NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Changes in advertisements will henceforth be made in the order in which they are received, and all copies for such must be in not later than Tuesday noon to insure insertion. While it is our desire to serve the interests of all, we find it inconvenient, and almost impossible to rush in a dozen changes in the last half day. Kindly assist us by getting copy in early.

TRAVERSTON.

Received too late for last issue. The Neil Bros' shingle mill is humming these days. They are not afraid to put in good ten hours a day.

Miss Jenet Jack left last week for Toronto. Being an A 1 tailoress, her services are always in good demand.

It speaks volumes for a young fellow when year after year he fills the same situation. Mr. Hugh Firth has gone to put in a third season, with his old boss, Lighthouse, near Brampton, while Will Firth will push matters along at "Uncle Joe's." By the way, Will and Hugh put up about 400 cords of wood this winter besides cutting scores of sawlogs.

Messrs. John Jardine and Ewen McNab arrived home from the Michigan pineries on Thursday carrying no surplus flesh, but a good wallet of Yankee gold.

Mrs. Hastie has employed Paddy Tuohy to put in her crop and as Jim has purchased one of Sam Edwards' dashing greys, Paddy will make things rustle, as he's a perfect go-ahead at all times.

The Easter holidays will bring the following jovial and gifted ones home, Miss May Robson from Louise Mr. Asa from Owen Sound, Miss Mary Delaney from Dornoch and Miss Ella Cook from Lauriston.

Mr. A Goodfellow has engaged H. Ridley for the season. The latter has moved his family into the only vacant cot in the burg after refitting it up.

The Township Fathers will have a sweltering time next Monday. "Cuss the school business, anyway," will be their private muttering.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Edwards moved up from Proton the beginning of the week and got settled on their Glenelg farm. He expects to dispose of his Proton farm in a short time, as he has received a good offer therefor.

He purposes putting in a heavy crop, having two teams; hence, has brought a Mr. Jones with him, a smart, active fellow, who has been his chief lieutenant all winter.

Miss Nellie Davis returned to Toronto some days ago after a jolly month at home.

DORNOCH.

Ex-sheriff Moore, off Owen Sound, was in the village Saturday.

Mr. C. R. McIntosh, of Chesley, is home for the Easter vacation.

Mr. Montague, of Williamsford, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. Jesse. Foster is at Chatsworth at present, and will be absent for some time.

The Palmer House celebrated its ninth and last anniversary on Monday.

Messrs. R. Watt, A. McIntosh and J. Little, who are attending the Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, are enjoying home comforts at present.

Miss Dargavel, of Chatsworth, is residing with friends in the village.

Miss Lizzie Corlett, of Chicago, is visiting friends here at present after an absence of five years.

Mr. C. Miller and Miss Green, of Williamsford, visited friends in the village recently.

Mr. Joe Burnet, of Durham, paid friends here a call on Friday. Joe is a general favorite with the boys here and his visits are always welcome.

At West Superior on March 25th, Mr. Wm. Campbell was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Cameron, both of this place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jefferson.

The debate in Stewart's Hall on Friday night was very interesting one. A large audience was present.

The subject for discussion was:—"Resolved that the farmer is more contented than the mechanic." A decision with honors in favor of the negative was given.

Webster's International Dictionary

The One Great Standard Authority, So writes Hon. W. J. Brewer, Justice U. S. Supreme Court.

Send a Postal for Specimen Pages, etc.

Successor of the "Unabridged," Standard of the English Dept. of the U. S. Gov't Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, and of nearly all the schoolbooks.

Warmly Commended by State Superintendents of Schools, and other Educators almost without number.

THE BEST FOR EVERYBODY BECAUSE

It is easy to find the word wanted.

It is easy to ascertain the pronunciation.

It is easy to trace the growth of a word.

It is easy to learn what a word means.

WEBSTER THE STANDARD.

The Toronto Globe says:—The International is rapidly becoming recognized as the most reliable standard dictionary published.

In addition to furnishing the primary function of a dictionary, the International contains a vast amount of general information of great value.—Jan. 11, 1896.

VANDELEUR.

Mr. Robt. Pritchard has again taken up his residence in Markdale having secured a position in Mr. Turner's drug store.

Mr. W. S. McAllum has taken unto himself a wife in the person of Miss M. Corbett, daughter of Mr. James Corbett of Melancthon. They will reside on the Meaford Road. To the young couple we extend congratulations and wish them success.

Death entered Mr. James Summers family and removed the youngest member last week.

Mr. M. Beard has rented his farm and moved to Markdale where he has secured a position with Mr. Chapman in his livery stables.

Mr. J. M. Davis is home again after spending a month with friends in Brockville. He has secured a lot of information on the poorhouse question so he says.

LAKE VIEW.

Miss Nellie Hunter was visiting friends in Bentinck last week.

Mr. Will Reid leaves for Toronto on Monday where he has secured a situation. Will is one of those clever young fellows that never fails in any of his adventures. "Cheer up Tillie he will be back soon."

Mr. John McBath was visiting at Mr. John Wilson's of Greenside. Mr. McBath is one of our popular young men and has now started in the egg business. We wish you success John.

Mr. Alexander Reid formerly of this place but now a resident of New York paid his parental home a flying visit last Friday he returned to that city on Monday.

Mr. Will Reid and Miss Hattie Watt were visiting friends North of the Lake Wednesday evening.

Jim Jr. couldn't stand the tooth ache any longer so went Saturday and got nothing less than fourteen teeth extracted. "Pity I lisp" Jim.

A little thieving has been going on in our vicinity lately. Mr. John Moore got a horse collar stolen out of his stable one night recently.

We have been instructed there has been a new comer at Mr. William Aljoe's. We have not heard whether it is a girl or a boy, but as the song goes "Girl Wanted."

Mrs. James Henry left for Hepworth Station recently to visit her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Reid, who is very ill at present. This is the second time Mrs. Henry has been called away to visit the sick in that part in side of two months; in the first place it was her niece Miss Mary Reid.

We extend our hearty thanks to THE CHRONICLE and REVIEW for the happiness they have wished us in our new life.
