PARKER'S
TICK KILLER!
Is an effectual destroyer of Ticks on Sheep, also a preventative against the Fly and Scab during the hot Summer months. It greatly improves the QUALITY and QUANTITY of the Wool, and that at a trifling cost. It has been long and favorably known in GREAT BRITAIN, and it is confidently anticipated that upon trial, it will enjoy as favorable a reputation in Canada.
H. PARKER,
DURHAM.

There were very few persons on the scaffold. The Sheriff, the Gaoler, Dr.
Oliver the Gaol Surgeon; the Rev. Mr.
Bland, Rev. Mr. Hall, Rev. Mr. Sutherland, Rev. Mr. Aylsworth, and Plymouth Brother, the Rev. Mr. Rossenau, Dr. Sparham and Dr. Day were present.
There were two hangmen, both marked with black gaudy bags enveloping their heads, and dressed in a sort of smockfrock, which completely invested their persons. The prisoner Mann was brought into Deacon's room shortly after 7 o'clock, and there was a very affecting greeting described by the cler-gyman. The two shook hands and expressed their great pleasure at seeing each other. The clergy present then engaged in devotional exercises until the executioners came and bound the prisoners, pinning their hands behind their backs. It had been arranged that prayers should be said in the debtor's room, but this arrangement had to be dispensed with, and therefore the programme for the reading of portions of the Scripture, etc., was omitted. Both prisoners displayed about equal fortitude, and were both resigned and even anxious to meet death. It is said that in the procession to the scaffold Mann was seen to display a slight but yet perceptible nervous tremor; but the "aboundings of grace," as described by the Rev. Mr.
Bland, seemed to neutralize the nervousness. Both walked willingly and Blowing Up.—Major N—, upon being asked if he was seriously hurt at the bursting of a steamboat, replied that he was not, as he had been blown up so many times by his wife that a steamboat explosion had no effect on him whatever.

AN EXAMPLE.—"Well," said an old gentleman, the other day, "I have been forty-seven years in business, and can say what very few can say after such experience; in all that time, my friend, I never disappointed but one single creditor."
"Why," responded the old gentleman,
"I paid the debt when it became due, and I never, in all my life, saw a man so much astonished as my creditor was."
THE HILL OF FIVE.—"How many are there up yonder?" shouted a fish-overser to some men in a coal pit. "Five," was the answer. "Well then, the half of ye's come up here said he.
