed me, and which my informant had not spoken of, an oversight that then surprised me, and the

THAT the Lockman Machine already that kind which would be most apt to Upon the throat of the countess the murderer, in throttling her, had left a > chariot wheel device was purchased. Who is Jean Mosqueau?

now and then turning his brown eyes ad- down fast-was already nearly engulfed windows of their dwelling. - Glasgono

Durham, Ont.

Whips, Spurs, &c., Durham

Whips, Spurs, &c., Durham

CHARLES LIMIN.

Which combined with a lively imaginamotioning me back with one hand, she continue under the guidance of such motioning me back with one hand, she continue under the guidance of such motioning me back with one hand, she contempt, who never refuses invitations to the handsome passenger.

CHARLES LIMIN.

Doctors are asking themselves the His power over the female sex must

This idea flashed clearly over and aboard the schooner, the handsome pas- a-physician. Then the lady in black, quietly pull-He beheld me glance towards the ing forth a revolver, pointed it at the

One, especially, a modest looking little chariot wheel! This person is the mur-dress and false hair, revealing the perhealth. Profuseness is a cruel and son of a slender man, with delicate girl-waves of the rascal, that the gallows might not be cheated it first circles of Parisian society.

then I came to you.' 'You are afraid, sir,' said a Brigadier by the destruction of the wood.

afraid as I am you would run away.' tery of Stirling had a lecture one afternoon the Siege of Samaria. After reading the passage about the price paid for an ass' head, he remarked, 'An' my charge more, for when corn's down farmers make such long faces that I have twice the ground to go over.' guished itself so much in the late war. is, ma'am, but the crather's not sinsible and as for beauty, though men may fall ed to feel like a new animal, more than Keep quiet, ladies and gentlemen! They were having a pretty jolly time; of it." sang out the captain. Keep quiet and and after getting well warmed up, Patdon't crowd round the boat so! There rick says: 'Jimmy, we must give a will be room in it for you all, and, be- toast to the old Sixty ninth.' 'And a dance frolic, when crossing the river can never be divided; they are born and vanquished rejoice together. sense and innocence; and while they

Idleness is the sepulchre of a living

A promise is a just debt which al-

How would you express in one word the bridge over which he himself will

There are one hundred and forty dif- more contentment, more sytem, more ferent religious denominations in Great my tongue's give out.'

A witty fellow, in speaking of a man not sufficient courage to undeceive them- at all.

When fed with a liberal amount draw it out, but which can only be done Nature is the best teacher; the best therefore he that wastes the time of such a course necessary in order to get > est ?' 'Tut, tut, my son,' replied the father; 'Nobody would believe them.' The gospel of Jesus Christ saves. It

A blind merchant who frequents the Rue St. Honore has the following au-ed and quickly cured with Dr. J. Briggs' look like new. Only use the salt when Allevantor. To be had at Findlay & Shaw's. there are delicate colors that may strike.

but does not die with it.

turbid water,

jects all ambiguities and reserves.