

The Durham Chronicle.

DURHAM, Jan. 7th, 1897.

CRAWFORD.

(Intended for last issue.)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, of Cedarville, spent their holidays at Mr. William Boyce's.

Messrs. James and Archie Brown, returned from Dakota last week the former lay off at Milton to visit to his brother.

Miss Jessie Milne, who has taught school at Southampton during the past three years is home for the holidays. To say that she has been re-engaged speaks for the way her services have been appreciated.

Mr. Thos. McCaslin, who was working at Shallow Lake during the summer, returned home last week and reports all work at a stand still there.

Mr. Abe. McCaslin, who has been at Duluth during the last couple of years is at home. Dame Rumor says he is not going back alone.

Miss Jane Twamley, was visiting for a few days last week among friends in Normanby and Egremont and when returning brought home with her Miss Smith of Egremont.

Mr. Fred Christoffers, of Chesley, is spending his holidays among friends here. He looks as hearty and pleasant as ever.

The following from a distance along with others sat down at our table on Xmas Day:—Mr. Ed. Boyce of Tara; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyce of St. Marys, and Miss Lizzie Boyce, of Harrom.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Allan Macdougall on Xmas Eve when his daughter Mary was married to a Mr. Nichol of Hamilton. They left the following day for their new home. Success to the happy couple.

Mr. Curtiss preached a very practical and soul-stirring sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

We were sorry to hear that Mr. Thos. Redford traded his farm and intends to move near Hanover. His loss will be felt here, especially in the Methodist church where he faithfully performed the duties of steward and caretaker.

We are pleased to see Miss Lizzie Boyd in her accustomed place in the Methodist church after an absence of a few months with her sister, Mrs. McLean, of Shallow Lake.

BUNESSAN.

(Intended for last issue.)

Mr. Malcolm McMillan is home for a few well-deserved holidays. He is spending his winters as usual among the Germans of Waterloo, and if appearances count for anything they must be using Mac. very well. He intends remaining until after election day in order to give his friends the benefit of a good lift.

Mrs. Redford, of King township, is with her two children spending a pleasant time with the Fallaise family.

Mr. Chas. Kennedy, Jr., has had a week of severe suffering from inflammation of the ear. The pain is now much less but is still far from being all away.

ORCHARDVILLE.

(Intended for last issue.)

Mr. Thos. Orchard is laid up with inflammation. Dr. Brown is in attendance.

Last week John Loughhead was up before P. M. Ryan for a violation of the Fishery Laws.

The case of Menzies vs. Stephens re note fraud was tried in Owen Sound last week. Stephens was discharged.

The case of Calder vs. Stephens has caused some excitement of late.

Mr. David Queen, of Toronto spent Christmas at home but returned to the city Saturday morning. His friends would have enjoyed a longer visit from him.

Mr. Hind, of Durham, spent part of last week with his daughter, Mrs. W. Horn.

Mrs. A. Bogle has been seriously ill for the past two weeks. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. J. Hoy and family spent Christmas with Mr. Jas. Ferguson's, Normanby.

Mrs. J. Terry was the guest of Mrs. Calvert on Christmas.

Mr. Thos. Caldwell and family spent Christmas in Durham.

VARNEY.

The interment of the late George Dowling took place at Maplewood cemetery and was conducted by the Foresters. It was largely attended by friends and neighbors. His family and relatives have the sympathy of the community. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Pomeroy, of Durham.

Mr. Joseph Lennox has been very low of late owing to blood-poisoning in one of his arms, but at time of writing is improving nicely.

Mr. Ed. Mile, of Arthur, was at the bedside of his cousin J. Lennox for a few days last week.

Mr. J. Bogal's family have all been under the weather but are recovering nicely.

Quite a number from our burg attended the lecture in the Methodist church in Durham on Monday night.

Miss Ida McEwin, of Mt. Forest, is the guest of her grandmother Mrs. Archie Little this week.

Nelson Eden, while cutting wood last week, put an ugly gash in his foot which will likely keep him in the house for a time.

The County council election has made quite a stir in this section. Few votes were left unpolled here.

Mrs. Irwin Sr., and R. Irwin, formerly of this place but now of Grenfell, Assa., are home to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives. Every one is pleased to see them. They speak highly of the Prairie Province.

Mrs. Archie Little has been in very poor health of late but is somewhat better.

Mrs. T. McComb, of Bunessan, has been attending at the bedside of her mother for the last few days.

Mrs. Quinton Pettigrew has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Adam Little the last few days.

David, Sam and Charlie and Willie Petty intend going to the North West in the spring.

Wonder what attraction there is up north as our boys go that direction frequently, and take the rail road for it too.

Jim Eden is the first to bring logs to the mill this year. Jim is a hustler.

John McCalmon has the Messrs. Saunders tearing down his house on G. F. R. I suppose he is going to build greater.

Mrs. D. Allen has been confined to her bed, but we all hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

PRICEVILLE.

Mr. C. C. James and his daughter, Miss Fanny visited the Queen city last week.

Rev. Mr. Jansen, of Durham, treated the Pricevillians to a lecture on Holland last Tuesday evening, in the Presbyterian church. He referred to the influence of the country on other nations, their peculiar manners and customs regarding dress, cleanliness and other matters. Everyone seemed highly pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore and family, and Mr. Geo. Arnold, of Mount Albert, had their New Year's dinner at Mr. James Watson's.

The following officers were elected by Priceville Lodge, No. 140, A. O. U. W. for 1897:—

- James Watson, M. W.
C. C. James, Foreman.
John McDonald, Recorder.
M. Reilly, Overseer.
Wm. Watson, Financier.
Jos. Aussum, Receiver.
John McKinnon, Guide.
James Vause, Inner W.
A. Butters, Outer W.
N. McKinnon, P. M. W.

Mr. J. D. Brown ran up on Thursday evening last to have his New Year's dinner at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dugald McLean spent New Year's with their daughter in Orangeville and returned home on Saturday.

On Thursday evening last an interesting party was given at the home of Mr. John McMillan, South Line. The musical strains seemed to have a rejuvenating effect upon John.

The skating on the pond was excellent New Year's morning but thro' the influence of old Sol, and the balmy breezes of the South it soon turned soft, yet the lads and lasses hung to their sports, until thoroughly drenched they were forced to go home to dry themselves.

Mr. N. McKinnon and family took New Year's dinner with his sister, Mrs. McLachlan.

We are sorry that Henry didn't appreciate the kindness of Santa Claus, in giving him that talking d.l.

THE ELECTIONS.

REEVE—Mr. King. 1st DEPUTY—Mr. Grier. 2nd DEPUTY—Mr. Forbes. COUNCILLORS—Messrs. Dreier and O'Reilly.

EGREMONT.

REEVE—Mr. P. Dixon. 1st DEPUTY—Mr. Bye. 2nd DEPUTY—Mr. McInnes. COUNCILLORS—Messrs. Leith and Rusnell.

ARTEMESIA.

Old Council elected by acclamation with the exception of Mr. Best, who defeated Mr. Swanston in Ward No. 3.

COUNTY COUNCIL DIVISIONS.

The eight County Council divisions are as follows viz:—

- 1st—The town of Owen Sound and the township of Sarawak.
2nd—The township of Keppel, Derby and Sullivan.
3rd—The townships of Bentinck, Glenelg and the town of Durham.
4th—The townships of Normanby and Egremont.
5th—The townships of Proton and Artemesia and the villages of Dundalk and Markdale.
6th—The townships of Osprey and Collingwood and the Town of Thornbury.
7th—The townships of Euphrasia, St. Vincent and the town of Meaford.
8th—The townships of Holland and Sydenham.

At the time of going to press the full returns are not to hand, but so far as heard from the County Commissioners for Grey stand as follows, in the Divisions indicated:—

- No. 3.—Chas. McKinnon, of Durham, and Mr. Binnie of Glenelg.
No. 4.—Mr. Shenks, of Normanby, and Mr. Allen, of Egremont.
No. 5.—Mr. Richardson, of Flesher-ton, Artemesia Tp. and Mr. Watson of Proton.

In the fight for County Council honors the interest was decidedly keen, the candidates being Messrs. Binnie, of Glenelg, McKinnon, of Durham, Mr. Brigham, of Allan Park and Mr. Messinger, of Hanover. The whole quartette worked hard, and made a noble fight for the prize. Each felt confident of his success, but the result of Monday's election shows Mr. McKinnon, of Durham, and Mr. Binnie, of Glenelg, to be the choice of the people. Mr. McKinnon polled 972 votes and Mr. Binnie 874. [After part of our issue was mailed our attention was called to the fact that the name of Mr. Puthurbough, of Bentinck, had been omitted. It did not appear on the card from which we made our report, hence our much regretted omission.—Editor.]

CARD OF THANKS.

I hereby tender my thanks to the Electors of the Third County Council Division for their emphatic expression of confidence in me, given at the polls on Monday. To the friends who aided me in the campaign and to those hard, earnest work I am indebted for my position at the head of the poll, I am especially grateful. As a member of the County Council of Grey it shall be my duty to pay particular attention to the interests of the 3rd Division, and I trust that my course will prove that your confidence in me has not been misplaced. Yours Truly, CHARLES MCKINNON. Durham, Jan. 7, 1897.
