Egremont Agricultural Show.

The annual exhibition of the Egremont agricultural society was held at Seamans. Holstein, on Tuesday 4th inst. The weather was very unfavorable, and no 2nd Chas. There was nevertheless a good representation in all classes, and everything exhibited had a high degree of excellence to recommend it. In horses and cattle the number entered for competition was larger, we believe, than last year, and a marked improvement was noticeable in the appearance and breed of the animals .-There was a fine show of pigs-amongst which a boar, fat pig, and a three months' old thorough-bred Suffolk boar, J. Messrs. Robt. Boulding and Thos. Reid entered good samples of peas. The butter was very fine and the entries large-the samples shown by Messrs. John Stevenson, N. McArthur, Wm. Burrows. Wm. Douglas, Daniel Iles, Thos. Reid and W. J. Dillon, being awarded premiums. Some excellent samples of home made bread were on exhibition .-In fulled cloth, blankets, quilts, and knitted work, the entries were numerous and of a creditable description.
