We believe that the newspapers of this county are almost unanimous in waging war against the large departmental stores, nevertheless these are the places in Toronto about which the great crowds are to be seen, many of them no doubt imagining they are getting big value for their money. No doubt they get snaps in some cases yet to any sane man it must be evident that profits must come in somewhere. It is well known fact that some articles are sold at less than wholesale prices for such. For our part we never feel safe in buying from such concerns, a class of goods of which we do not know the value. Our small towns are suffering by these gigantic concerns, and he who sends his money away is building up the great centres at the expense of his own town, satisfied perhaps that by his apparent gain he has improved his own financial condition. The end will soon come and reaction will tell disastrously on himself and his neighbors. Patronize home, is a motto, we should one and all follow.

FLESHERTON.

After nearly 89 years of earthly life Mr. Joseph Strain, Sr., passed into the life that's lived within the pearly gates on Saturday afternoon and on Monday that which was mortal was followed by a large concourse of friends and tenderly laid alongside his beloved partner who shared his joys and sorrows for 58 years and who preceded him 8 years ago, aged 80. A memorial service was held in the Methodist church when his pastor, Rev. Mr. Fallis, of Dun- dalk, preached an appropriate and beautiful sermon from Rev. 14:13, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord," etc. Mr. Strain was born in Co. Monaghan, Ireland, in 1809 and came to Canada in 1849 settling for a year at Markham at the end of which time he moved to Ar- temesia and settled on the Toronto line 4½ miles east of this place when amid the toils of this new country he made for himself a home and spent his declining days highly esteemed by all who knew him for he was a good neighbor, kind at heart and on the escutcheon of whose life was no blemish. He was converted 66 years ago and joined the Methodist church remaining since a loyal and consistent member of the same. Often he has been heard to say, "I have had my ups and downs but never ins and outs." For many years he labored faithfully as a class leader and local preacher and also did a large amount of colporture work by which he be- came well and widely known scatter- ing the seeds of the truth through- out this county. He now rests from his labor and his works do follow him. Out of a family of ten only one death occurred therefore three sons and five daughters survive him among them being Mr. Wm. Strain, one of the most highly esteemed one of this place and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, of Markdale, who is also held in highest esteem. Mr. H. A. Sydie, who has been

There is a rumor afloat that the Corner man is about to do the same as the Lake View man did a month or so ago. We wish him success just the same whether we get thanks or not.

We noticed last week in the Lake View items Brother McMeeken thank- ing THE CHRONICLE and Review men for wishing him success in his new life. We don't see why he did not include us too for we wished him success twice and got no thanks.

Mr. Editor, we would like to know which is most sinful, (1) to beg milk of your neighbors or to chew tobacco which you have paid for or (2) steal eggs from under a setting hen and trade them for chewing gum.

The young man who escorted his best girl home last Thursday night and on his way back entered one of the neighbor's cellars had better be careful as he is known and may get caught.

Safe blowers are putting in good work lately. Tweed, Orangeville Smithville and Oakville are the losers. From the latter place $700 was taken Tuesday. A minister's horse was then stolen and the thieves drove to Toronto.
