HORRID SPANISH PRISONS.

THE MONSTER MAN-PENS OF CEUTA AND LOS PINOS.

Masters-Unparelleled Crueltles-Regulations that Provoke Epidemics of Suicide.

Foreigners who have enjoyed the hospitality of Spanish families in the birthplace of chivalry have again and again expressed a suspicion that the horrors of warfare in the West Indies must have been exaggerated for political purposes. Their conjectures were grees in the sun-blistered barracks is founded on time-confirmed personal impressions, but can be applied only to special character traits of the Spanish nations.

Perhaps no other race of the present world has more strangely localized its idea of social duties. Their conception of generosity could be defined by the word, class-loyalty. The meanest blockheads who ever succeeded one another on the throne of a great country were Charles' IV. and his son, Ferdinand, yet for these two crowned baboons, the Spaniards poured out their unbearable that the streets of the litblood like water, brave the hardships the seaport town are abandoned for who still rub and boil will shake your of the wilderness and sacrificed themselves by thousands in the defense of at work, quarrying, digging and kiln-Burgos and Saragossa. A Spanish hid- stoking, while their guards, fanned by thorough trial and you, too, will be algo would sooner cut off his right proxy, are watching them from under convinced. after the manner of Thomas Moore, their work is allowed to slacken a little who burned the autobiography of Lord Byron to please a clique of bigots and backbiters; but that same hidalgo would | shades, and now and then indulge in a be apt to treat prisoners of war with nap, trusting the consequences to the a cruelty which the valet of Tom Moore would have hesitated to practice in a dog kennel.

power of the Moorish invaders impressed their Gothic adversaries with served under the name of beef at supthe notion that rebels and dissenters per. The remains of each meal are have no rights which a loyalist needs flung back in the meat box, and under respect. King Pedro, of Aragon, finally fails to prevent the visible disboasted his success in entrapping a he- integration of the scrap pile. The in response to and was beheaded the moment the sends a muleteer with a couple of never jam them down in the basket in drawbridge of the castle had closed be- sacks for a fresh-or comparatively any kind of way, for if each piece is hind him. The Beni Harath, a band of Mauritanian partisans who had been standing reward of 200 pesetas (about tend with when ironing day comes. captured in the citadel of Seville, were ed the protests even of North European visitors.

A FLATTERING INVITATION,

Spanish armies, but not their methods of warfare. "Those fellows carry on from their guards in the quarriess in yeast cannot be made without hops. the agitator Stepniak had seen the would retract his assertion that the cape from the presidio of Palavan in the tablespoons ginger; 2 quarts hot wa-Russian jailers are the most inhuman the refugees can desert only across the oughly dissolved, add one cake of dry some of their neighbors manage their mode of rapid transit by dozens at a become sour. Cork up tight and keep cost the Russian Empire 500,000 men, slaughter upon absurdly slight provoand 1,000,000,000 rubles, but when the cation. rebel chief Shamyl was finally captured These world-renouncers are Buddace for a comple of weeks put as Ad hists, who realize the vale-of-tears docace for a couple of weeks, put an Ad- cloisters of our gloomiest ascetics, but jutant and a relay of saddle horses at | men of the west Caucasian races can not his service, and finding him deeply easily be persuaded to relinquish exissunk in religious melancholy, paid his expenses to Mecca, and dismissed him with princely presents. The Spani- And risk a plunge into a possibly kitchen comes health or disease, acards would probably have hung him to the next tree or scourged him to alternative. To lighten the weight of death. Hundreds of captured chief- their own troubles the jailers of the ery of the new world, and it might be and clean the horrid dungeons only questioned if their fate was not prefer- once a week, even when rats, floor ing extent. The practice of using any French have begun to rear at last, or able to the doom of the poor wretches snakes and vermin have multiplied to old rag that comes convenient for dish- begin to rear the fabric of what they de Pinos, the "Isle of Pines," south of foul diet of fish and spoiled rice gruel, too strongly condemned. Cuba, has the baying of mastiffs for a but the abuse of the trustee system matin hymn, and the howls of horse- turns the scales. The government in- loosely woven crash, hemmed and procoast swamps, and at break of dawn want to treat themselves to an outing, it is used again. the convicts are marched out to work they deputize their functions to a The dish-towels must be rinsed after

THE FESTERING TRENCHES, and a pack of galgos, fleeter and fiercer than our bloodhounds. As the prisoners file out of the stockade these brutes snap at their heels-por reconoderios-to "renew their personal ac- yearly appreciation. quaintance," as it were, and recall them to a sense of their duty if they should stray off under a spell of hypnotism. At 10 a. m., the guards are relieved; about an hour after noon the prisonrest and lunch, and at 5 p. m., they are driven back to their swelter pens. The principal meal of the day is then served in the form of sun-dried fish and collos de maiz-corn, roughly ground and baked into cakes with ditchwater. Some of the prisoners come home so wenk that they do not feel like eating, but crouch in a corner of the noisome den till the cool night air revives their appetite. Others worry down their rations the best way they can, and then sit fanning themselves with palm-leaf shreds, while transgressors ulations are fanned with cowhides. At | next door? sundown, or sooner, the guards and their assistants make their reports. So she keeps chickens. many men black-marked for laziness, so many for talking, for insolence, for disregard of orders. The assistants, especially, are almost sure to prefer a charge of some sort or other. They plan for economizing in fuel that has are trusties, or paroled prisoners, try- saved me a great deal of money this ing to curry favor by an excess of zeal, winter. and find it the cheapest way to signalize their loyalty at the expense of |: Whenever my wife tells me to order quarrelling; I tried to stop a quarrel, pleads a newcomer. "This ruffian attacked my father, a weak, old man, who can not take his own part unarmed, and I merely interfered in the in- HINTS FOR YOUNG HOUSEWIVES. terest of peace and-"

"Calla la boca, perro," interrupts the jailer, "Hush up, you cur. Take them Paradoxes of the Spanish Character-The out, Gonzales, and make them remem- plexity" as to how to proceed with this Truest Friends but the Hardest Task. ber the day of the week-twenty-five apiece—gag that rascal if he says an other word. Give him ten extra, anyhow, for talking without permission." The refuge of the weary peace in sleep is curtailed by clouds of that enter the dungeon whenever an unbearable state of atmospheric conditions compels the prisoners to rescreens. A temperature of 115 dethe average of a summer afternoon, perience. and it may be near midnight before the influence of the night wind begins to make itself felt in the upper bunks of the crowded dormitories. At midnight at 5 a. m., the indoor air has at last turned pleasantly cool, but just about that time the reveille gun booms from the parade ground, and the turnkey unchains the four-footed revivalists.

VENOMOUS INSECTS

miles from the hottest point of the Mediterranean coastlands. The hills in the southeast intercept the land wind, and in the early afternoon the glare of the western sun becomes often so bake-oven hours the convicts are kept you hear the rest. Only give it a vigilance of their fan-boys. The rough barley bread of the Morocco peasants and a sort of cheap treacle is the staple diet of the convicts, who mostly The 800 years' struggle against the prefer to shift with half rations rather than touch the horrible melange of salt and slaughter-house offal that dogs will decline to touch it, then BURIES THE REFUSE, rinses out the box with salt water, and year; prisoners dig out, clamber out, labor and time spent.

war against the Circassian highlanders | coasts of the Asiatic mainland where seaport town.

Like a dwelling we are quitting, Like a garment no more fitting. shoreless sea, unless the evils of life gang of brutal and vindictive ex-con- using, and hung near the fire. They physicians to use a cane with a hollow ers get a twenty minutes' recess for head, the top of which was gold pierced with holes like a pepper box. The top the sink and prevent the pipes from tion of 1855, the first of the series contained a small quantity of aromatic getting clogged with grease. powder, or of snuff, and on entering a house or room where a disease supposed to be infectious prevailed, the doctor would strike his cane on the floor to agitate the powder and then apply t to his nose, Hence all the old prints of physicians !represent them with canes to their noses.

OLD CUSTOM OF PHYSICIANS.

NOT CONGENIAL.

HEAT WITHOUT COST.

I have discovered, said Blinkley, a

How is that? asked Dinkley. their fellow-convicts. Fighting in quar-ters is also a frequent cause of com-plaint. "But, senor, I have not been need it all."

About the House.

Many young housekeepers often find themselves in a "sea of doubt and peror what ails that, and are often overwhelmed by the amount of waste incurred in experimenting writes a correspondent. For the benefit of those who, like the writer, may be situated several miles from kith or kin, and to ask advice of a friendly neighbor, move the bags that serve as window- I will tell of a few things I have learned from actual and ofttimes bitter ex-In most households the hardest task of the week comes on Monday with the family washing. I was educated to the blood still simmers in fever heat, washing machine, and considered that one of the indespensables. But I soon needed so much extra rubbing by hand that the machine was abandoned ex-The Centa man-pen is only twelve cept for washing bed clothing, which seems to be its proper sphere, and have since used "nine o'clock washing tea" or something similar, with the best results. Now, you older housewives hours together. But during these heads and be filled with horror when cumstance that their taskmasters hesi- amount of washing tea is thrown in. tate to leave the shelter of their sun The finer white clothes are merely dipped and wrung out of cold water, soiled places well soaped, and put into stirred often to loosen the dirt and when removed to tub but little rubbing will be required. After this "sudsing" it is best to let them lie as long the clothes are ready for the line. Some may say the continued use of 'washing tea" and such helps will in-or expected.

When removing clothes from the line | tle. fresh-supply. Recaptured deserters partly folded and laid in separately risk to be scourged to death, and a there will be fewer wrinkles to con-$50, a alrge sum in that poor country.) Some say: "O, I can slight my iron-Time has changed the weapons of tempt is made every month in the ironed articles more than pays for the like a gang of marauding Apaches in the hope of reaching the hospitable hill But such is not the case. Hops are not make them of a pretty ecru tint by always make in cold weather:

Phillippine Islands, but the plurality of ter. When cool and ingredients thor-

When butter is found to be too solid the jaundiced Malays commit self- for immediate working, cold water poured over will soon have the desired effect. Butter should never be rubbed in working, as that spoils the grain, and gives it a greasy appear-

CARE OF THE SINK.

A dirty sink is an abomination, and The World's Progress to be Completely should not be allowed. From the cording as our food is prepared, and the cooking vessels clean or otherwise.

whipped delinquents for an evening spector calls only once a year, and in vided with a tape for hanging it in is dissolved, will remove grease from

SOME GOOD RECIPES.

Tripe Soup.—Necessary ingredients: Half a pound of tripe, three pints of water, a turnip, a carrot, three onions, sweet herbs, parsley, half a pint of cold milk, and two tablespoonfuls of cornflour. First scald the tripe, and Aren't you afraid your husband will cut it into very small pieces, before against one of the numerous prison reg- be fascinated by that pretty widow sitting on to boil with the cold water. and herbs. Chop all the vegetables in- upon, is likely to be in the form of a No danger; he likes a garden and to small pieces, add to the tripe, and composite head, this head being made boil slowly for one hour and a half. in accordance with a composite picture Then take the cornflour, work it into a paste with a little cold milk, add to of the most beautiful women in the matchbox containing two notes of the the boiling soup, and stir over the fire world. The head is to possess many value of $250. The finder took the for ten minutes. Just before serving, unique features, besides containing ev- money to the Mayor to be held by add the remains of the milk, the chop-ped parsely, with pepper and salt to erything that can be thought of as a him for the loser. taste. Serve the soup very hot with comfort for the weaker sex, from the fried bread.

> apples, then chop them up very small. will gain at the same time ideas and Mix with a third of the quantity in capital meals.

fine breadcrumbs, add a bit of butter, a little cinnamon and nutmeg, and ted was that of a gigantic fountain to sweeten with brown moist sugar. Mix be placed in the center of a great bas all well together and bake in a mod- in or lake. Tremendous force would be erate oven.

Toad In The Hole.-Is a really good and inexpensive dish. Take one pound fountain spout. The result of all this and a half of nice gravy beef; if you would be the throwing in the air of can afford rump steak instead, your streams of water to the height of 150 dish will be more appreciated. Cut up and season with pepper and salt. Put sides of this globe lines of railway cir. four tablespoonfuls of flour into a bas- cle to the top, so that the visitor may in, break into the flour two eggs, stir journey in most curious fashion from all together with a spoon, then add the base to the apex of the giant hall imbued with too much false (?) pride alowly a pint of new milk and mix On this sphere, too, the earth's surface is very good if steamed for the same made arrangements therefore will be time. It may also be made with cook- miniature villages, clever products of of sugar, powdered, two large tablespoonfuls of butter rubbed into the sugar, one and a half cups of flour, one-half cup of sweet cream, one-half found that the more soiled articles teaspoonful of soda. Bake quickly in each of which will be several hundred small tins and eat while fresh and feet in height, both exactly alike

Dry Yeast.—One way of making a dry yeast is as follows: One quart of water, put it on to boil with a handful the top of each tower will be a large of hops and let it boil for half an depot for the arrival and departure of hour. When done strain the boiling trains of trolley cars, which will speed hop water on one quart of flour, let it stand until quite cold, then add one sun, or in cool weather near the stove. thousands who may view it. hand than betray a trust of friendship dinner recess, and if the progress of soon as possible and before the water. Some persons prefer this kind of yeast and in a proposition presentsoon as possible and before the water Some persons prefer this kind of yeast ed in a palace for the accommodation after noon they owe it only to the cir- becomes scalding hot the required in warm weather, as it is not apt to of the public in general, a gorgeous boil one-half hour, while breakfast picking out entire may be freshened something for nothing. work is cleared away. They should be and "plumped" by soaking a few | The captived balloon will be present hours in water.

SUGGESTIONS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Lacquered brass-like that on most of the iron beds, etc., nowadays-should and dry quickly.

A silver polish that it is alleged will jure the fabric of clothing. But I clean silver without hand rubbing is roic Emir who had come to his court cooks knowing from experience that think not, if used rightly. I'm sure my made by mixing whiting with a few clothes are not injured in the least, drops of ammonia, then thinning it It will keep if tightly corked in a bot-running down the sides, double a piece the upper edge project half an inch submarine theatre. Then comes the curtains, or if they do not harmonize to exploit on canvas. And so it goes. with your new cream tinted paper.

The worst spot made by greasy head on wall paper can be removed by padespots on earth. The Russians and Stygian ferry, and often choose that yeast well soaked. No flour, or it may tience, perseverance and a hot flat paper till you get it out.

WILL BE THE COMING FRENCH IN TERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

Outlined-Some of the Great Features and Unique Ideas that Are to be Illustrated.

The eighth wonder of the world has A dirty dish-cloth is covered with begun t ogrow, for the demolition of main on it, will multiply to an alarm- tion Universale is under way. The which the nations have joined in making a magnificent whole.

The site for the Exposition includes lullaby. The presidio is located in the the meantime, whenever the jailers plain sight. It must be dried before the public grounds on both sides of the Seine from the Place de la Concord, that great monumental square in the the earth will gaze in amazement, victs. Upon their return the excur- should be put with the dish-cloth into city's center to a point beyond the under escort of shot-gun armed guards sionists may be informed that the the weekly washing to be boiled and Point d'Jena. This includes in its chain-gangs have been decimated by an hung out in the open air to dry, and sweep of territory the Champs de Mars, epidemic of suicide, but will console fresh ones provided in their places. themselves with the prospect of pocket- Every particle of refuse should be the Trocadero Palace, and park, which ing an increased percentage of the scraped from the sink each time it is was the site of the Exposition of 1889, used, and the sink washed out careful- the Esplanade des Invalides, the Quay ly. One of the open wire dishes for d'Orsay, the Quai de la Conference, the placing over the strainer will be Cour la Reine, and a large section of It was formerly the practice among the sink free from crumbs and food. the Champs Elysees, the latter includ-Pouring over the sink every night ing the site of the Palace of Industry, boiling water, in which washing soda which was the International Exposi-

OF FRENCH EXPOSITIONS.

Leaving aside the matter of convenience, the location of the Paris Exposition seems in its entirety to be superior to the World's Fair at Chicago. Divided as it is throughout its entire mirably to the work of decoration and embellishment. The Woman's Building, which has practically been decided rooms where they may gossip in easy Brown Betty.-Pare and core some chairs to the restaurant where they

One of the most unique ideas submit. applied to the water when it was for ed through the pipes leading to the tubes, through which the jets of the

Another feature is the huge globe the meat into neat pieces, flour it well, representing the earth. About the till you have a smooth batter. Place is cleverly represented, hill and dale the beef in a pie dish with the batter. mountain and vailey. Nestling in vari-Bake steadily for two hours. This dish ous spots where nature seems to have artistic labor. Electric lights will be so Cake Without Eggs.-One coffee cup placed at night about this glober as to give the effect as much as possible of the moon and stars.

AN AERIAL "CHUTE."

Two towers it is proposed to erect From tower to tower will stretch an aerial railway. Over this, and just as upon the railways which rest upon terra firma, will be trolley wires. At along the aerial railway at a twentymiles-an-hour rate.

There will probably be one World's teacup of brisk yeast, and two quarts Fair feature. The Ferris wheel, which of sifted corn meal; make a stiff dough, astonished people of all countries at then squeeze it through your fingers the World's Fair, will, it is likely, reinto a dish, and put it to dry in the volve in Paris for the edification of the affair, which, it is declared, shall contain everything that heart could wish and which money will buy. There will be very few things that are free. It Nuts that have become too dry for is not the custom in France to give in all its greatness, as it appeared at the World's Fair, and other expositions. Then there will be an exhibition of the as convenient in the rinse water, af- not be cleaned with acid or scoured to date. This will apply particularly works of man from an early period up ter which comes the blue water, and with anything. Wash with hot suds to the more notable inventions of great artists, &c., and will include portraits, statuary, manuscript, &c. An immense telescope has been suggested by Mr. Deloncle. The same genius also suggests a 200-ton clock. A wine vat that will hold 88,000 gallons, is another sugand last as long as could be desired with water to the consistency of cream. gestion. Camille Flammarion, the famous astronomer wants a tremendous moon constructed, around which those To prevent the icing of a cake from who desire shall circulate in a balloon

As for theaters, panoramas, &c., there are suggestions without number. Of of buttered paper about three inches course it is proposed to have the Paswide and pin it round the cake, letting sion Play. Another idea is to have a treated with a barbarity that provok- secures the assistance of the Moorish ing if the clothes are only clean," and above the cake. In this way a cake usual Alpine panorama, and another coast dwellers whenever the boom of they will simply fold towels, etc., and may be frosted evenly and thickly to which, it is alleged will represent the twelve guns gives the signal for a lay them away. But I think the sat- the very edge. Do not remove the mysteries of the ocean. The doings of man hunt, yet, nevertheless, the at- isfaction of seeing and using nicely band until the icing is perfectly dry. the recent expedition of the French to If you are tired of your white lace | Madagascar are what some one wishes DETAILS STILL EMBRYOTIC.

While all the details of the architec a fury of personal resentment," a tribes of the interior or losing their always at hand and the following is washing, drying and dipping in thin ture have not yet been worked out, it correspondent wrote from Cuba, and if identity in the crowd of an Algerian good recipe for jug yeast, which we starch made with coffee instead of clear is certain that the Palace of the Trowater. Dry them as rapidly as you can cadero, which was utilized both for the Favored by luck a few desperadoes | Six large potatoes rubbed through by pinning them in a room where you expositions of 1878 and 1889 will be used, as well as several of the great exposition halls of 1889 in the Champs de Mars, although there will be changes in all of them. On the site of the Palace of Industry in which the exposiprisons with barbarous strictness, but time-especially after the sessions of a in a cool, dark place. Use two-thirds first with a clean dry cloth, lay white did structure to be used as the fine arts not with wanton cruelty, and can dis-spaniards ascribe the frequency of sui-tinguish an assassin from an armed in tinguish an assassin from an armed in- cides to the influence of the climate, and is more economical than the store is absorbed. Try, try again with fresh side of the Champs Elysees the ground has been broken for the hall of liberal arts, which is to be a permanent edifice. A broad avenue will extend between these two buildings from the Champs Elysees to the Seine. At its meeting place with the river the stream will be spanned by a stately bridge. which will be known as the Alexander bridge, for the present Emperor laid the corner stone of the foundations thereof the last time he visited Paris. This bridge, too, will connect the Champs Elysees and the Esplanade des

The plans as revised are as stated. The key note of it all, however, is the determination of France to excel everything in the way of expositions that tains were burned at the stake with- Palavan presidio load down their able- disease germs which, if allowed to re- the buildings on the site of the Exposi- complished. It is their purpose to spare neither time nor money, Genius is at their command. The brightest minds of Europe and America have contributwho are wearing out their lives in a degree that makes sleep almost im- cloths, and hanging them wet under confidentally assert will be the most agery of France has developed what ons. One of these camps on the Isla up against all that and connive at the the sink and out of sight, cannot be wonderful Exposition in every detail in may possibly be termed the most extraordinary suggestions that ever emanated from a human brain. The Effel Tower was a wonder. The Ferris wheel astonished the world. It is no extravagance, whatever to assert that the Expositione Universale will give birth to a marvel at which the nations of

HE MEANT NO HARM

A London exquisite had gone into a West End restaurant, and was far from pleased with the way in which his order was filled. Do you call that a veal cutlet? he demanded of the waiter. Why, such a cutlet as that is an insult to every self-respecting calf in the British

The waiter hung his head for a moment, but recovered himself and said, in a tone of respectful apology: I really didn't intend to insult you,

HIS LIMITATIONS.

Poor soul! exclaimed the sympathetic housekeeper. What ever drove you to this way of making a living? That's a long story, mum, replied length by the Seine, it lends itself ad- Tuffold Knutt, reaching for another doughnut, an' I can't talk on a emp ty stummick.

IN A PIG'S STOMACH.

A peasant living near Milan recent ly bought a pig, which, when killed,

FRESH FIELDS.

Jackson seems to enjoy meeting new people. Of course; it keeps him from forgetting his old jokes

DON'TS OF WELL-DRES Don't pin your black white pin, and don't use

ing ornste one. It may ring note in an otherwis Don's buy cheap gloves them, don't wear them They always look their price, and they are dear Don't carry the handl dence on the street bodice or stuck under merly a handkerchief w is now more generally you might lose it.

Don't go on the stree or hem of your gown ed. It is not an atta masculine eyes, and y thereby the days of u gown. Keep your ski and the binding neat Don't put up your end of every pin sho gins as possible, and cor with the hair. A head tering with pins is Don't wear rubbed on the street, fancy show. They do, and a voted to sewing on of ishing adds very muc appearance of neatne Don't, if you use make-up, use it care touch sometimes imp less one invites ridict Don't carry the glo Put them on. It wi pearance and be les wear them unbutton Don't trust to pins place. They often c pected and inconven and buttons, sewed desirable.

FIRST MAN DI One day in 1730 a appeared on the boul an escutcheon in the corsets and an open painted on the pane was the coat of arm first man who mad man's dressmaker. the son of a Bavaria neighborhood of Mu success to his geniu remedying defects an annual income of heirs.

GLASS

Glass bricks are Germany. They ar low center, contain they are said to be able as clay bricks light. So far the been used in the servatories, and h

THE RAW CO Bring to the surfa Rheumatism, neur complaints of a si revel at this seaso human nerves and best, the most po tain cure is Nerv Nerviline for pen viline is beyond co est discovery for fered to the pub Doctor, the call tinguished surgeo thods fail to brin

the influence of a AS WEL

A Brickmaker L 'Six Boxes of

Brockville, Ma H. Odéll perhaps citizens of this covered from a painful kidney story of his expondent as follo "I have suffe from kidney di back being so able to stand t "Noticing to what Dodd's K for others I co "Having use say that I am so that I can a as ever I could

THE Mr. Henpeck me you have a seaside for two Physician-Y Mr. Henpeck

Physician-N A new and is soon to mal be of nickle, times. At pr coin between centime, or p

(OMP MILES' (C