MAINTIEN LE DROIT.

DURHAM, COUNTY OF GREY, ONTARIO, AUG. 25, 1870.

[VOLUME 4, NO. 30.

WHOLE NO. 186.7

J. F. Halsted, M. D., DHYSICIAN, SURGEON, &c., HAN-OVER. Ontario.

R. T. Porter, M. D., promptly attended to.

DENTISTRY.

TAS. TO ELL, SURGEON-DENTIST .-Office, - One door North of Efficit's Hotel, Upper Village, Durham.

William Barrett Other-Over Dalglish's store, Upper Town, Charges moderate.

THOMAS DIXON, DARBISTER, ATTORNY AT LAW, OFFICE :- Next door to the Telegraph Grey. Office, Durham.

James Brown, SSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Ducham, Ont. ROBERT FINDLAY.

DURHAM. AFFICIAL ASSIGNEE, FOR THE COUNTY OF GREY.

Samuel E. Legate, AND AGENT, VALUER, &c., &c. years, on easy terms of interest. Farms Durham, 10th June, 1868. 71-1y.

John Moodie, deneral Agent, Conveyancer, Licensed conser for the County of Grey. Lands Ac., Valued, Books and Accounts Certain Preservation of the Sight, made up and collected. F $50,000 to land on good Farm and Town Property at per cent. OFFICE:-14 Garafraxa St.,

C. McDougail, TOUSE, SIGN AND ORNAMENTAL Painter, Darham, Oat. Painting. Blazing, and Paper Hauging, done in the most approved style of the art. William Buchanan, TROM GLASGOW

1-ly. Durham Waggon & Carriage Shop. 1. STOREY IS NOW PREPARED to furnish Carriages, Cutters, Waggons and Sleighs, manufactured from the best material, at the cheapest possible rates.

Kerr, Brown & McKenzie, MPORTERS OF DRY GOODS AND Groceries, and General Wholesale

Carson's store, Lower Town, Durham.

Merchants, Hamilton, Ont. MUCH ROSE, eneral Blacksmith, opposite Wiley's Boot and Shoe Store, Lower Town, Durham .-Good workmanship, punctuality and moder ate charges are the rules at this Smithy.

in the County. All work warranted. Wareroom, One Door North of the sign branches, and also Straw-work. Fluting BANKERS-Bank of Commerce, Toronto done in good style. Residence next to R. McKenzie's large brick store, Lower Village.

JAMES SULLIVAN TINSMITH,

(TWO DOORS NORTH OF THE BRIDGE.) INVERY description of Tinware con- compound interest, for any even sum above this man's face; and he, Grace, is the I's stantly on hand and made to order. $100 he pays before it becomes due. All work is manufactured under my own supervision, and none but the very best be taken. No commission charged. No to Eave-Troughing. A large stock of promptly transacted.

A. McLELLAN, Stove-Pipes, Elbows, T Pipes and Ridge Plates always on hand, CHEAP FOR CASH OR TRADE.

HOTEL CARDS.

HALF-WAY HOUSE,

RCHARDVILLE, JAMES BELL PROPRIETOR. Having leased the PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, &c., GRAD above premises, lately occupied by Mr. J. Hart, I am prepared to offer first-class ac-Office-In Griffin's Building, Durham, commodation to travellers and the public County of Grey. All calls, day or night, generally. Good Wines, Liquors and Cigars always on hand. Superior Stabling and an attentive Hostler. Stages call daily.

CORNISH'S HOTEL, ORCHARDVILLE. This House has recently been refitted and furnished in first class style, with a view to the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public. Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the choicest DARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, bands always on hand. Good Stabling and

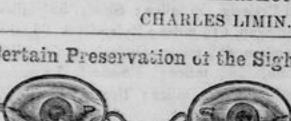

Argyle Hotel, HUGH MACKAY, PROPRIETOR, Durham. The subscriber is Solicitor in Chancery, &c., &c .- Licensed Auctioneer for the County of

> DURHAM HOTEL, Durham, TAMES ELLIOTT, Proprietor. The subscriber thankful for past favors wishes to inform his old friends and the public generally, that he has again commenced business in the above Hotel and hopes by strict attention to the comfort of his guests to merit a fair share of public

A good Livery in connection.

A CHOICE LOT OF ALWAYS ON HAND,

AT THE Durham Meat Market."

F. H. Edwards. WATCHMAKER AND JEWELLER SOLE AGENT FOR THE SALE OF

OUR CELEBRATED

EYE-GLASSES. The LENSES of which are GROUND by us, from material manufactured especially for OPTIC purposes. It is PURE, HARD & BRILLIANT and as near ACHROMATIC as can be attained by the aid of complicated and costly machinery, warrants us in asserting

All work warranted. Shop, opposite Mr. The Most Perfect Spectacles EVER MANUFACTURED THEY ASSIST THE SIGHT MOST

BRILLIANTLY, CONFER EASE & COMFORT

ON THE WEARER. cause a continuous and abiding IMPROVEMENT OF THE EYES.

LAST A GREAT MANY YEARS are the CHEAPEST, as well as the BEST. LAZARUS, MORRIS & CO.,

MONTREAL.

Great Reduction of Interest.

Loan in sums of $200 and upwards on ap two to twenty years, on the most favorable Good Mortgages Bought.

Durham, July 18th, 1870. D. Jackson, Jr.,

Land Agent, Conveyancer, Commissioner and Insurance Agent. A few good farms for sale.

Money Loaned at 8 per cent.

CAPITAL, - - $1,000,000. President-Lewis Moffatt, Esq. ice-President-John MacDonald, Esq.

ecretary-John Symons, Esq. Esa. : Hon. George Brown ; Hon. Asa A. am, M. P.; C. S. Gzowski, Esq. ; His

Advantages to Borrowers,

The borrower has, if he desires, 23 years mortgage by giving 6 months notice. The borrower is allowed 6 per cent.,

stock used. JOBBING done promptly expenses of renewals.

I am receiving applications for Loans. have always said was a ragged, wretch-living rates.

Particular attention paid All business connected therewith will be ed fellow. Agent and Valuer. Durham, August 11th, 1870. 184-tf. | clothes-

POETRY.

The By-gone days of Yore.

In the peaceful hours of evening, When the golden sun was low, And the Heavens were resplendent With his majestic glow; When the tender cords of memory,

Which oft had thrilled before, Reverberated softly O'er the by gone days of yore.

Such a bright gold vision Of happy, youthful days, No painter's brush could equal Their magnificent displays; But methinks I hear a whisper, In some mystic words of lore, Which breathe a kind momento

To the by-gone days of yore. But dimly to the distance Rises up the past, Unveiling all the treasures

That were once around me cast : Then I raise a silent murmur, But quickly it is o'er. And I pay a loving tribute To the by-gone days of yore.

When the gentle words of love, Now hidden in my heart. The memory of that loved one Can never more depart. Hark! a sweet angel whisper From the bright golden shore, Makes me live again in memory

The by-gone days of yore. Ah! there's the dear old homestead, With the loved ones gathered round, They are all waiting for me,

To hear my footsteps sound ; But the picture is dissolving, 'Tis almost past and o'er, Yet how I love to linger on The by-gone days of yore.

Then peacefully we journey Down the shining path of life, And buckle on our armor For the fast approaching strife; But just as I am leaving This world for evermore, Oh! Memory paint one picture

Of the by-gone days of yore. THE LUMP OF GLAY

Murder Will Out.

I had seen the picture before. -Where? With a leap my mind went back to the night before my husband's The peculiar form and scientific accuracy murder. I saw Jane, the mulatto cook. and her companion; and oh, merciful Heavens! the man's face was the same. This was shaded by a fashionable hatof this, my senses departed, and my going forward. sister, when she entered, found me in a swoon upon the floor.

without requiring to be changed. So they sanity. I laid what I had seen to the ed now with two ends-my old one, and Thiers proceeds, "when asked for the I argued with myself that, until I had wife of a monster. 295 Notre Dame Street, (up stairs) seen this Cuban, I must regard the I watched the foot as a cat watched respite, I think that my countrymen, WE EMPLOY NO PEDLERS. ohim face to face in my own parlor. The fast for me; I could have prayed for LOAN. now I had made no mistake.

doubt in my own mind that this comof the dark deed of that horrible night. awoke with my plan fully matured. proved Farm and Village security, for from There was no doubt now that this was the man; yet my own common-sense the wedding is so near, invite Mr told me that to accuse a wealthy gen- Zenzee to pass the evening with us.' tleman on such slight grounds as the D. Jackson, Jr., memory of a face seen once by moonlight would be absurd. I should be called said. night, and she turned on me angrily.

said. 'It has gone too far. I am half but she sighed. for a poor girl, and I'll marry him.' 'Do you love him ?' I said.

Hon, G. W. Allan, M. P.; Wm. Alexander, is only for his ugly face you hate my dress he wore, he looked more the rufland, C. B.; Hon. Wm. AcMaster, M. P.; plexion,' etc. To be sure, he is sus- strange tricks at cards, and played

'He has a horrible face,' I said; but | 'It is a cold night,' I said. addenly or unexpectedly to pay off his that is not all. Grace this must not go Bitter,' said he, shuddering. 'But through the streets to the station in a on. I will tell you a secret. The face then I came from a warm climate. to pay off the loan lent; he has always the I saw over the gate on that awful night Something warm to drink would be uncovered heads and a buzzing sort of GARAFRANA STREET, DURHAM. privilege of liberating his estate from the talking to Jane-the face of one con- a comfort,' said I. nected, I am sure with the murder, was

Grace answered with a laugh.

I stopped her. 'Yes; but still the man in other and, to tell the truth, I have some pre- in an hour of stress, that old man, with victory at Wessembourg, has received /pared.

'How did this man make his money said he, with a laugh. -can you answer?'

'That I can't; you will see your folly man is ugly! I'll make him tell how and you'll see your insanity.' She danced away and crept to bed tered the parlor. with a heavy heart.

The next day she came to me gleefully. 'My Cuban made his fortune in trade,' she said ; 'took his father's business and gave it up when his million was made. He showed me papers and letters and things I didn't understand, though I pretended to. He didn't find his million in people's cupboards. And sprung. he has popped the question, and I have accepted -so there's an end. Come, know you've had too much trouble; but don't brood over it and go out of your

She tried to kiss me, but I held her 'Listen Grace,' I said. 'If you marry this man, and I discover afterwards that he knows anything of that awful night, I shall still denounce him.' 'And welcome,' said she. Then with sudden childish burst of tears she clasped me, and cried : 'Oh Ella, don't go crazy-don't go crazy! Try to take comfort; try to be yourself!' It was useless to argue farther, and left her. So, being betrothed to Grace, the Cuban, Mr. Zenzee was his name, brought his hideous face to our house every night. I loathed it, but I had determined to watch him. With this end I endured the sight and heard him talk. At last I made him contradict himself as to the places where he spent certain years I would with ner whole un. cerning Cuba. I became convinced that he was no more a Cuban than myself .-Then watching him still closer I saw terror as well as brutality in his eyes. I knew the man feared something .-Closer and closer my fancied proofs were gathering about him, until I began to see him the actual murderer, the man who had stolen barefoot about our room, and the clay impress of whose mutilated a fashionable collar and cravat, and an foot I had locked in a closet in my elegant overcoat finished the costume, room. Could I see his foot I could be dead or alive. while the first face was set off by ragged sure-not else. And that had now beand ruffianly garments, but the persons come the object of my life. And, all land, says he has has always been of the wounded of both nations, and that their were the same. I could have laid my this while, despite all my prayers and opinion that the time would come when hand upon the Bible and sworn to that protestation, the preparations, for my the ambition of Prussia would have to prisoners as they pass through the railfact on the spot. As I grew positive sister's marriage with Mr. Zenzce were be resisted by France. But he always

ed. Before that wedding-day I had nations of Europe should acknowledge When I recovered I doubted my own sworn to make my discovery. I work. France to be in the right. "If," M illusion of the moonlight and distance. that of saving Grace from becoming the production of the despatches, I could whole affair as a delusion. I waited, a mouse, but discovered nothing. My having time for reflection, would, pernot patiently but silently. Soon I met agony grew greater. Time moved too moment was a terrible one. I knew days and hours to lengthen those months to my country's flag, I can only wish for out. At last there was but one day be- her success, while earnestly desiring that with a quantity of arms and ammunition. There had never been the faintest tween the present in which I lived and it may be at the least possible cost to that in which my sister would become panion of Jane's had been at the bottom Mrs. Zenzee. On that morning I

I said to Grace at breakfast : 'Since She looked up with a smile.

'You are coming to your senses,' she insane. But, if I were, this was a bold, I made no answer. After a while I bad man, and Grace should have no asked again, 'Do you love him, Grace?' more to do with him. I told her so that and she answered: 'I told you once 'You should have spoken sooner,' she son still. After all, what is leve worth?'

engaged to him. It is a splendid match My heart had been at case on tha score before. It was even lighter now. But how it throbbed with anxiety! The She laughed. 'No; as I said once day wore on tediously, and evening, with before, he loves me. That's enough. 1 a murky rain; but with it came Mr shall get used to his ways, and I shall Zenzee. He took tea with us, and did be mistress of a splendid house, carriage, his best to be agreeable, but somehow, horses, etc., and shall enjoy myself. It in spite of the remarkably handsome Cuban. Don't you remember Shake- fian than ever. After tea we had out speare: 'Mislike me not for my com- the card table, and he showed us some of Durham and vicinity. Mrs. J. B. Osborne, Esq.; S. Spreull, Esq.; piciously dark; but it is Cuban—no- against us, and cheated us both for fun, and laughed at Grace's wonder. Then And changing at once from angry to Grace sang a while; and then, the clock striking ten, my time had come.

He brightened up.

'A bowl of punch now?' said I. Grace started. 'Panch! I thought you-

'It would suit me,' said he.

'A millionaire has no need to turn Fond of a drop yourself of a cold fine lip, curved under his massive white night, and none the worse for it, ma'am,' moustache, would cut the Gordian knot sugar, I suppose. I hope you are not 'Is it hot?' said I. going to have another brain fever, my Boiling,' said the girl; and I seized faith; 'he believes,' and he is sure that tempting—because men have more lei- ed a desire to behave properly, and enit on its tray, with the ladel. Then call he in whom he believes has placed his sure, and eating becomes a luxury as titled them the advance class.' To this over six feet in height.

The man started, but obeyed. he came by his fortune! Sleep on it,

'Taste it, Mr. Zenzee; is it not fine?' two people in Europe who have played tempted to say to another clergyman : Roman Catholic chapels. I said, and then, as I stood near him, so prominent a part in history during 'Are you not confident of being often Punishments have not been very frethe bowl dropped from my hands, and the last twenty years as the royal couple tempted of the devil?" the contents poured over the floor and whose fate hangs on the result of the the Cuban's knees. I screamed. He present war. When they meet again howled, for the fluid had filled the loose if, indeed they ever do meet, what an you at meal times, in the shape of beef, were punished under the predecessor of shoes he wore; and down I went on my eventful story will have been told, and puddings, and such like, and we have Mr. Ferres. Four convicts had chains knees before the spot to which he had each line written in letters of blood !- noticed that you are a long way too on them, says the report:

you scalded? Let me see.' And as tory; but to the Emperor and the Em. blooded, florid in the face and quarrel- case is worthy of note. The convict he sat writhing with pain on the sofa, I press it may be the last chapter in the some, who would become peaceful and came and told me that he and another tore off his shoes and stockings with record of their career. For him at least contented if all meat rations were knock- convict intended to escape if they got great pretence of compassion and grief. there is no future but in success; in ed off.

husband's murder. and cried aloud for John.

go. He is a murderer.' night, or remember them only in a sort an army. -Pall Mall Gazette. of a dream. I know emissaries of the Long since Grace married a man she from Paris. and ready to bide God's will.

Miscellaneous War Items.

A correspondent of the Independence Belge states that the inhabitants of the little town of Osterode have offered a reward of 10,000 thalers to whoever supposed the time would only be when The day was set. The time narrow. a just occasion arose, and when all the have obtained about twenty-four hours haps, have pronounced for peace. I did not succeed, and now, always faithful humanity, and that it may bring about Emir Abd-el-Kader has addressed the to establish a Republic. following letter to the Minister of War: God grant victory.) From the servant of God, Abd-el-Kader Ben Hahi Edden Broussa, 6 Radia et Isahi of the year of the Hegira, 1287."

his piercing blue eye and open brow, and the order of the Iron Crown.

my work was done.

M. Thiers, writing to a friend in Eng- she will take personal charge of the pect a full half .- H. W. Beecher.

says: "At two o'clock the King drove on her hands than she bargained for. kept in order by force. He changed it again. At the end of five minutes both Russian drosky, and was received with pay the country people for all supplies. reform a convict, yet thinking that the was mentioned to Captain-General, he suppressed cheer as he passed. He helmeted in strictest soldier tunic-a Paris. real anox andron of the days when kings led subjects to battle. What a fine old and Belgian journals is now prohibited head and front it is! The stamp of Imperator is there already, and it would 'This is a special occasion,' said I, not surprise one very much to learn that, of a constitution with a swift, sure sword. The higher the civilized condition of the convincts should feel the fear that I laughed too, as I left the room. In Certainly he is not the sort of a man one society, the more apt the men to suffer he was wearing that which belonged to Nonsense-of course not. Cotton or the kitchen I found my punch-bowl full. would like to worry coram populo in a impaired vigor from over-feeding, be- some one clse. He set apart two blocks

'John,' said I, 'stay near the door. If A CASE OF VICTORY OR DEATH .- and live less in sunlight. soon. The idea! Because the poor I call you, come and do what I tell you.' Partings are at all times painful, but it Every day we see men of good mor- them to write oftener than the restricwould be difficult to conceive any fare. als, of position in society, of estimable tion of a letter in three months justified:

departure from Paris. There are no not wise in eating. We are sometimes for organs for both the Protestant and To France, though the issues are great, fimiliar with him.'

'Hold him,' I said. 'Do not let him the Emperor may be to beard Bismarck sume them as in fire.

The Battle of Armageddon, of which want of proper knowledge, over-indulg- being successful if they undertook it, law soon filled my house. I know my we have read so much in Dr. Cumming's ent, and by reason of excess they are while offering no doubt of their sinceriwild statement slowly gained credence. prophecies, will be fought near the city enfecbled, despondent, run down .- ty. I had my proofs in the clay and plaster of Chalons, in the course of a few days. Blanch and waxy-faced men abound, In the matter of economy the new in my room above. At last in the There will be at least one million of whose whole life is unstrung, and gradu- Warden seemed to have made some imrecognition of the man as a desperado of men engaged in it. Should the Prus. ally sacrificed to the pleasures of pas- provements. He broke up the gangs of the Mississippi, and finally in his own sians be victorious, they will march to sion, which are only not vicious because stone-breakers and oakum pickers, and the sack of Paris. There is no line of they are indulged in legal rela- put them to more profitable employ-His end was the one he merited, and fortification between Chalons and Paris. The delicacy of the theme makes ments. The masons department, which Chalors is ninety miles in a straight line teachers averse to speaking publicly of in 1868, produced $8,370, produced in confused him by the blunt inquiries concerning Cuba. I became convinced that Handel's Zeetung, one of the ablest Ger. tell them that, like a cask of wine hid in 1869 to $2,717. And, on the other man periodicals in America, is as cer. in the cellar, worm-pierced, they are hand, there was a reduction in the pay tain of the sack of Paris as the Parisians were of the capture of Berlin a month ago. He sent a copy of the last number of his paper addressed-"To ure, and lust, and wastefulness of the to two, and the number of guards from King William of Prussia, the Tuilleries, Paris. Poste Restante. If the addressed has not arrived yet, the Postmaster is requested to keep the paper > treatment shall be identical. The French way stations, receive nothing but kindness. Citizens and volunteers give them refreshments, eigars, &c.; and ladies enter the cars, going from man to man. offer them paper and pencil, and volunteer to write to their friends for them. RIOTS IN PARIS .- There have been serious riots in Paris, in which several members of the police force were killed. The national guard was called out and a number of arrests were made. A supply of red flags-the Red Republican

"Praise be to God. To the very valiant | self and all the Vatican with him. The Marshal of France, Minister of War .- dogma of infallibility was supposed to Excellency: We have learned by the entitle him to be the centre of considvoice of fame that France is about to eration of the civilized world; but in make her powder speak against her stead of this he has been left in the enemies, the Prussians (whom may God lurch by his sons, the sovereigns of the why I accepted him. That is my rea. Emperor, Napoleon III., (upon whom unfilial conduct in removing the French may Heaven shower its bounties,) has troops has brought its own reward in determined to place in the front ranks the defeats of Woerthe and Weissemof his brave soldiers the sons of French bourg. The sin of her husband has been ployed in the Kingston Penitentiary .aided or abetted him. With the Prus- bave no reason to doubt that he did. A Berlin letter to the London Times Holiness to appease, France has more coercion and repression. They were however, in a moment began to boil

'looked every inch a king,' plumed and private in a regiment for the defence of made open to good impressions." He ly approve of it as a man, but as Cap-The sale and circulation of English

The Prince Royal of Prussia, for his Penalty of Self-Indulgence.

I waited until I heard him plant him- well more tinged with sadness than that qualities, who are inferior or unhappy He established a choir in their chapels; self upon the sill of the door, then en- of the Emperor and the Empress on his for no other reason than that they are and instituted the foundation of a fund

'Yes, sir; but why do you ask?'

The feet lay bare upon a cushion .- drawing the sword he has thrown away Another fountain of ill-health is he confessed it also. I took them at The right perfect. The left-that the scabbard, he has burned his ships. in the improper indulgence of man's their word, and put a chain upon each. maimed foot which had made its im- That gay and glorious city which passions. We do not allude to those Next day, the first one came and told press in the clay on the night of my with an enchanter's wand he has re- debaucheries which vice keeps, and me he had been a fool to get the chain modelled and rebuilt will either close which the word of God marks as the put upon him, and if I would take it I gave a yell of almost insane triumph, her gates to the fugitive or welcome the Ways of Death. Those unhallowed off, he would never think of such a return of a victorious leader. Bold as lusts drown men in perdition, or con- thing again. I told him I would trust in his power, it will require more bold- But, thousands are living in proper next day, said the same thing, and I I forgot the other details of that ness still to re-appear at home without social relations without a thought of believed him, taking proper precautions leaking to death. drinking, wasteful indulgence in pleas- keepers having been reduced from five brain by over-work and under sleep- 83 to 67. these three causes lower the working power of society, we should think one full third. And although practised in shall take the Emperor of the French, in the office, as he will soon be there." the interest of enjoyment, they diminish The Queen of Prussia announces that the real enjoyment of society we sus-

The Penitentiaries.

There are over a hundred officers em-Africa. He who has fought against the visited on Eugenie, who has been com- When Mr. Ferres went there he reports ciently to understand the situation, ou French would be the last of believ- pelled to send her jewels and extensive that he found a number of these officers cupied but little time, and, with the ers if he did not, in this coming war, wardrobe to England. Nothing bad in a state of daily intoxication and oth- help of negroes, he brought them to his place himself at the service of his adopt has yet happened to the Tranquil In- ers delinquent even up to the point of own place, ordered fires to be lit, and ed country; his tried sabre claims the fant, but it is momentarily expected in sleeping during their hours of duty. In then threw both of them into big sugar honor of being the first to march against Rome that he will be rendered incon- the business books no less than 2,422 kettles filled with water, which soon bethe Prussians. The Emir Abd-el-Kader, solable by the loss of his bullet. M. discrepancies were discovered. So that gan to boil. The men lived fifteen to therefore, begs your Excellency to lay Ollivier has been punished for his share even with the officers not less than with twenty minutes, until the water began his humble petition at the glorious in the evacuation of Rome by being the convicts, Mr. Ferres had heavy to boil. Their attempts to throw themthrone of Napoleon III. (to whom may thrown out of power; and other rods work before him. He reports that he selves out of the kettles, and their deare in pickle for all Frenchmen who succeeded to a great extent, and we mands for water, and cries for pity, was sians to conquer, the revolutionists to Mr. Ferres reports that the discipline took a fiendish delight in throwing in keep in check and the wrath of His exercised over the convicts was not of occasionally a little cool water, which

The French admit that the Prussians not believing that kindness will in itself had ceased to exist. When the fact more a man can be softened, humanized remarked: "I don't wish to know it, Pere Hyacinthe has volunteered as a and Christianized, the more he may be but if such a thing has happened, I fulresult he has observed is a change for of the matter. Beasts in human form the better, an increase in thoughtful- must be treated as beasts, although the that their Warden was a friend, they the matter rests. The engineer has resought to please him. That was human turned to the plantation, and swears not nature, and Mr. Ferres worked it out to rest until he has caught the other with ingenuity.

In a practical way, he caused all their clothes to be marked, so that no one of watering-place. And then he has a cause victuals are multiplied, are more for those who observed rules and show-'My brain is steady, Grace. Heed ed John, our coachman, a burly fellow, cause beyond the reach of human well as a necessity—because people are class he also gave lights until nine less addicted to work, get less fresh air; o'clock at night, allowed them the benefit of a walk on Sunday, and permitted > quent. During the year 1869, the cato'-nine-tails was only administered to 'We have seen him so often around 22 convicts--eleven of whom, however,

One for fourteen days, two for two 'Oh, what an unlucky thing! Are the war is but one chapter in her histhe chance. Having sent for the other, him, and removed it. The other came evil, who are, notwithstanding, from however, to prevent any such attempt it, and thousands are sinking into con- 1867 more than double that amountof the officers, which amounted to near-Wasteful indulgence in eating and ly two thousand dollars, the number of > Outrage by Spanish Bandits in Cuba.-A Husband's Horrible Revenge.

Havana Cor. of the N. Y. Tribune.)

Some time during the month of May, We have before us the report of the a party of five robbers appeared at a Directors of the Penitentiaries of Cana. plantation, possessed themselves of sevda, and a few notes derived therefrom eral good horses, taking also various armay not prove uninteresting. Crime is ticles of clothing belonging to an Amealways a matter of interest, and its pun- rican engineer on the plantation, and ishment never fails to excite attention. then disappeared. The engineer who From Mr. Ferres we have a report of was in Havana at the time, became futhe Kingston Penitentiary, of which he rious on his return, and indulged in seis Warden. Mr. Ferres states that his vere threats on his return against the first step upon his appointment was to perpetrators of the robberies. Some tell the prisoners that they would be friend of the bandits communicated treated as they acted. If they acted these thoughts to them, and in a few emblem -- were seized in a house, along right they would have every encourage- days they again appeared, took the enment that the rules would allow; but gineer by surprise, tied him hand and The rioters, who were armed with re- if they acted improperly, all the punish. foot, and then proceeded to lash him volvers and poniards, seized an engine. ment that the rules permitted would be with whips and thongs until the man house and took away four guns. This inflicted. Mr. Ferres very justly refus- had fainted three times from the loss of The French papers state that the appears to be a revolutionary attempt ed to have anything to do with old of- blood and pain. They then tied him fences, and remitted all punishments up on a chair before his dwelling, and His Holiness is troubled within him- that were being enforced at the time of two of the number walked into the his appointment. He found-and it is house and violated his wife. Since ther with pain we relate it -one convict who the engineer has been almost a maniac, had been in chains for nine years. Even and bent on revenge. Last Friday he when sick and in the hospital, the chains received information that the two banwere still kept upon him. Mr. Ferres dits were then at a neighboring plantareleased him, and found him afterwards tion, and, without advising anybody of confound,) and that your very powerful Catholic states of Europe. Napoleon's to be one of the most faithful men in his intention, he armed himself, and had the prison. So much for a judicious the good fortune to find both of them lying on the floor in an inebriated con

> To tie them up and rouse them suffiheart-rending, but their executioner bestowed kindness on the convicts. The tain-General I have so far no knowledge ness, and a care for order. Thinking punishment was inhuman and cruel.' So etured e, Ont. bottle.

ATER.

ver, or es, comes, and le hair IN orham, d busi-shery. wns in busi-

MILY Y.

amily e and Snow

eekly ring a thoun and ITE dents Тив now

Vege-