Mrs. Vandusen, Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. Heron and Mrs. Mitchell spent Friday last with friends in Dundalk.

Inspector Damude, of Toronto, was in town Saturday last.

PRICEVILLE.

Some of our Durham Roaders came into town on Friday last and indulging some what freely in Paddy's eye water became exceedingly funny. A certain clock tinker too was in the same predicament. Soon a recital of their good deeds was given when both Bob and the tinker were shoved out, and Bob choked the tinker to the great amusement of the crowd, and even to the tinker himself, who suffered very little from the feeble efforts of poor Bob to effect his annihilation. Shortly after Bob was taken home in a sleigh and it is said he got worse when he got there.

Mr. Ostrander, south line, was in Brampton on business last week.

The Temperance entertainment last Thursday night was a grand success, and everyone seemed pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Miss Ida Irwin, of Flesherton, was visiting at Mr. James' on Saturday last.

Miss Maggie Ferris, of Proton, is visiting the Rev. Mr. Humphrey's.

Mr. Neil McKinnon is ill at present but we hope to see him around soon.

Mrs. McKinnon died last week at the ripe old age of four-score and ten years. She was buried on Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Humphrey's officiating in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. McLeod.

VARNEY.

The ice harvest is now on and farmers are laying in a supply for use during the summer.

The young man who took his girl to the social and had to come home alone wouldn't feel so blue if he knew that an advertisement in THE CHRONICLE would repair all damages, and give a normal flutter to his wounded heart. "The course of true love never did run smooth."

Mr. John Gray has treated himself to a dandy driver.

Mr. Thos. Petty sold a horse on Fair Day at a good price.

Mr and Mrs. Eidt have been under the weather for the last few days but are improving nicely.

Quite a number of Families in this locality have an attack of whooping cough.

Archie Little of your town was around last week buying cattle and picked up quite a number.

Mr. Richard Gadd of Normanby is the guest of his brother Charles this last couple of weeks.

The error which we was accused of making last week, about Pete McEwen by the Orchardville scribe was true as far as we are concerned. Our authority came from the farmer tenant of the place, who told certain persons that they could rent the place now as Pete McEwen had bought it and wanted to rent it.
