DURHAM CHRONICLE.

VOLUME 30.

DURHAM, ONT., SEPT 23, 1897.

NO 1592

LOCAL NEWS.

There was quite a heavy frost here on Monday morning last.

The Worlds Fair will be held in Holstein on the 5th of October.

The Band will give a high class musical concert Wednesday evening.

Mr. Wm. Lawrence of Egremont purchased Alex. Begg's beautiful black mare last week, for $70 cash.

—For Sale—A good second hand top buggy. Enquire at W. Black's Hardware Store, Lower Town, Durham. 2

"Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work," writes Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis. "I took three boxes of Ayer's Pilis and was entirely cured. Since that time I always keep them in the house." They are easy to take.

MR. FRANK TEFFR, of Hanover who was engaged in the Queen's Hotel dropped dead on the fair grounds at the Walkerton Exhibition last week. He was a fleshy man, troubled with asthma and these together with the excitement are supposed to have been the causes which led to his sudden death.

The other day at a gathering at one of the Experimental Farms there was some spirited discussion about the value of newspapers. There was not a dissenting voice in the view that the "Family Herald and Weekly Star," Montreal, is the best all round family newspaper in America and it will hold its own with any in the world.

THE South Grey Agricultural Society's exhibition will be held here on Tuesday and Wednesday next. On Tuesday night the Society will have the hall beautifully lighted by electricity, and all who wish to see the exhibits on that night can do so. The entries are pouring in fast and the exhibition promises to be above the average. The Directors have done their part and it now remains with the public to make it a complete success. Do so by your presence.

Robt. James Moody, the 8 year old son of John Moody, of the 7th line, Amaranth, met with a painful accident on Tuesday. Alex Gray was cutting grain for Mr. Moody. The little fellow had a whip and he thought it would be good sport to secrete himself in the tall grain and strike the horses with his whip when they came opposite him. He did so not thinking he was in the greatest danger, and before the horses could be stopped his left thigh was half cut off, the sickle knives cutting quarter way through the bone. His left hand was also badly lacerated and had to be taken off. Dr. Norton was sent for and dressed the wounds and has good hopes of the child's recovery.—Shelburne Free Press.

Mr. Joseph Blackburn of Flesherton who has been an invalid for the last eight years, we are pleased to notice is slowly recovering. He was taken down with an attack of La Grippe which settled in his spine. For years he was completely prostrated and unable to help himself. He was treated by local physicians and specialists from Toronto and other places but very little could be done for him. Five or six years ago he went to the Toronto General Hospital, only to learn that quiet rest was the only remedy, and since that time has been improving, but very slowly. Mr. Blackburn is one of the most consistent Christian gentlemen we have ever met, a member of the Masonic body and also of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, for both of which societies he has a deep love. After eight years of an absence he visited the Masonic Lodge at its last meeting, and the members were much pleased to see him in his accustomed place. He can remain in a standing or sitting posture only a few minutes at a time. We were pleased to see him driven about the grounds on Fair day and sincerely, yes, sincerely hope that he will soon regain his health and strength.

The Fair on Tuesday was a fizzle.

Rev. Mr. Ryan is forming a favorable impression in Trinity Church.

Mr. Alex. Firth succeeds Mr. Dixon as teacher in Banessa School at a salary of $350.

Mr. Solomon Erb, of Berlin shirt factory visited his aunt, Mrs. H. J. Middaugh last week.

Miss Mary Large has been re-engaged in S. S. No. 9 Glenelg at the same salary as last year, $300.

Changes of Ads must be in by Monday noon next. Any coming later will not be changed.

—Mr. Fred A. Lewis of Lucknow wishes us to announce that he will be in Durham in October to attend to piano tuning.

—Mr. F. W. Gokey, V.S., wishes to announce to the residents of Durham and vicinity that he is prepared to attend professional calls day or night.—Office over MacFarlane's Drug Store. 1

To eradicate the poisons which produce fever and ague, take Ayer's Ague Cure. It cures without leaving any injurious effect upon the system, and is the only medicine in existence which may be regarded as an absolute antidote for malaria.

It is intended to sound a fire alarm some afternoon at an early date to test the quickness of the Fire Brigade to get to fire. As this is one of the requirements of the Fire Underwriters it is necessary that the Brigade should respond promptly. Mr. Torry the Chief is giving a good deal of his time to the Brigade in order to get the boys well drilled. It is also suggested that all clothes and other articles be returned to the Fire Hall, so that an inventory can be taken.

In this issue will be seen an advertisement for a teacher in S. S. No. 1, Normanby and while we disconcern the idea of frequent changes of teachers we must say that this section has been an exception to the rule. During the past sixteen years the people "never sought nor sighed for change" and only two teachers "swayed the rod of empire" during the period. Mr. Ramage taught the school for ten and a half years and was succeeded by Mr. Kerr, the present teacher, five and a half years ago. Both gentlemen resigned their position honorably.

We are pleased this week to offer our readers a treat, afforded by Inspector Campbell's letter, descriptive of a trip to Belfast and the Giant's Causeway in the north of Ireland. We have of late read with pleasure, his letters printed in other papers, and as the Inspector is too well known to need any special introduction, we leave the matter without further comment, other than the one characteristic so prominent in all his writings. His true British loyalty, and love for British institutions shine out in every page of his writings. His partial promise of another letter soon is very gratifying and we trust to have it in good time.

MASTER FRANK IRWIN, of THE CHRONICLE staff, while wheeling from the post office on Thursday last with a bundle of papers under one arm, ran over the embankment near the bridge but escaped unhurt, the wheel being slightly damaged. He next started for Flesherton to assist in the Band at the Fair, but shortly after dark, just the other side of Priceville he ran into a hole in a broken culvert and got a nasty fall, causing a black eye, a lame shoulder and a classical limp. He doesn't know how long he lay on the road-side before he regained consciousness, but those who saw him pass through the village say he must have been there fifteen or twenty minutes, though Frank thinks he got up right away. He made his way to Flesherton that night, however, played next day and has again resumed work in the office. We hear that several have complained about the hole in question, and we think it would be well for the Council to spend a few minutes to repair the breach before further damage is done.

EAST GREY EXHIBITION

HELD IN FLESHERTON ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

The Annual Exhibition of the South Grey Agricultural Society was held in Flesherton on Thursday and Friday last. The weather was fine, though a little cool and were it not for the lateness of the harvest and the uncertainty of the weather we have no doubt the fair would have been equal in exhibits and attendance to any of those formerly held by the society.

There yet remains a great deal of crop in the fields and no doubt the farmers felt they could not run the risk of leaving it. The date also of this year's fair was about two weeks earlier than usual and coming as it did the week after the Industrial and the same week as the Western at London and the Northern at Owen Sound, the attendance and exhibits were more local than they would otherwise have been.

The number of entries this year fell considerably below last year and the gate receipts were about twenty dollars short. The decrease in the number of entries may be explained partly from the fact that a protective clause was inserted in the regulations preventing persons outside the County making more than six entries in any one class.

Last year one outsider made about one hundred and twenty-five entries in Fancy Work alone and succeeded in carrying off nearly $500 of the prize money. Part of the work too, it is alleged was purchased from a Fancy Goods store in Toronto and a business was made by the person referred to of attending all the small fairs and carrying off prizes that belonged legitimately to other more honorable exhibitors.

The management decided to put a stop to such work and their legislation for the present year deprived one of last year's exhibitors from making seventy-five entries in the one class, this year. This is only one case. There were others of a similar nature but on a smaller scale.

We understand too, that Mr. Chas. Grant and others of Thornbury, who have always exhibited several varieties of grain were in London during the week, hence, several things worked materially against the success the management should have had. It is generally conceded too, that without special attractions the attendance is likely to be small. This year, apart from "speeding in the ring" there were no side shows. Of course the "merry-go-round" was there as well as the persistent medicine man, but these brought a revenue to the society and cannot be classed amongst the attractions. The exhibits were good in the different varieties of grain, fruit, roots, poultry and farm stock and after all with a reduced number of entries and a smaller gate receipt, we feel that the fair was a financial success and all exhibitors will be satisfied with the results.

The great general interest, was shown in the races for which good prizes were given.
