

TRAVERSTON.

Miss Nellie Parker, of your town, is spending this week among her old pupils and friends. Johnnie, Tom and Dave are not likely to rest well these nights, nor yet be very chummy.

Everybody is pleased to see Paul Nelson, Jr., who is up from Galt for a fortnight's holidays.

Among the big gathering last Thursday, we noticed that Mr. John Ryan and wife were as spruce, fresh and fine-looking a wedded couple as can be found.

R. Cook, of Flesherton Station, has gone into stock-dealing again. He was down here on Saturday.

Mr. A. Cook has been very poorly most of the winter.

Messrs. Wright and Banks are slicing up the logs of late at Mr. A. Goodfellow's. Business is humming at the mills now.

Last week was a terribly long one to neighbor John McNally. Cause—He had to sleep alone, his spouse being at the old home in Bentinck. Her brother Dan drove her home on Saturday, so Mac was all smiles on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cook spent a day of last week with Normanby friends.

The boys are wild over that Edge Hill pie social. They've talked over all the particulars and know now who are the champion pastry rollers.

Parsons and priests generally berate and belabor the liquor and dance evils. Well, that's all right, but we'd suggest that they wriggle out of the rut and denounce some other evils just as paramount. Moreover, when farmers, laborers, or artisans are struggling might and main to be honest, don't accuse them of a greed for gold. That's pure rot.

No wonder townspeople grumble sometimes about dishonest wood-pilers. We saw a pile last week in a yard of lower town that would ruffle the risibles of a philosopher.

And so the whitewinged Dove of Moss Lake detests slang and fiction, but fairly dotes on the Beaver. Poor dear! we feel sorry for you because the members of the Menagerie are not very choice in their vernacular, and the bachelor scribes will be green with jealousy owing to your outspoken preference. However, we trust your influence will greatly amend our grievous ways.

Rev. Mr. Isaacs of Holstein, made a favorable impression on Zionites on Sunday. His missionary discourse was good.

Rev. Mr. Grey, of Laurel, came up on the C. P. R. train on Saturday and is visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. Banks.

ROB ROY.

Misses Lizzie Burnet and Susie McKinnon of your town drove out to the entertainment last Friday evening.

Miss Susie Kennedy has been laid up with the Grippe for the last week but is better now we are glad to say.

The entertainment held in the school last Friday evening was quite a success and was represented by nearly all the surrounding communities. Mr. Irwin of THE CHRONICLE was one of the speakers of the evening. Mr. Dixon the teacher deserves much credit for the way he had the children trained to sing.

The proceeds, which were for the purpose of buying presents for the children, amounted to about $14.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adams of Holstein paid their annual visit to Mr and Mrs. Thos. McComb last Tuesday. Mr. Adams is a constant subscriber and reader of THE CHRONICLE.

DORNOCH.

On Wednesday morning the 17th inst. Mr. Timothy O'Flynn of Woodstock was united in marriage to Miss Mary Agnes Quirk daughter of Mr. Quirk of this village. The ceremony was solemnized at the altar in St. Paul's church which was nicely decorated for the occasion, the Rev. Father Buckley officiating. The groom was helped through the trying ordeal by his brother while the bride was assisted by her sister Miss Maggie Quirk of Toronto. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple left to spend their honeymoon in the Queen city after which they will settle down in their own home near Woodstock. To the deserving couple we voice the best wishes of all Dornochers for a happy and prosperous future.

The Trux lumber gang left for Walkerton Friday. They are a jovial lot and will be greatly missed.

A Forty-Year Old Grievance

Removed.

In Bath, Ont., Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a standard remedy. Joseph Gardner, of this town, suffered for 40 years with indigestion and its ever present accompaniments—constipation and headache. K. & L. Pills are the only remedy that gave him relief. 25c. a box, of all druggists. One pill a dose.

Rubbing It In.

Never use a liniment for rheumatism, says a high medical authority. Don't rub it in—drive it out. Take something that removes the acid poison from the blood—take something that will improve your digestion, and build up the body to the perfection of robust health. That "something" is Scott's Sarsaparilla, a remedy that obtains the best results in the shortest time. $1. of all druggists.
