The charges made by Mr. Whitney's party against the mismanagement of the Ontario Government have been well sustained in the House, and the Hardy-Ross manipulators have been brought to their knees too oftan to make the game a pleasant one. The concessions on the Timber Question and the revelations of the Humber Piggery investigation prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the charges were not unfounded.

The candidates in South Grey each party regards as the unanimous choice of their respective conventions. With the exception of Dr. Jamieson we'll say nothing of their personal qualifications We want improved tegislation, and to get improved measures we want men whom we know are willing to support the most progressive, and in this case the agressive party. Mr. Whitney's policy is the people's policy - a policy inaugurated through necessity. The principle of wise economy lies at the base of all good government. The Conservatives, tired of witnessing a wasteful extravagance and axious to husband carefully the natural .resources of the country for the benefit of Canadians, appeal to the intelligence of the people for their stpport in the present campaign.
