 Miss L. Logan and Miss Fairbairn left for Toronto last week.
 As correspondent for Holstein we would kindly ask the Orchardville scribe to attend to the affairs of his own village and not be encroaching on our territory as we are capable of looking after all the news that is worth inserting.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Horsburg, of the Bend, contemplate retiring from farm labors and residing in our midst if a suitable residence can be procured.
 Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kelley, of Regina, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brown.

You would not take Fifty Dollars for a Fifty Cent box of Wright's Liver and Stomach Pills if you were unable to replace them after using one treatment according to complete directions to cure that terrible sick headache, weak stomach, loss of appetite, constipation, indigestion, all bilious and nervous disorders. Trial box sent on receipt of six cents in stamps to Dixon & Wright, 31 Victoria Street, Toronto. Regular size 50c., complete treatment with directions you can procure at MacFarlane's & Co., Durham, Ont.

VARNEY.

Geo Young and McAlister went out hunting and got on the track of a black fox, so Geo. says, and did not get it that day, but Mac. was seen on the trail the next day. Its hide would be valuable.
 Mr. Thos. McComb was the guest of Mr. Little one day last week.
 You all want to prepare for the soiree to be held in Knox church Normanby on the evening of Monday Jan 25 when there will be speeches delivered by the Rev. Messrs Inkster, McVicar and others. Get your quarters ready boys. A good time is expected.
 Mr. Pettigrew is into the butchering business. Bob will make a success of it as he does with everything he undertakes.
 Mrs. Little is improving but very slowly. It is to be hoped she will soon be around again.
 Some of the ladies of this vicinity met at Mrs. Clark's last Thursday and made up a couple of quilts to send to the Missionaries. This is the second or third that these ladies have made this year for the same purpose.
