AS GOOD AS GOLD.

CHAPTER XLIII.

What Henchard saw thus early was, naturally enough, seen at a little later so dry. date by other people. That Mr. Farfrae 'walked with that bankrupt' Henchard's stepdaughter, of all women,' became a common topic in the town.

whom this looming choice of the Scotchman's gave unmixed satisfaction were shouldered his basket, and went on. the members of the philosophic party. Mrs. Stannidge, having rolled into the large parlour one evening, and said that it was a wonder such a man as Mr. Farfrae, "a pillow of the town," who might have chosen one of the daughters of the professional men, or private residents, should stoop so low, Coney ventured to disagree with her.

"No, ma'am, no wonder at all. 'Tis she that's a stooping to he-that's my he?" opinion. A widow-man-whose first | wife was no credit to him-what is it for a young perusing woman, that's her "He will go far—he's bent upon get-own mistress and well-liked? But as ting out of sight and sound!" much good in it. When a man have when they reached the town pump turned with him into Corn Street, in- ward. It now became apparent that a neat patching up of things I see put up a tomb of best marble-stone to stead of going straight on to her own the direction of his journey was Weythe other one, as he've done, and weep- door. At Farfrae's house they stopped don Priors, which he reached on the said to himself, "T'other took me in; ground-floor sitting-room, saying, "There he is waiting for you," and out to her step-father by Elizabeth her-Richard Newson. self or by Farfrae either. Reasoning Newson's pride in what she had grown on the cause of their reticence he conup to be was more than he could express. He kissed her again and again.

Said, after ascertaining his bearings.

Carried on will reading a ballet-sheet. Then we would be heartily glad to get out of bring her round." "Faith, says 1, so more this way." He walked to anothsociety, this moody view of himself "Well, Henchard is gone," said Fartent had stood, but it seemed so to him. killed both of them. took deeper hold of Hen- it all voluntarily and as I method the we went in, and here we sat the glass and for some seconds made no other movement. Newson waited, and "And what I've bear third." Said Farfrae.

Warrendered as second time of a world that had become a mere painted scene to him. that morning. Waiting in vain he at ence when a couple's married not to hae as badly as can be; while I, an outlast retraced his steps, and Henchard "With all my heart," said Captain nobody, I live on, and can't die if I meet him, either on the Budmouth Road at noon to-day, or in the evening at Mr. Farfra's. He says he camet to see thild, come and hearken to what we don't understand it; but that we window as if ye didn't hear."

Was nighted extravagantly, and that say herself about it? Elizabeth, my be talking about, and not bide staring out o' the window as if ye didn't hear."

Was nighted extravagantly, and that say herself about it? Elizabeth, my be talking about, and not bide staring out o' the window as if ye didn't hear."

A revolving palese 362 foot high in don't understand it; but between you and me I think Donald is at the bottom "Donald and you must settle it," mur
"Donald and you must settle it," mur mured Elizabeth still bearing about, and not bide staring a flitting of bride and bridegroom from the town immediately after the ceremoney had not been thought of and at of the mystery, and that it is a relation mured Elizabeth, still keeping up a money had not been thought of, and at the divided into several floors, that hour Mr. and Mrs. Farfrae were to be used as restaurants, theatree of the product of the pro not care about her more, "I am going house room, and all that, I'll do my to leave Casterbridge, Elizabeth-Jane." part in the drinkables."

by you alone as well as by us both; I you leave all to me." don't care about shops and streets and When they had gone a little farther

I go."

Then," she said at last, "you will not be able to come to my wedding; and that is not as it ought to be."

"I don't want to see it—I don't want to see it—I don't want to see it!" he exclaimed; adding more

Then hearing at some the name of Henchard had been Mayor house one morning. The joker!—he interpretation on my way westward, not knowing Eliz—place—I forget where—that a man of here, I came back, and called at his Jane's partner.

The first time that they saw him he very local place—I forget where—that a man of here, I came back, and called at his Jane's partner.

The first time that they saw him he very local place—I forget where—that a man of here, I came back, and called at his Jane's partner.

The first time that they saw him he very local place—I forget where—that a man of here, I came back, and called at his Jane's partner.

The first time that the measure was also trod by some one who out-Farfraed Farfrae in sal-thus sign displayed: "Thirteen two-one who out-Farfraed Farfrae in sal-thus sign displayed: "Thirteen two-one who out-Farfraed Farfrae in sal-thus was strange, and it was strange, below the place—I forget where—that a man of here, I came back, and called at his Jane's partner.

The first time to be who out-Farfrae in sal-thus was strange, and it was strange, below the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place—I forget where—that a man of here. Then hearing at some the place to see it!" he exclaimed; adding more house one morning. The joker!—he said Elizabeth-Jane had died years was sweeping grandly round, his head only and low down his legs in think of me when you are living as Elizabeth now gave earnest heed to the form of an X, and his back towards his elbows on it, and gave way to a convulsive twitch, which was worse

that was not to be. I—Cain—go alone he was my father, he should not have vertical strip of blue sea to any one opening the sash, and leaning forward Perhaps the only inhabitants to bond. But my punishment is not great-

He sternly subdued his anguish, turedly. Elizabeth, in the meantime, had breathed, him a sigh, recovered her equanimity and turned her face to Casterbridge. Before she had reached the first house she was met in her walk by Donald Farfrae. This was evidently not their first meeting that day; they joined hands without ceremony, and Farfrae anxiously asked, "And is he gone-and did you tell him ?-I ! mean of the other matter-not of ours." "He is gone; and I told him all know of your friend. Donald who is "Well, well, dearie; you will know soon about that. And Mr. Henchard will hear of it if he goes not go far."

piece for a partner, and there's no Elizabeth entered. In the arm-chair sat the broad-faced genial man who had well, he may do worse than not take morning between one and two years bemorning between one and two years betill he discovered the road by which his the villages of Alaska. He who eats cluded that, estimating him by his past, press. He kissed her again and again. reading a ballet-sheet. Then we the throbbing pair were afraid to and meet me—ha-ha!" said Newson.

"The fact is that Mr. Farfrae here he all because of mr. cursed pride and that his annual income is nearly broach the subject, and looked upon "The fact is that Mr. Farfrae here, he all, because of my cursed pride, and and that his annual income is nearly $6,000,000 him as a lion in the path whom they said, "Come up and stop with me for mortification at being poor. Then we $6,000,000.

chard, till the daily necessity of facing from Elizabeth-Jane, he has been very drank, and committed my crime. It like the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the time of the same as those used in the same as the same as those used in the same as mankind, and of them particularly Eliznice with her. I was got rather uneasy: but all is as it should be and we ring that she was standing when she for that country's wretched condition. abeth-Jane became well-nigh more than easy; but all is as it should be, and we ring that she was standing when she will have no more difficulties at all." said her last words to me before going off with him to a standing when she said her last words to me before going mistaken in his views, and there were said Newson, looking into the face of now, and the sound of her sobs: 'Oh, Mike L've lived with thee all this no necessity that his own absolute sep- each by turns. "I said to myself, ay, Mike, I've lived with thee all this aration from her should be involved in the incident of her marriage?

a hundred times, while I've been living on in my Budmouth lodging, and I said Now I'm no more to 'ee—I'll try my Elizabeth often took her walks on a ten-pound note to buy books and And thus Henchard found himself for one. He was disgusted when he rethe Budmouth Road, and Farfrae as clothes; and I have said it when I have again on the precise standing which he ceived one that had been in his own tried to get a peep at her unknown to had occupied five-and-twenty years be- State. herseif—"Depend upon it, 'tis best that fore. Externally there was nothing One day Henchard was at this spot thing turns up for the better." I now the upward slope, and by his new lights I should live on quiet like this till some- to hinder his making another start on when a masculine figure came along know you are all right, and what can achieving higher things than his soul hatters, who use the hair in the manuother movement. Newson waited, and "And what I've been thinking is, that Very often, as he wandered on, he ered and shaved twenty times a day.

A handsome man in Vanceburg Ky ed a waiting which was a transfixture. my own roof, the house being large, and himself, "Here and everywhere are thirty-five years of age, has four wives folk dying before their time like frost. But Elizabeth-Jane did not come.

Newson did not see anything of her would be saved to and their own families.

Newson did not see anything of her would be saved to and their own families. Newson did not see anything of her would be saved ye—and 'tis a convenitible country, and their own families, as badly as can be; while I an out-few hours' respite. When he reached his own house he found her there.

"Oh, father," she said innocently, "I have had a letter—a strange one—not signed. Somebody has asked me to meet him, either on the Budmouth Road meet him but what do the young woman meet him at the him been able to extend his vision other. Through the night shades as far as that evening, Henchard would have seen that the door of his old house was wide open, that the hall was lighted extravagantly, and that ship a worthy couple in Trenton, Mo., agreed that it was about time to wed.

The but what do the young woman meet him at the him been able to extend his vision of through the night shades as far as would have seen that the door of his old house was wide open, that the hall was lighted extravagantly, and that the world once a year. He through the night shades as far as would have seen that the door of his old house was wide open, that the hall was lighted extravagantly, and that it was about time to wed.

Farmers, Threshers are one—or through the night shades as far as would have seen that the door of his old house was wide open, that the hall was lighted extravagantly, and that it was about time to wed.

Henchard replied heavily, "Yes; go." turning anew to Farfrae with a face "Well, then," continued Newson, He surprised the young woman, whom expressing thorough entry into the subhe had looked upon as his all in this ject, "that's how we'll have. And Mr. world, by saying to her, as if he did Farfrae, as you provide so much, and "I am sorry you have decided on this," ye, or have I, Mr. Farfrae, how Hen-do, Izzy," said Henchard huskily. "If gone I can tell ye. Why, Icame to ure made them the partners of a much I did not approve, it would be no mat- Casterbridge nine or ten months be- ment their emotions breathed a much ter. I wish to go away. My presfore that day that I found ye out. I subtler essence than at other times. ence might make things awkward in had been here twice before then. The By degrees the idlers became aware the sale of postage stamps. One of them has this sign displayed: "Thirteen two the future; and, in short, it is best that first time I passed through the town on my way westward not know on my way westward not know on the first time I passed through the town that the measure was also trod by some has this sign displayed: "Thirteen two-cent stamps for a cent and a quarter."

"It is because of Donald!" she sob- back to the coach that had brought me, lieve me, I was that upset, that I went happy form was Captain Newson's. "I don't forbid you to marry him" in the town half-an-hour. Ha-ha-such a simpleton as to believe him? were or other. Twas as much my fault as his, poor The contiguity of salt water proved than a sob, because it was so hard and your disposition—you always were so ciety of his daughter in the other town. "If I had only got her with me—if ther say so hundreds of times—and he ings in a green-shuttered cottage I only had!" he said. "Hard work did it to wrong you. After weaning which had a bow-window, jutting out would be nothing to me then! But me from you these five years by saying sufficiently to afford glimpses of a sufficiently to a sufficient to a suffi over and past," said Newson good-na- lane of tall intervening houses. "Now, about this wedding

CHAPTER XLIV.

Meanwhile, the man of their talk had pursued his solitary way eastward till weariness overtook him, and he looked about for a place of rest. The bright autumn sun shining into his eyes across the stubble awoke him the next mornate for his breakfast what he had packed for his supper; and in doing so overhauled the remainder of his kit. Although everything he brought necessitated carriage at his own back, he had secreted among his tools a few of Elizabeth-Jane's cast-off belongings, in the shape of gloves, shoes, a scrap of her handwriting, and the like; and in his pocket he carried a curl of her afternoon of the sixth day.

The renowned hill, whereon the an. These Few Paragraphs May Prove Interfore this time, and whom the latter had wife and himself and entered on the the most is considered the most accom-Not a hint of the matter was thrown seen mount the coach and depart within upland so memorable to both, two or plished man. half-an-hour of his arrival. It was three-and-twenty years before.

said, after ascertaining his bearings. carried on when the speakers are two "Now, that's very much as I thought," off with him; I can hear their sound Applying his telescope to his eye, Hen- ly; and Henchard, after all, has more chinery contrived by the gods for reducing human possibilities of ameliorapier if I were residing with ye public- to accomplish. But the ingenious ma-"You sent that ten pounds?" said she tion to a minimum—which arranges lenses revealed that to-day the man requested. But Mr. Henchard wonder- with the departure of zest for doing "Well, Captain Newson, I will be no wish to make an arena a second teach the tonsorial art in five weeks.

Donald himself was taking a leading part in the festivity, his voice being "Leave Casterbridge!" she cried, "and "Oh, none—we shan't want much of that—oh no!" said Farfrae, shaking his head with respectable gravity. "Do She was in a dress of white silk or don't care about shops and streets and folk—I would rather get into the couning these particulars, Newson, leaning try by myself, out of sight, and follow back in his chair and smiling reflective—the expression of here face was one of der his wig. she said with difficult firmness. "For chard put me off the scent that time?"

He expressed ignorance of what the I thought it probable—possible—that I He expressed ignorance of what the spicuous in a moment. The pair were spicuous in a moment. The pair were time hence, and I did not know that "Ah, I thought I hadn't. I resolved was apparent that there was a word-"I approve of anything you desire to hurt the man's name. But now he's whenever the interchanges of the figthat I would not, I remember; not to less speech between them; and that man in the town, and don't let my sins, "Now, it never crossed my mind that round in the direction, his white waistwhen you know them all, cause ye to quite forget that though I loved 'ee late tinued Newson. "And, if you'll be preceding his face, and his toes lieve me I was that we have form was Captain Newson's the door. The next time he came

He went on till he came to the first Elizabeth sighed. "I said I would three days after the wedding party, day have been found in great numbers and was stared at and honored as be In Pompeii They were of gold ailers." half-way up a steep hill. He rested his ought to forget him now!"

and was stared at and nonored as became the returned Crusoe of the hour. Slass, agate, may basket on the top of the stone, placed "Well, 'twas not ten words that he On the fourth morning he was discovprecious stones."

said, after all," Newson pleaded. "And ered climbing a hill, in his craving to how could he know that I should be get a glimpse of the sea from some-

"No," said Elizabeth-Jane firmly, in that he preferred Budmouth as a place her revulsion of feeling. "He knew of residence, notwithstanding the sotrusting, father; I've heard my mo- Thither he went, and settled in lodg-"Well, well-never mind-it is all far enough to look through a narrow

In exploring her new domain during the first week of residence, Mrs. Elizabeth Farfrae had been reminded often of her stepfather, whose house this of hers had formerly been. He was now homeless-possibly penniless.

From that hour her heart softened towards the self-alienated man; till at length she begged Frafrae to help her in finding out as soon as possible, whether Henchard had banished himself, that she might try to do something to make his life less that of an outsact, and more tolerable to him. Although Farfrae had never so passionately liked Henchard as Henchard ha dliked him, he had, on the other hand, never so passionately hated in the same direction as his former friend had done; and he was therefore not the least indisposed to assist Elizabeth Jane in her laudable plan.

(To Be Continued.)

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

esting Reading,

Unlicensed dogs are put to death in

The air is so clear and dry in the

At Jasper, Fla., a dog chased a rabbit, which dashed into a gopher hole.

An open-top thimble containing a wet sponge, to be used in moistening envelope flaps, and thus facilitating the sealing of letters, is the invention of facture of soft hats. Excessive tea drinking shatters the nervous system, weakens the brain, injures the appetite, disturbs the digestive organs, and causes cold feet. So

He permits the novices to practice on and three families. He was lately divorced from his third spouse, and the next morning was married to the

of his who wants to pass an opinion scrutinizing gaze at some small object that hour Mr. and Mrs. Farfrae were in the street.

It will be divided into several floors, entertaining a houseful of guests at and will revolve continuously. entertaining a houseful of guests at and will revolve continuously on a cen-

Coffee derives its name from Kaffa, East Africa, where the berry was first raised. Mocha coffee is so named from Steam Engines, Horse Powers, a port on the Red Sea, in Arabia, where Separators, Mowers, Reapers.

In San Francisco there are two rival ners. Their rivalry is shown even in ood shingles.

VENEER USED FOR WRAPPING PURPOSES.

Wood veneer is used to some extent for doing up bundles, instead of paper. Curtain pole manufacturers, for instance, when shipping or delivering poles in small lots wrap them up in veneer. It costs a little more than "I don't forbid you to marry him aid Henchard evasively. "Promise not to quite forget me when—"He meant when Newson should come.

She promised mechanically, in her agitation; and the same evening at dusk Henchard left the town, to whose development he had been one of the chief velopment he can wish the closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was about a month after the day which closed as in the last chapter. It was abo paper, but not much, and it is much

He went on till he came to the first He went on till he came to the first milestone, which stood in the bank, never forget him. But, oh! I think I ought to forget him now!"

I said I would three days after the wedding party, and was stared at and honored as became the returned Crusoe of the hour. In Pompeii. They were of gold, silver, glass, agate, marble and other semi-

Before Retiring ....

take Ayer's Pills, and you will sleep better and wake in better condition for the day's work. Ayer's Cathartic Pills have no equal as a pleasant and effectual remedy for constipation, biliousness, sick headache, and all liver troubles. They are sugar-coated, and so perfectly prepared, that they cure without the annoyances experienced in the use of so many of the pills on the market. Ask your druggist for Ayer's Cathartic Pills. When other pills won't help you, Ayer's is

THE PILL THAT WILL.

BRISTOL'S BRISTOL'S BRISTOL'S

Sarsaparilla COATED PILLS

The Greatest of all Liver, Stomach and Blood Medicines,

A SPECIFIC FOR Rheumatism, Gout and Chronic Complaints.

They Cleanse and Purify the Blood.

All Druggists and General Dealers.

AT THE BRICK FOUNDRY -- WE MAKE --

Furnace Kettles, Power Staw Cutters, Hot Air Furnaces, Shingle distinctly audible in the street, giving have been great sleepers. He believes Farmers' Kettles, Columns, Church try. Idlers were standing on the pave- that if a man could sleep eighteen hours Seat Ends, Bed Fasteners, Fencing, ment in front, and presently it could a day, without the aid of narcotics, he Pump-Makers' Supplies, School Patrick Alliger, an old bachelor, supported himself chiefly by begging in Light Castings and Builders' Supplies Sole Plates and Points for She was in a dress of white silk or the streets of Dublin. He became ill, plies, Sole Plates and Points for satin—the observers were not near and insisted on wearing his wig and the different ploughs in use. Casting

-- WE REPAIR --

coffee house in England was opened in Gummed, Filed and Set. Circular and Cross-Cut Saws I am prepared to fill orders for the County of Grey.

> CHARTER SMITH, DURHAM FOUNDRYMAN

THE TEM

The Temple ful spectacular cccupied the a people during weeks in prep in the town ha and Monday e room was at remained aw would be im modation. T picked up in s waited learne that "delays rush around to select the commonplace wild for a til coming The ladies of Dur ers, and accor cured at any Newspaper credit for p mances. Sor even go so fa for their rep right here th be treated a ICLB. That even get a 3 anything the ed by pure ! ous editor, bounty free. ing up Th preposterou enough in noble youn their excell The sceni and its tast thing conne conclusive character fi are noted tumes, one artistic tha let it be sa avo ano tinsel so o for such sp No! they Durham, perfect poe To do I would req

ICLES, SO V ence of the to exercise giving us tions. The plan lined as fo A crowi goddess, v to all to p princesses etc., etc., goddess one's plea the crown er, whose for those that " th rules the Mrs. H fully intr sent cut Bull, rep ful recita liberty 8 purity.

Isabella most gr Her plea Columbu when ot Elizab of Miss characte religiou her reig Miss of Mary ingly gi dignity, her ant descript subjects audienc Ruth sented ! was rep Miss power ( with m Bridge Josiah McRae Annie by Mis might the exdown plause To o appear repres was I evenin

Scotch mover Mrs I of the the e Hyp

demai Pome Alice w Bon Poe Miss menti