Standard Bank of Canada,

Is it

Head Office, Toronto. G. P. REID, Manager.

Agencies in all principal points in Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, United States and England.

Durham Agency.

A general Banking business transacted. Drafts issued and collections made on all points. Deposits received and interest allowed at current rates.

SAVINGS BANK.

interest allowed on Savings Bank deattention and every facility afforded customers living at a distance. J. KELLY, Agent.

Medical Directory.

DR. JAMIESON, Durham,

Office and Residence a short distance east of McAllister's Hotel, Lambton Street, Lower Town. Office hours from 12 to 2 o'clock.

D'R. BROWN.

THROAT. NEUSTADT, ONT.

DR. A. L. BROWN,

Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, Scotland. Office and Residence, opposite Temperance Hall, Holstein.

DENTIST.

DR. T. G. HOLT, L. D. S.

Office:-First door east of the Durham Pharmacy, Calder's Block. Post Office, Durham.

Will be at the Commercial Hotel, Priceville, first Wednesday in each month.

Legal Directory.

J. P. TELFORD.

DARRISTER, Solicitor, etc. Office over D L. Grant's store. Lower Town.

G. LEFROY McCAUL,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR etc. Office Upper Town, Durham. Collection and Agency promptly attended to. Searches made at the Registry Office.

Elliott & Elliott

Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries,

Conveyancers, Etc.

Office: In McIntyre Block, Opposite Durham

$25,000 to loan at the lowest rate of interest.

Miscellaneous.

TAMES' BROWN, Issuer of Marriage U Licenses, Durham, Ont.

UGH MacKAY, Durham, Land Valu ator and Licensed Auctioneer for the County of Grey. Sales promptly attended to and notes cashed.

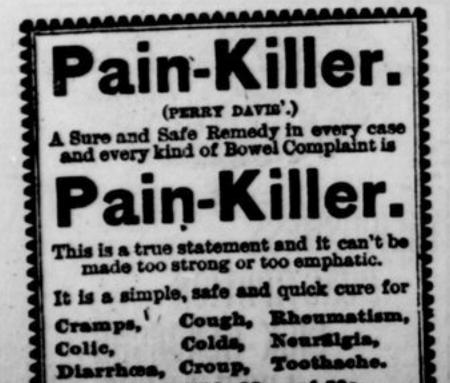

AMES CARSON, Durham, Licensed * Auctioneer for the County of Grey Land Valuator, Bailiff of the 2nd Division | day, and have decided that you are Court Sales and all other matters promptly | right. I am off to Greece this morning. attended to-highest references furnished f required.

OHN QUEEN, ORCHARDVILLE, has of resumed his old business, and is prepar ed to loan any amount of money on real estate. Old mortgages paid off on the most liberal terms. Fire and Lif Insurances effected in the best Stock Companies at lowest rates. Correspondence to Orchardvill P. O., or a call solicited

D. JACKSON

Clerk Division Court. Notary Public. Land Valuator. Insurance Agent Commissioner, etc. Money to lend. Money invested for parties Farms bought and soid.

CONVEYANCER ETC. A general financial business transacted Office next door to Standard Bank, Dur ham.

TWO SIZES, 28c. and 80c.

FOR GREECE AND MARGUERITI

Marguerite Sylvester leaned forward excitedly. A little impatient exciamation broke from her lips.

young fellow of about twenty-five or thereabouts was speaking, "I dare say you are right, Miss Sylvester, but-

"Of course I'm right," the girl cried impatiently. "I tell you if you were me you'd think so to. Do you imagine I can have any feeling of kindness to my grandmother's murderers? To people who sold my mother for a slave? Put yourself in my position. Think of your mother as a poor little baby of two years old being torn away from her mother, and set up for people to buy. Ask my mother to show you the great posits of $1 and upwards. Prompt scars on her wrist where they burnt them, to get her away from her mother. Perhaps then you will realize what makes me feel as I do. Perhaps you have never heard the story. How she was bought by an old woman, who I verily believe would have killed her if Mr. and Mrs. Huntington had not found her, taken her to England, and adopted her. I tell you I hate Turkey and the Turks."

"Perhaps, other people do too," observed her companion.'

"Yes," scornfully, "much good abonds, anything you will. It sounds well. But though they may be all this faced the foe. Unfortunately for Greece Your lordship, I was afraid of pre- Contains . . hand against them. Oh, if I was only a man, I'd go to-morrow. Why can't a lot of our young fellows who are idling away their time here go? Because they're afraid. Cowards, mean, detestable cowards, they are not worthy of the name "men." To be a man one must be brave. Are they brave? No. most emphatically, no,"

"Yes, but see here, Miss Sylvester. suppose now, for an example, England goes and joins Greece. What will be Residence.-First door west of the the result? The whole of Europe will be plunged in a general war. Would it not be better to let Greeks and Turks fight it out alone, than to cause such a dreadful thing as a European war?

"When you put it in that light," reluctantly, "I suppose I must say, yes, and yet it seems very terrible to me that people can stand around and see the Greeks killed by the hundreds and not offer to help them. Of course, I suppose I know nothing about it, but if any man wants my highest esteem

Marguerite Sylvester was English by birth, but rich Grecian blood flowed through her veins. Her father was an American, who had come to England, and married her. Marguerite was their only child. A few weeks before the above conversation took place, Dick Chester had appeared at the "Grange." He was a young American whose father had been Mr. Sylvester's greatest friend, so he received a hearty welcome for old association's sake. He had put up at the hotel, intending, as he said, the Knapp House, Lower Town, just to spend a few days there, and then to go abroad. The "few days," The truth was he had fallen deeply in fore that of her Majesty. She is now love with pretty Marguerite, but, as considerably over 80 years of age. she treated him exactly as she did dozens of other young fellows, he had felt until to-day, that there was no chance

Her words, however, set him to thinking. Why should he not do as she wished. He was an orphan, without a single relative that he knew of, in the nile in some things than many women

He thought of her words; " mean, detestable cowards." That decided him. The next morning, as Marguerite was on her way to the breakfast room, her maid handed her a note addressed in Dick's well known hand. She tore it open and read: Dear Miss Sylvester,-I have been thinking over what you said yester-I shall claim the reward which you offered me, when I come back, after the war is over. If I should meet the fate which hundreds of others, far braver men than I, have met, be assured of one thing, I will not die a coward. Ever Yours, Dick Chester. good-bye to her, and yet here it was, 25, 1814, five years before the Queen, set down in black and white, in his and was the daughter of Sir Francis large, flourishing writing. And so he had gone—gone as she had wished, how father's widow, Harriet, Duchess of St.

could do-now.

izon. Fires were lighted and around England. them clustered a small detachment of Every good society, every charitable Grecian soldiers. They had marched scheme, every devoted cause had in her many long, weary miles that day, and its certain helper with her purse, word, now lying about on the ground, were and, until lately, voice. The Baroness enjoying a brief rest and their even- has given up to a quarter of a million ing meal. Suddenly a wild cry of "The at once in furtherance of schemes for Turks, the Turks," rang out in the clear aiding the Londin poor. air. In an instant every man was on The Queen created her a Baroness in his feet. They had been surprised. A her own right in 1871, and in 1881 she large body of the Turkish troops had married Mr. W. L. Ashmead-Bartlett, come up from behind them, so quiet- who took the surname of Coutts. She ly, that not until they were almost still goes on at 83 with her noble work within musket range had they been dis- of relieving the needy, and London's covered. On they came, slowly, stead-ily, pouring one deadly volley into the confused ranks of the Grecian soldiers.

The officers had been sitting together, laying their plans for the next day. Before the alarm was given a small party of Turks had crept from their day and lay there nearly 24 hours behiding place and fallen upon the aston- fore he was discovered. Beyond a few ished officers, who, unable to offer any slight bruises he was not hurt. On the resistance, became an easy prey to the enemy. The soldiers panic stricken at the loss of their commanders began to fly in all directions. "This must be stopped," cried a young officer in Lieutenant's dress, to a comrade, "Halt,"

Those who were in earshot, admiring his pluck, and feeling that they had behaved like cowards, stopped and followed him. The confused soldiers, only too glad to accept any one as their leader, turn-Her companion, a tall, good-looking ed and faced the foe. The young Lieutenant, who had stopped the retreat, rushed forward saying, "For the honor of Greece"—"and Marguerite," he added, softly. Incited onward by the cry, they fought as they had never done before. But look, their young leader has fallen! Fallen, yes, as many another brave young fellow has, but not until he had accomplished his life work. The honor of Greece was saved.

It was a beautiful morning, Marguerite realized that, as she sat by the open window, dreaming that the war would soon be over and Dick would be home

A little newsboy was coming down the street. Marguerite could hear his cry of "Latest news from the War. Great bravery of a young Lieutenant," before he was within a block from their house. She rushed down stairs, called the boy, got a paper, and hurried up to her own room, where she might pursue its contents undisturbed. Great, staring black letters greeted her eyes, She read it carefully over until she came to a paragraph, which after its persual, left her in a swoon, on the "Friday evening-The Greeks were freshness and flavor of new potatoes. surprised by the Turks, while enjoying their evening meal. Officers and men were mown down by the bullets of the concealed Turks, and the Grecian soland more you would not raise your he fell in the early part of the fight. If the life of this young hero had been spared, he might have proved the salvation of Greece."

That was all. It did not mention that he had died with her name on his lips. These, of course, to the world, would be but minor details.

-Eve Lyn. Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Older Women Than the Queen.

The lady famed in story who was present at the ball on the eve of Waterloo, and is still living, hale and hearty. at the truly noble age of 93, is Lady Louisa Tighe. She has a perfect memory, and remembers the incidents of the ball; the figure of Wellington; the bugle sound which called the men

It was at her father's house, the Duke of Richmond's, in Brussels, that the historic ball took place.

In 1825 she was married to the Colonel, the Hon. William Tighe. He died in 1878, but the dear old lady, one of and respect he knows how to get it." England's noblest links with the past With these parting words she left the still lives on, and writes a most beautiful, delicate hand, as if she were still a girl of 19, 'instead of 90.

The woman who has probably had more political influence during the past fifty years next to the Queen is unfallen deeply in love with her mother, doubtedly Mrs. Gladstone. Catherine Glynne was the daughter of Sir Stephen Glynne, the owner of the Hawarden and other large estates, and of his wife, the Hon. Mary Braybrooke. The late Sir Stephen Glynne was her brother, and Lady Littleton was her sister. Thus it is through his wife that Mr. Gladstone came into possession of the famous Hawarden Castle, in Flintshire, however, had lengthened into a month, now well known over all the world as and still the young gentleman had his residence. The marriage took place shown no signs of taking his departure. on July 25, 1839, about six months be-

The most remarkable member of the aristocracy is probably the aged Duchess of Cleveland, famous by her own individuality, and still more famous in the person of her celebrated son, Lord Rosebery. Though the Duchess is well over 80 years of age, she is more juvefifty years younger. Her Grace always dresses in white whenever it is at all possible, and she has a perfect passion for travelling. Half her life is spent on the continent, or at the cape; in fact, she has lately gone there again on a woyage. She perfectly revels in knocking about the world.

She was first married three years after the Queen, to Archibald, Lord Dalmeny, and so became the mother of Lord Rosebery, and on the death of her husband she married a second time, thus becoming Duchess of Cleveland by her marriage to George, the fourth and last Duke. He died a few years ago. Her Grace was a daughter of Philip Henry, fourth Earl of Stanhope. Is there any one in London, or out of it, who has not heard the name of Surely it was not true. He would Angelina, Baroness Burdett-Coutts? never go away without coming to say This noble woman was born on April noble, and yet she could not feel glad. Albans, who had in early life graced Burning tears welled up into her eyes, the stage, Miss Burdett succeeded to "Oh, God, help him, care for him," she the vast fortune of the Coutts family, murmured brokenly. That was all she and took that name in addition to her

It would be impossible to tell one-It was nearing night, The sun was tenth of what she has done and given, fast sinking to rest on the distant hor- not only to the London poor, but for

THERE'S A MORAL IN THIS. At Joplin, Mo., a drunken man fell down a mine shaft 70 feet on SaturTHE TIME.

What time is it? Time to do well; Time to live better; Give up the grudge; Answer that letter; Speaking that kind word to sweeten

Do that good deed you would leave till to-morrow.

What time is it? Time to be earnest; Laying up treasure; Time to be thoughtful Choosing true pleasure; Loving stern justice, of truth being are paid, except at the option of the proprietor. fond-Making your word just as good as your

PRESERVED POTATOES.

The opening up of a demand for potatoes peeled, sliced and dried like apples promises to give at fresh imnetus to potat ocultivation, as decay petus to potato cultivation, as decay will be prevented and treingt cost less- | morning. ened. The potatoes are peeled and temperature of about 194 degrees. Before using the slices are soaked from 12 to 15 hours, and then have all the

PREJUDICE.

A prisoner of the sessions had been duly convicted of theft, when it was diers began to retreat in all directions. seen on proving previous convictions Diseases of EYE, EAR, NOSE And does to sit in your comfortable homes lif it had not been for the great brave that he had actually been in prison at the time the theft was committed. The Chronicle and say the Turks are scoundrels, vag- ery of a young lieutenant, Dick Ches- at the time the theft was committed. ter, by name, all would have been lost. Why didn't you say so? asked the judge judicing the jury against me.

PAVING THE WAY.

Mr. Sponger-Wifey, what date is Mrs. Sponger-The 5th. Why do you

Mr. Sponger-I am writing to Uncle Hiram, in Scroogeville, asking why he and the family didn't come down and see us during the winter.

Break Up a Cold in Time The Quick Cure for COUGHS,

COLDS, CROUP, BRON-CHITIS, HOARSENESS, etc. Mus. Joseph Norwick, of 63 Sorauren Ave., Toronto, writes:

"Pyny-Pectoral has never failed to cure my children of croup after a few doses. It cured myself of a long-standing cough after several other remedies had failed. It has also proved an excellent cough cure for my family. I prefer it to any other medicine for coughs, croup or hoarseness. H. O. BARBOUR, of Little Rocher, N.B., writes:

"As a cure for coughs Pyny-Pectoral is the best selling medicine I have; my cus-tomers will have no other." Large Bottle, 25 Cts. DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO., LTD. Proprietors, MONTREAL

84. PAHHP 4: HP 40.46 The Chronicle is the most wide ly read newspaper published in the County of Grey.

EVERY THURSDAY MORNING AT THE CHRONICLE PRINTING HOUSE, BARAFRAXA STREET DURHAM, ONT.

SUBSCRIPTION THE CHRONICLE will be sent to any address, free of postage, for $1.00 per RATES year, payable in advance—$1.50 may be charged if not so paid. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted by the number on the address label. No paper discontinued until all arrears

ADVERTISING For transient advertisements 8 cenes per line for the first insertion; 3 cents per . . . line each subsequent insertion-minior measure. Professional cards, not exceeding one inch, $4.00 per annum. Advertisements without specific directions will be published till forbid and charged accordingly Transient notices—"Lost," "Found,"
"For Sale," etc.—50 cents for first insertion, 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. All advertisements ordered by strangers must be paid

Contract rates for yearly advertisements furnished on All advertisements, to ensure insertion in current week, should be brought in not later than TUESDAY

sliced by machinery, soaked two min-sliced by machinery, soaked two min-ottos in brune, drauned and dried at a DEPARTMENT all NEW TYPE, thus affording facilities for turning out First-class work. . . .

> W. IRWIN. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Each week an epitome of the world's news, articles on the household and farm, an serials by the most pepular authors.

Its Local News is Complete;

and market reports accurate.

2. Its Thousands of Cures. 3. Its Economy. 1c. a dose. B. B. B.

Regulates the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, unlocks the Secretions, Purifies the Blood and removes all the impurities from a common Pimple to the worst Scrofulous Sore, and QURES BILIOUSNESS DYSPEPSIA,

HEADACHE. CONSTIPATION, SALT RHEUM, SCROFULA, HEARTBURN, SOUR STOMACH, ZZINESS, DROPSY, RHEUMATISM, SKIN DISEASES. DIZZINESS,

jash System

Adopted by

We beg to inform our customers and the public generally that we have adopted the Cash System, which means Cash or its Equivalent, and that our motto will be "Large Sales and Small Profits."

We take this opportunity of thanking our customers for past patronage, and we are convinced that the new system will merit a continuance of the same.