TRAVERTON.

Exciting and happy times out here. Parties, home coming, picnic and weddings galore. Last week seemed to be a perfect jubilee of good things and nature seemed to be in touch with them all.

Mr. A. Cook is spending a fortnight with his daughter, Jennie in Toronto.

Everybody about here was pleased to hear that John Peart was up from Brantford last week and is about to purchase a foundry in either Durham or Markdale.

Mrs. M. Cook lately back from Algoma is visiting the Cook family.

He is a handsome fellow is Mr. Orchard of London who is visiting at Mr. Wm. Greenwood's.

Mrs. Thomas Edwards and Sam left for Guelph on Friday morning to visit the Whittaker family. The former may also visit Caledon but the boys say that Sam is sure to take a run down to Galt.

Things began to brighten and the pulses of some stalwarts to beat faster, when Miss Mary Glenross came home from Toronto.

The following bright and popular teachers are home for the holidays. Miss Mary Dalaney from Dornoch; Miss Ella Cook from Lauriston; Mr. Chas. Robson from Barrie and Miss May from Louise. Our pedagogue, A. W. Park, after a faithful six month's hard work, left on Friday for the old home in Bentinck. He's quite a lad at courting too," said an old lady the other day.

There was a pleasant garden party at Mr. Wm. Firth's cosy home on Wednesday evening last. Misses Martha and Minnie were home from Markdale, Hugh and young Thornton from Brampton, while a jolly crowd from far and near made the night a merry one.

The neighborhood extend good wishes and congratulations to Mr. M. K. Eaton and his charming bride formerly Miss Minnie Wilson of Artemesia tp. We trust they may take up their residence on the old homestead.

A dozen rigs in procession went whirling along to the R. C. Church in Markdale last Wednesday morn. 'Twas a bridal party. Mr. Ed. Norris is one of Glenelg's most stalwart and prosperous young farmers and Miss Nellie Dulan, one of its sweetest girls. Mr. J. Norris and Miss Mamie Dulan of Toronto, niece of the youthful bride, performed the pleasant duties while the Rev. Father Hauck made the loving pair one. The fun and feasting that followed on their return to the old Dulan home was kept up till dawn the following day. A large number of friends and neighbors being present. The young couple begin life together under the brightest prospects. Good wishes and congratulations are flowing in upon them.

The 8th con was going it last week. Two weddings within half a mile on the same day. The sun came out in the p.m. of last Wednesday and smiled softly down at Mr. John Hunt's. A very happy event there. About 2:30 in the presence of a number of special friends and relatives his youngest daughter, Miss Sadie was united to Mr. George Young of Detroit, formerly of near Hamilton. Rev. J. W. Kitching of Durham, an old schoolmate of the bride's, tied the knot. The bride looked charming in her wedding gown of cream, trimmed with lace and ribbon. The bridegroom is a genuine genial handsome fellow and has a good situation in the city. As he has a month's leave of absence, they will spend the honeymoon mostly in Glenelg, after which they will reside in Detroit. Hearty congratulations and warm wishes for health, wealth and happiness.

Zion's picnic came off on the First. It was a success in every way. The day delightful, the crowd happy, the edibles above standard. The tea has been made by Mrs. Ross for years but this time she surpassed herself. A nice program was given in the woods. Mr. Edwin Hunt made the best speech of his life, so a critic said. Reeve Staples was present and is growing more popular every day. A game of base ball between Edge Hill and Traverston clubs resulted thus: the former, two innings 15 runs, the latter made 7 runs in the first inning but the ball bursters got the bat again. A concert was held at night and proved a crowning success of the day.

Mr. Telford and her daughter Mary of Galt are up on a visit to the Nelson family.

Sorry to learn that Mr. James Morrison of the 8th is seriously ill with erysipelas in the face.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKechnie, of Durham, spent Dominion day at the latter's old home. She has remained for a few days.

ALLAN PARK.

Deputy Reeve Brown, added another girl to his family last week. Proud man.

Mr. J. S. Collett has the mail contract to Hampden, and would be the people's choice if they had any say in the matter. Jack is an honest, energetic, popular fellow and his appointment will give universal satisfaction.

(Intended for last issue.)

We notice that the Varney and Aberdeen scribes are beginning to chirrup about their lengthy rye. There is a field just north of the village the property of Mr. Thos. Bailey which stands on an average of 8 ft. 4 in., not saying anything about exceptions.

A pig disappeared from Mr. Pearson's stable one night last week. The thing savors of a mean, small, low, malicious, mink-hearted guise of the devil's own ingenuity.

The following were the guests of Mr. Colletts last Sunday:—Mr. Mc-Mitchell and wife, of Williamsford; Mr. R. Smith and his mother, of Normanby; Messrs. A. and Robert Henry; Mr. Thos. Tyreman, his wife and mother, of Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fenson, of Elmwood, were visiting friends around the Park lately.

Miss Lobsinger was home on a visit to her father, in Mildmay, last week.

Our picnic held here was a grand success the day opened fine and clear and continued so all through. The dinner was made ready about 12 o'clock. Eatables were pronounced elegant by all that partook of them. Mr. Henry Brigham was chairman and filled the position well which he always does. The speakers were Mr. David McNichol, M. P. P., Drs. Mearns and Taylor, of Hanover, Rev. Mr. Jennings, of Hanover, and Rev. Mr. Kitching and Barrister Batson, of Durham, all gave very interesting addresses. The teacher, Mr. McDonald, had the school children well trained with songs and recitations. The Allan Park band furnished the music which was grand. We also might say that Mr. John Collett deserves much credit in the interest he takes to make his band a success. The days sport wound up by a match (football) between the 16th con., of Normanby, and the south line of Brant which the latter scored one goal to none. Mr. Robert Brigham was referee and gave good satisfaction.

We regret to chronicle the death of an old and early settler, Mr. Moses Jacklin, who died on Thursday evening last. He was highly respected by all who knew him and one of the first council men in Bentinck. His remains were followed by a large crowd to the English church in Hanover, where the funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Jennings and then to his last resting place in Chrispin's burying ground. He leaves five sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. We extend our sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow.
