

On Saturday evening last a very enjoyable time was spent at the residence of Mr. George Young, of Normanby, when a number of the neighbors assembled to bid him good bye on the eve of his departure from among them. Mr. Young has always been regarded as an estimable citizen and his departure is much regretted by his friends and neighbors. The following address was read by Mr. Robt. Morris and a presentation made:—

To Mr. Geo. Young.
Dear Friend:—

During the past number of years, in which you have been with us, we have always found in you a kind and obliging neighbor, and it is with regret we part with you, but as the time has now come when you must leave us we desire to present you with some little memento as a token of remembrance. Accept this pipe and this purse, not for their intrinsic value, but as a token of the high esteem in which you are held amongst us. And though we may never meet again as friends and neighbors we hope to meet in the great unknown beyond. We wish you a long and happy life and continued prosperity in all your undertakings.

Signed in behalf of your neighbors.

Robt. A. Marshall,
Thos. McAlister.

Mr. Young made a feeling and appropriate reply, expressive of his good will, and the kind relations that always existed during his residence in the neighborhood.

FLESHERTON.

Received too late for last issue. The East Grey Farmers' Institute meetings held in the Town Hall here Thursday last were well attended and interesting. The trio of speakers from a distance were well up in the subjects assigned to them and discussed the same in an intelligent and profitable manner. Mr. McNabb, of Elgin County, spoke on "Sheep breeding and Management" and "Boys on the Farm." Mr. Elmer Lick, of Oshawa, on "Growing Apples, etc." and Mr. D. W. Beadle, M. A., of Toronto, discussed "Clover, Parasites, etc." At the evening meeting the hall was filled and in addition to the above speakers Dr. Christoe and Rev. Mahan each gave addresses all of which were interspersed with pleasing music by the "Glee Club" and Dr. Mahan, for which upon motion by Thos. Kells and J. Boland they were tendered a hearty vote of thanks. Mr. J. Irwin, of Redwing, occupied the chair in a pleasing manner.

The annual meeting of the East Grey Agricultural Society was also held in this place on Thursday last. The annual statement was presented and passed as also the Auditors' report showing the society to have had a prosperous year and to be now in a healthy condition. The entries last year were 1773, amount paid for prizes $552.87. Total receipts for the year were $1345.11. Expenditure $1221.72 leaving a balance on hand $123.39.

The remains of Alfred Ward were followed by a large funeral cortege from his late home in Dundalk to the Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon last. Deceased was 63 years of age and long a resident of Artemesia.

VARNEY.

Miss Martha Fee left for Guelph one day last week to fill an engagement. She will be missed by the young people of the neighborhood especially in church matters. We all wish her success.

Billy Bryons swapped horses with Thos. Russel the other day. Billy says he can take a cord and a half to town now.

Two of the young men of this vicinity cut, split and piled eight cords of wood in eight hours and nineteen minutes, who can beat this and the snow so deep.

Two young men from Blyth section were out hunting foxes the other day. After chasing one four or five miles ran him into a hole. Another gentleman seeing this, waited until the two went to get a spade to dig him out when he took a trap and set it in the hole waiting for Mr. Fox to come out, but he did not venture until the first two came back. Then the jangle began as to who owned the fox. After a good deal of talk it was left to an arbitrator and decided in favor of the first two. You ought to have seen that man seize his trap and get.

The man that tied the dog in the bush and left it there to starve or freeze, ought to be punished severely.

Mr. R. Pettigrew lost a valuable cow last week and thinking it was from feeding frozen corn had her opened and found the cause of death was due to swallowing a hair pin.

The roads were almost impassable the last week but the road masters turned out with their gangs and soon had them in a fairly good condition.

We are all pleased to see the name of our County Commissioner, Mr. J. Allan, appear in print as Warden. He can fill the position with honor for the next two years. Success to you, Jim.

Mrs. McEwen and her son, Archie, of Mt. Forest, were guests of their parents and grand-parents, for a few days last week.

Those two young men who had their coats off to fight the other night would be much better at home learning the commandments.

PRICEVILLE.

Last Friday night a large sleigh load of our young folks went for a drive to Flesherton. We understand that our friend Angus had quite a time with one of his horses, it wanting to turn in at every gate to the great amusement of the company.

Last Saturday Mr. Geo. Williams, old Durham Road, was coming to the village with a quarter of beef in his cutter, when his horse, not a very swift one generally, was not going as fast as desirable, he got out to get a gad when away went the horse and soon there was a great fall in beef.

Mr. J. Coburn left last week to take a situation in Mr. Archibald Nelson's store at Proton Station.

We understand that Mr. Sandy McDonald, known as Long Sandy has engaged for a year with Nelson Bros., of Proton Station and will likely move there shortly.

Remember the entertainment in the Sons of Temperance Hall on Thursday February 11th inst.

Mr. Alexander McMillan, South Line, happened with quite a bad accident about two weeks ago. He with a friend drove up to Bruce to visit some of his friends and as the roads were bad on account of the snow being gone, he had to pick the side of the road and often into the ditches to keep on the snow and in doing so at one place the cutter upset throwing them both out. Mr. McMillan struck his shoulder against a hard frozen bank and broke his collar bone. It will be some time before he will be able to work much, but it is fortunate for him he is not compelled to do much work.

One day last week Mr. Ernest Maxwell went in Mr. J. McArthur's store and in closing the door which has a large glass in it, he shoved his elbow through it and he had to go to Flesherton to get one large pane of glass suitable for it. He will be more careful in the future.

Mr. W. G. Watson left last Monday for Georgetown, where he intends to remain till next fall.

We have just heard that Mr. Alfred Ward of Artemesia died on Wednesday and was buried on Friday.

There was a very noisy time at the school meeting last Saturday about leasing the school grounds for two days in the year for the use of the Agricultural Society.

Ex-Mayor Reily and Mr. Scott each vied with the other to see who could say the most. We also hear that one or two parties made balls for them to fire. We are told they had a high old time. The vote was taken which was in favor of granting the society the privilege of the grounds as requested. We were informed later that there is to be a petition circulated and another meeting called shortly. This will bring forth some more of the able speeches from the above named gentlemen.

We understand the Sons of Temperance Society are to hold a grand entertainment in the near future when a great time is expected.

We learn that a certain young lady who lives on the second back line has two dogs. She has christened one Wilfred and the other Laurier; the first named is black with a white band around his neck; the other is all black. She says she is looking for a five hundred or thousand dollar situation.

Have we snow? Why yes, lots of it. Roads are being opened through fields for the travelling public.

Most of the farmers here are teaming out poles to Durham and Flesherton Station.

Mr. Will Setters, of North Dakota, but formally of this burg, is home, after renting his farm in Dakota enjoying himself with his old friends around here and Dromore.

Mr. Thos. Long, near Dromore, purchased a farm near Priceville from Allan McKinnon, of Durham, this week. We wish him luck in his new home.

Mr. J. Calvert was around lately buying up fat cattle.

Mr. Archie Little, of your town, was here on Friday also. Archie is a good buyer.

Mrs. Alex. McKechnie, Sr., relict of the late Alex. McKechnie, north of here, died on Wednesday the 27th ult., and was buried in the Priceville cemetery on Friday. A large turn out followed the remains to their last resting place.
