At the annual meeting of the patrons held in Toronto last week president Mallory attributed the treachery of the late Grand Secretary Walsh, the School Question, ballot stuffing and beedling, as causes why so few patron members had been returned. It has been suggested that the name be changed.

Mr. Samuel Brown, of the ninth line south, St. Vincent, met with a terrible accident on Friday last. Observing two of the cattle fighting in the barnyard, he went to separate them. when one of the animals caught him between the legs with its horns, lifting him completely off his feet, and tearing open the flesh of his body and thigh in a ghastly manner. A physician was immediately summoned, who dressed the wounds of the unfortunate man, and he is now doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances .- Meaford Mirror.

Mrs. Wm. Juniper of Hepworth dropped dead last Monday week. The Hepworth Journal says:-"Deceased was in her usual health at noon and was joking with her husband as he left the house for the shop. About two o'clock Mr. Juniper returned to the house, and entered in time to see his wife fall to the floor. Before assistance could be got the unfortunate woman was a corpse. She was married on the 22nd. of Sept.

Her maiden name was Sarah Cox of St. Vincent and she belonged to a highly respected family.

Mr. Hugh John Macdonald has been requested by the opposition in the Manitoba Legislature to accept the leadership of the Conservatives in the prairie province. Sir Charles Tupper has consented to release him from his obligation, believing that strengthening conservatism in the provinces is of vital importance to its success in Federal politics.

The Corliss clause in the American Alien Labor Bill is causing considerable anxiety and no small measure of indignation in our Canadian Frontier towns, notably in Windsor and Walkerville. Congressman Corliss, a resident of Detroit, wishes to prohibit laborers in the U. States from residing in Canada. It is learned however that, the number crossing the river each way is pretty nearly balanced and already, some of the Canadian establishments have notified their employees, that should the bill become law they must either become residents of Canada or give up their situations. Professor Goldwin Smith, of Toronto, who was interviewed in New York, speaking of this question says:-"It is not only an absurd law, if it becomes law, but it is the veriest claptrap imaginable." He says also :- Canada will pass retaliatory measures and much irritation and unkind feeling will be engenderd. Already I there is much feeling on the subject. and the Canadians who are anti-United States are not slow in expressing their opinions and making the best of the situtation. I am not attacking the bill generally but the clause that Congressman Corliss had inserted. It is unjust discrimination against a friendly and neighborly nation, and is inspired by politics alone. I hope the papers of this country will point out the absurdity of such a clause, and prevent, if
