

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On severing his connection with the Sunday School in Priceville. Mr. Donald McDonald was the recipient of the following address:—

To MR. DONALD McDONALD, Superintendent St. Columbia Sunday School.

DEAR FRIEND—It is with regret that we have learned that you are about to sever your connection with us as Superintendent of our Sunday School. We appreciate your untiring efforts and kindly interest in carrying on the work of the Sunday School for the past seven years. We recognize and deplore fully the loss we are about to sustain. But it is with unfeigned pleasure we bear testimony of your faithfulness, diligent, prudent, and Christian deportment as a man and as our Superintendent. Permit us to present to you as a slight token of our esteem and sincere regard these three volumes of English, Scottish and Irish lore, "Shakespeare," "Scott" and "Moor." We trust that you may be absent from us for some time your connection with us will not altogether cease but that as a member of the Session, we may still have the benefit of your valuable advice and counsel from time to time. In bidding you farewell we hope that in resuming your professional labors God may prosper you in all things both temporal and spiritual, that your labors may be owned of Him for the good of all who come under your instruction and influence. Signed on behalf of the Sunday School,

J. G. Hatton, W. Nichol, Robt. McLachlan. Committee. Priceville, Dec. 29th, 1896.

In replying Mr. McDonald said he was indeed taken by surprise; he regretted that he had done so little for the advancement of the school, but what he had done he felt it as a duty devolving upon him to do. He felt sorry indeed to sever his connection (for a time at least) from St. Columbia Sunday School but hoped that the school would continue to prosper in future as well as in the past. In conclusion he said he thanked them from the bottom of his heart not merely for the intrinsic value of the presents but for their kind appreciation of his services as Superintendent for the past seven years.

RAMBLER VISITS

THE SOUND.

DEAR CHRONICLE,—The last few weeks saw a large number of the citizens of Durham and vicinity on their way to the County Capital, as Jurors, Witnesses, Councilors, etc. Your humble servant found himself among the number. We left Durham by the early morning light, passing by the picturesque Rocky and the now famous village of Dor-noch, (the centre of hard times), and pulled up for a breathing spell with friend Macdonald, of the Sauble. We soon jogged on over the hard frozen roads to Chatsworth, calling on the jolly proprietor of the Campbell House and finally reached the Liverpool of Ont. We put up at the Comely House where we found most of the South Grey contingent enjoying the fine hospitality of Mr. C. and his affable manager, Mr. McKenzie and hostess, Miss Lee. The efforts of the prop. of this hotel are certainly appreciated by the farmers as over 200 horses are often fed in the commodious stables. Here we met acquaintances from all parts of the County. But the best of friends must part, so business all attended to and farewells exchanged, we started for Durham.

Yours Truly, RAMBLER

With the adjournment of the county council on December 5th, an epoch in the municipal history of the county of Grey came to a close. Some conception of the changes that have taken place since 1854, when Grey was separated from Waterloo and Wellington, can be had in no better way than by a glance at the list of men who with such signal ability and integrity have filled the warden's chair during the past forty two years. The list is as follows:— 1854, Richard Carney; 1855, '56 and '57, Wm. K. Fleisher; '58, '59 and '60, George Jackson; 1861 and '62, Wm. K. Fleisher; 1863, George Jackson; 1864, John McDonald and James Kerr; 1865, Wm. K. Fleisher; 1866, Thos. Gamey; 1867, Wm. K. Fleisher; 1868, '69 and '70, Samuel J. Lane; 1871, Jas. Edge; 1872, Samuel J. Lane; 1873, Hugh Reid; 1874, Jas. Paterson; 1875, Geo. Jackson; 1876, Joseph Korke; 1877, Robert McGhee; 1878, Jas. Murdoch; 1879, Dr. C. E. Barnhart; 1880, Finlay MacRae; 1881, Dr. W. S. Christie; 1882, C. R. Sing; 1883, David McNicol; 1884, John Cameron; 1885, John Chisholm; 1886, Victor Lang; 1887, Nicholas Read; 1888, John Clark; 1889, Robert McNaught; 1890, Chas. Moffatt; 1891, Thomas Gilray; 1892, Jas. Cochrane; 1893, Samuel Rogers; 1894, * Wm. Lemon and Joseph Pringle; 1875, George Binnie; 1896, James Anderson. *Died during the year.—Times.

A Child Cured of Eczema by Chase's Ointment.

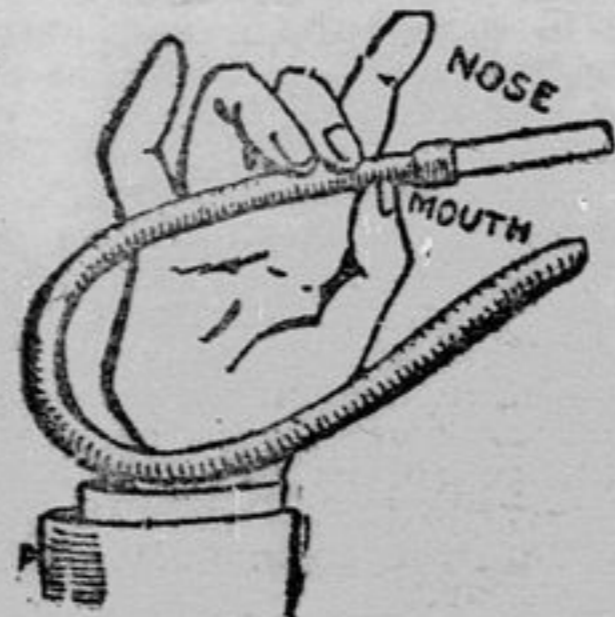

"My six year old daughter, Bella, was afflicted with eczema for 24 months, the principal seat of eruption being behind her ears. I tried almost every remedy I saw advertised, bought innumerable medicines and soaps, and took the child to medical specialists in skin diseases, but without result. The doctor advised the use of Chase's Ointment, and since using the eruption has all disappeared, and I can confidently say my child is cured. Maxwell Johnston, 112 Anne St., Toronto.

Pale and sallow complexion, white lips, furrowed tongue, bad taste in the mouth, bad breath, all come from a sluggish and diseased liver. Take the only reliable treatment that will remove all this trouble, and procure a box of Wright's Liver and Stomach Pills from MacFarlane & Co., Druggists for 50c.

BARGAIN DAY, JANUARY 12th.

1897.

We extend our thanks to our many patrons for their liberal patronage last year and hope that we may enjoy the same pleasant business relation during '97. '96 was for us, as usual, a very successful year. As years roll on our balance sheets show an ever increasing business. There must be some reason why, Have you ever stopped to think?

Only one quality and that the best. Only one price and that to everybody. As a result of the backwardness of the season, we find ourselves terribly overstocked in all kinds of Winter Goods. We never carry any stock over the season. It must be sold. You will find here phenomenal values in Winter Clothing for men and boys. Caps, Underwear, Blankets, Comforters, etc. By bringing your list here, you will save on every article. Once in a great while, other stores offer a few leaders at prices that approached our values. None ever do it very often. Our prices are low on everything in our store and yet we always keep up the standard of quality.

10C--For a 20c CORN BROOM--10C.

Not long ago the old price for Teas didn't satisfy us, we hunted long and far for a Good Tea to sell at a departmental price. We found it, you get it. The usual wholesale price of which was 17c lb, you get it at 12 1/2c lb. No extravagant profits about that, you get it still. Its not a cheap tea but a good, strong, healthy tea and one you'll like. Half the country side is after it. Try a lb next Tuesday and then think of our KOLONA CEYLON TEA, a dollar tea at 28c a lb
